

THE REFLECTOR

DEDICATION

EDITH A. J. G. M.

Dedicated to Mr. Rue

This first issue of THE REFLECTOR of 1947 is dedicated to Mr. Rue, our principal and sponsor of the senior class.

He has won our respect by his pleasant and agreeable manner of running a well disciplined school. His years of successful work in the field of education makes us proud to have him as our principal.

We feel that he has tried to teach us to lead honorable and useful lives in our communities.

We know that the future students of this high school will enjoy and gain as much from their school life as we have during the past four years.

CLASS HISTORY of 1946-47

In the fall of 1943, forty-nine pupils enrolled in the freshman class.

Seven of our senior boys played on the first team of our basketball squad.

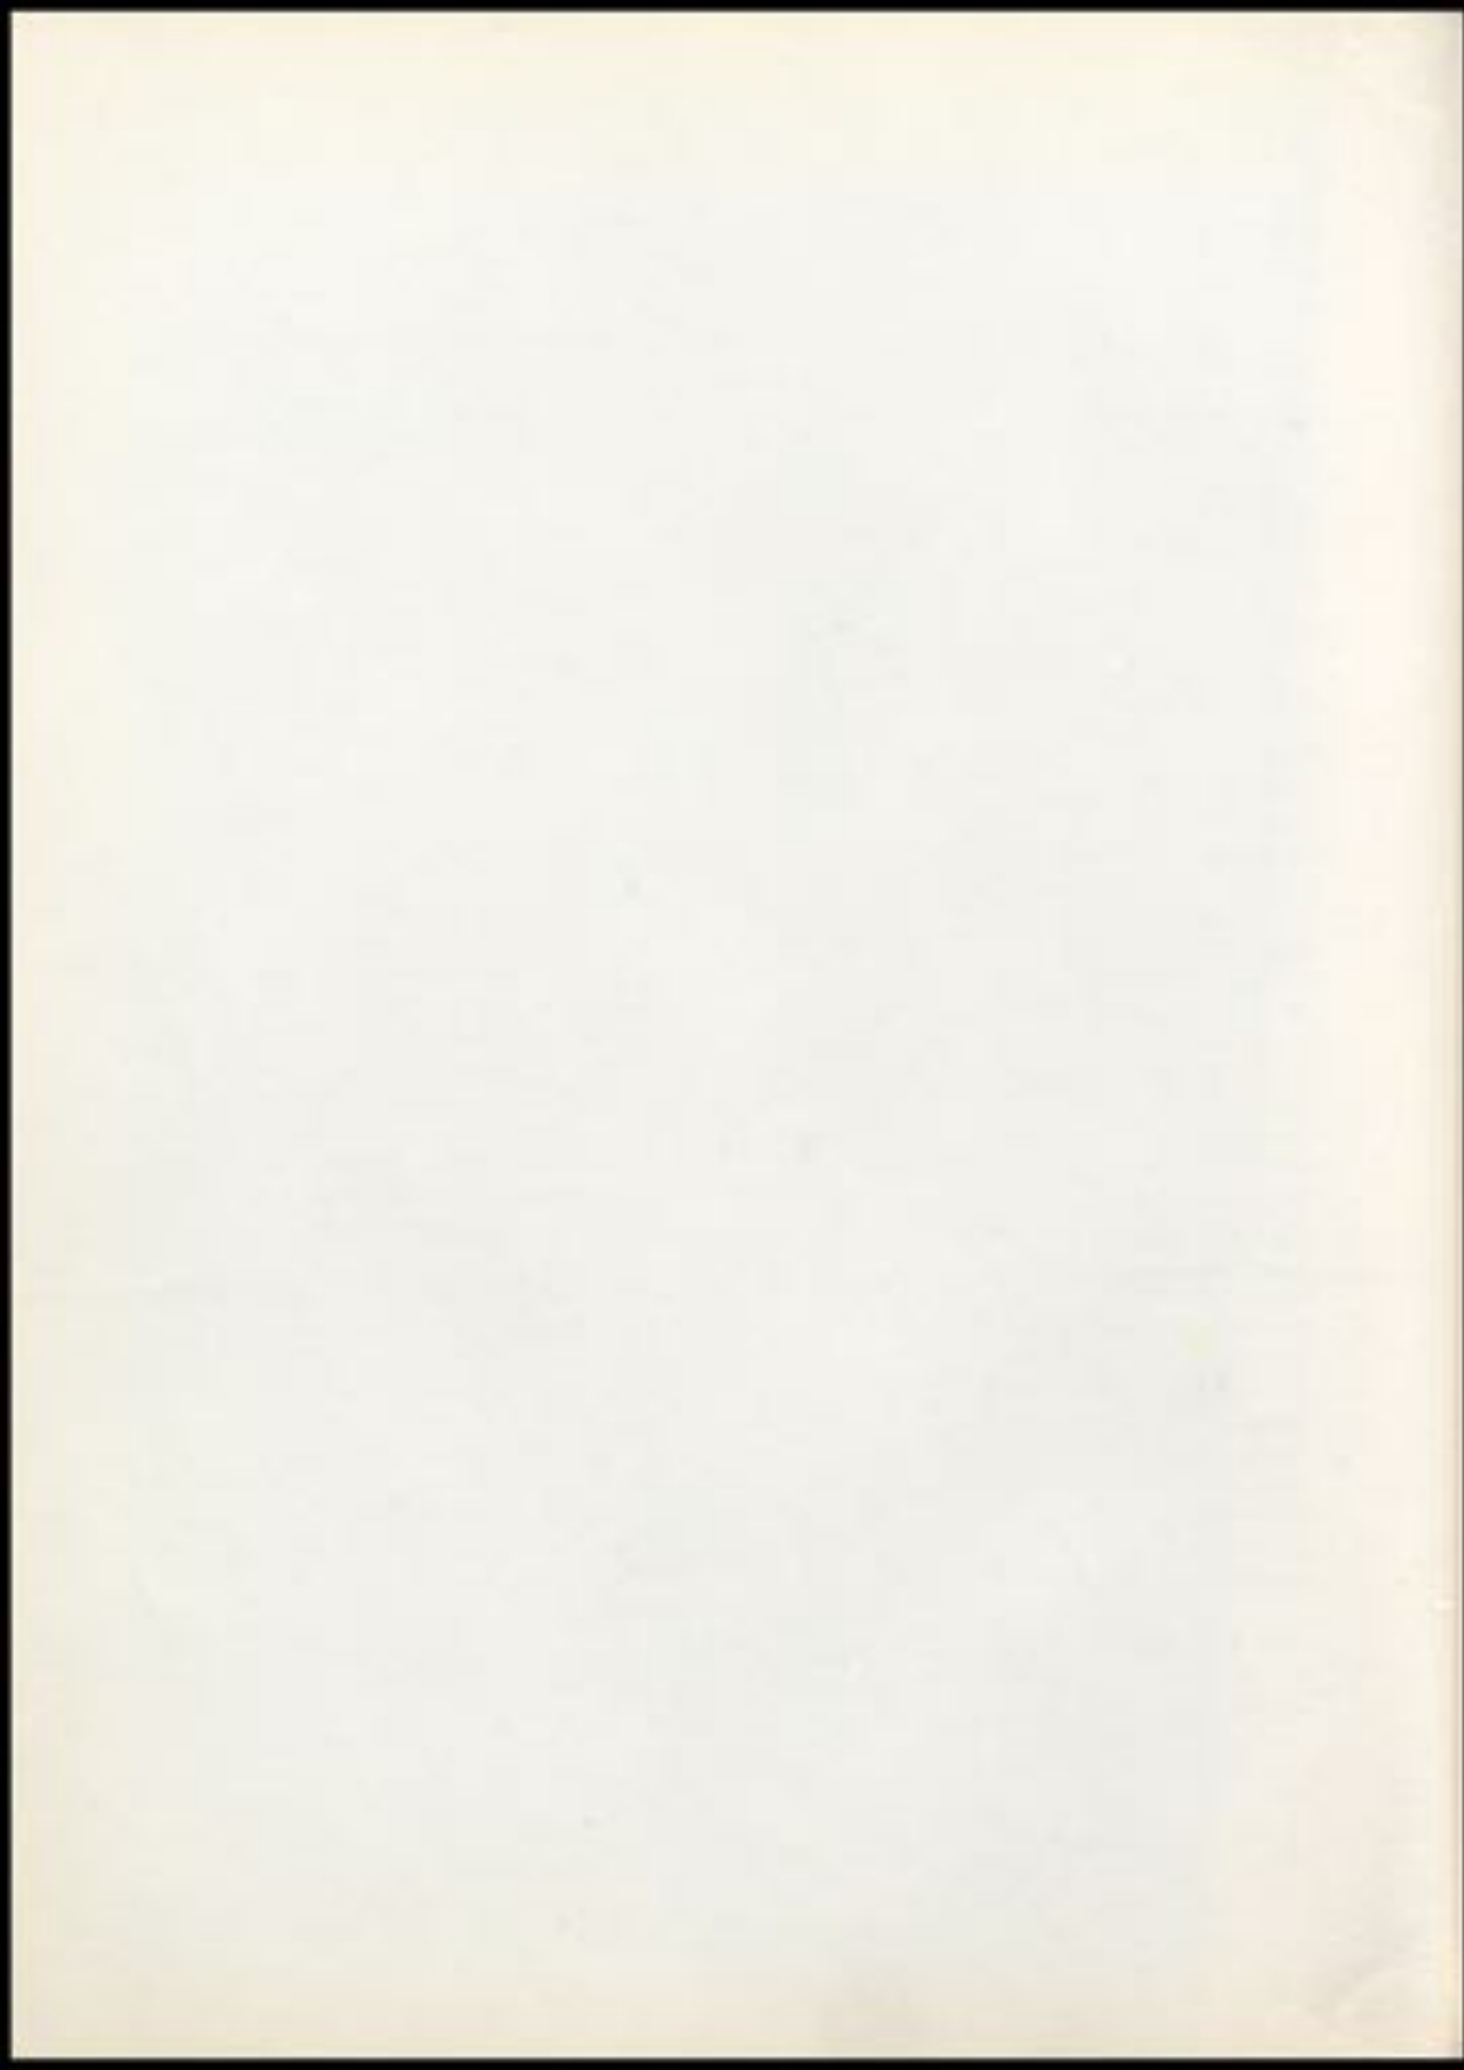

Clyde Meyers	-	Guard
Lloyd Underhill	-	Forward
Tyrus Forler	-	Guard
Raphael Forler	-	Forward
Walter Raven	-	Forward
Junior Brown	-	Forward
Bob Medcalf	-	Center

Several members of our class played in the C. H. S. band. Charles Polster plays the Saxophone, Nellie Beasley the Baritone, Thomas Rodney the Melophone, Robert Wittman the Sousaphone, and John Himmelheber the Baritone.

One of our classmates, John Himmelheber, has been a yell-leader for the last two years.

There are eight senior girls who sing in the Double Sextets.

Leta Wirthwein
 Delores Waninger
 Nellie Beasley
 Marcene Ross
 Katherine Foertach
 Emogene Gripenstroh
 Betty Yearby
 Marie Selzer

When we began as freshmen, we elected our class officers, class colors, and our class sponsor.

Our class leaders during the freshmen year were:

President - - - - - Wallace Murray
Vice President - - - - - Clyde Meyer
Secretary and Treasurer - - - - - Frank Varner
Program Chairman - - - - - Nellie Beasley
Sponsor - - - - - Mr. Thomas

In the first month of our sophomore year, we elected the following officers:

President - - - - - John Himmelheber
Vice President - - - - - Howard Hagan
Secretary and Treasurer - - - - - Lorene Miller
Program Chairman - - - - - Arlene Cotton
Sponsor - - - - - Miss Blue

It was in our sophomore year that we won the basketball class tourney. The class tourney was held in March 1945 and after defeating the Freshmen we won the tourney by beating the favored Juniors by a small margin.

September 1946 we elected officers for our junior year.

President - - - - - John Himmelheber
Vice President - - - - - Clyde Meyer
Secretary and Treasurer - - - - - Katherine Foertsch
Program Chairman - - - - - Marcene Ross
Sponsor - - - - - Mrs. Banister

We received our class rings in October.

The class officers for our last year were:

President - - - - - John Himmelheber
Vice President - - - - - Robert Wittman
Secretary and Treasurer - - - - - Lorene Miller
Program Chairman - - - - - Bob Medcalf
Sponsor - - - - - Mr. Roe

We received our class sweaters in our senior year. They were bright red with white emblems.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the County of Dallas, Texas, at the City of Dallas, this _____ day of _____, 19____.

When we began our senior year, we found that there were only 38 left of the 49 people who began as Freshmen in 1943.

During the freshmen year, Wallace Murray withdrew from school. Wallace is now working on a farm near Elora, Indiana.

Charlotte Rizzo and Thelma Lee Ellsworth both dropped out of school in our first year. Charlotte is employed in the Ken Rad Plant at Tell City. Thelma Ellsworth died in December, 1946.

At the end of our sophomore year, we found that five more people had left our class.

Ortina Barker has enrolled in Boonville High School and will graduate this year.

Louis Stein, Jr. is a member of the United States Marine Corps.

Elora Barker has been working at home since she left school.

Omer Mulzer is working on his farm.

Irene Jones, who withdrew in her sophomore year, is now married.

Before our junior year was over, Douglas Hardy had withdrawn.

At last it was 1946 and we were Seniors. Arlene Cotton had failed to return. During the summer, she had begun work in the Fredrick Store in Tell City.

The last of our class members to leave was Anna Lee Graham. Anna Lee left school in December. She is now Mrs. Karl Gubler.

Clyde Meyer, Thomma Rodney, Marie Selzer, and Earl Kramer are four of our graduates who have spent all twelve years at Chrisney school.

Tyrus Porter, Lorene Miller, and Everett Brown, Jr. went eight years at Midway and the remaining four years at Chrisney.

Bob Medcalf, Charles Price, Robert Beasley, and Lloyd Underhill went to Newtonville eight years, and Chrisney four.

Delores Waninger and Walter Raven have gone to Gentryville ten years and Chrisney two.

Lester Merta has gone to Lippert school six years, St. John's two years, and Chrisney four.

Marcene Roos has attended Zolar's school, Lincoln, Illinois one year, Killian three years, Buffaloville four years, and Chrisney four years.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. The second part outlines the procedures for handling discrepancies and errors, stating that any such issues should be reported immediately to the relevant department. The third part details the process for auditing the accounts, including the selection of samples and the use of statistical methods to ensure the reliability of the data. The final part concludes with a summary of the findings and recommendations for future improvements.

Loretta Snyder went to Bloomfield two years, Midway six, and Chrisney four.

Frank Varner attended one year at Newtonville, seven years at Grandview and the remaining four years at Chrisney.

Leta Wirthwein attended seven years at Grandview, one year at Silverdale and four at Chrisney.

Adelene Wiseman went to Eastwood school in Kentucky one year, Louisville school two months, the next three years and six months were spent at Adyeville school, three years at Lamar and four years at Chrisney.

Robert Wittman attended Lippert school eight years and Chrisney four.

Betty Yearby attended Bullick Hill school one year, one half year and the remaining half-year at Bloomfield, then remained at Chrisney the last four years.

Jean Wroe spent two years at Newtonville, two years at Silverdale, four years at Grandview, and the remaining four at Chrisney.

The first five years of his school life Charles Polster went to Evanston school. The next three years were spent at St. John's and the last four at Chrisney.

Nellie Beasley and Elda Ayer have attended school at Newtonville for six years and and at Chrisney six years.

Lester Bays attended EMTES school in Indianapolis one year and then eleven years in Chrisney.

Dorothy Beren has gone to Banks school one year, Grandview seven years, and Chrisney four.

Wanda Gay Ferguson went to school seven years at Lamar, one at Lippert, and four at Chrisney.

For one-half year, Raphael Forler attended Midway school and Chrisney eleven and one-half years.

Katherine Foertock has gone to Lamar eight years and Chrisney four.

Emogean Griepenstroh went to Elm Corner eight years and Chrisney four.

Margie Greene spent five years at Eureka, Hatfield two years, South Central one, Rockport two, and Chrisney two.

Howard Hagan attended Newtonville eight years and Chrisney four.

John Himmelheber went to Newtonville four years, Cutler one year, and Chrisney seven.

Joyce Hudson attended Meyer's grade school at Cannelton five years, Cutler three years, and four years at Chrisney.

Augusta Kelley went to Killian school eight years and Chrisney four.

We graduated enjoyed the past four years that we spent with each other and our teachers. We feel that we have accomplished much in that, though doubtless, we could have done much better.

We are grateful to our parents for giving us the opportunity to attend school twelve years and graduate with our class.

We would like to leave a by-word to the other high school students who will be following us in the near future, and that is, "To Make Your Better Best".

CLASS PROPHECY

"VISIONS of 1967"

As I was walking down Adams Avenue in Hollywood, California, one sultry afternoon in 1967, I met the most important people and I found only ten years ago they were graduates of Chrismey High School! Upon walking down the avenue, I happened to glance up and to my amazement I saw the most beautiful mansion I had ever seen. The mansion was built in Greek style and had thirty-six rooms in it. Out in the yard, I saw three sets of twins and four other children. To my surprise who should come walking out the door but Lester Meris, a former classmate. After talking to him for some time, I found he had married a very rich actress. He asked me to introduce me to his wife and whom should I see as the doorman, but Robert Wittman still as slap-happy as ever. When talking to him, I found that he had married Dorothy Beren, who is also a maid.

As we left the mansion, we met the most handsome fellow who looked familiar; low and behold! Who should it be but Everett Brown. Everett is unmarried and still as quiet as ever.

It was not easy leaving our friends; but, as we were tourists, we had to be moving along.

One night while at a dance in Savannah, Georgia, I thought I saw a familiar face on the stage. After inquiring, I found it to be none other than Clyde Meyers, who is now taking Bob Hope's place as a comedian. While sitting there at my table waiting for the waiter, Lester Bays, to bring my lunch, who should pass by but Adelese Wiseman, who is a flower girl.

While waiting for the DIXIE FLYER to come in, who should offer to carry my bags but Charles Dunn. Charles is still as mischievous as ever. He tried to use my bag as a seat, but it broke through with him.

While roaming through the prairies in Wyoming, my horse bucked and I was knocked unconscious. When I awoke, to my surprise standing over me was Charles Price. He is residing in the West for his health.

When leaving, I decided to take a taxi, I called for one and not long afterwards one skidded up to the curb and do you know who the driver was? None other than Howard Hagan. I was frozen with fear all the way home, for he went through every red light and around the corners on one wheel.

As the weather was getting warm, I decided to go swimming. I slowly waded into the warm silvery water. On the pier I saw Beadie Bays, the life guard. When there is a man drowning, she is really good; but by watching her, I believe she would let a woman drown. I swam until I was exhausted and, as I stumbled on to the beach, Joyce Hudson and her husband gave us a lift in their stunning purple limousine. They told us that Marie Selner and Marcene Ross were reporters for the CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

As I was tired and very thirsty, I decided to stop at Snyder's Cafe. Here Loretta Snyder and Leta Wirthwein had a very profitable business. After drinking a glass of sour milk, which cost me 75¢ I decided I had better be moving along or else go to a doctor.

Recently, I received a letter from Wanda Gay Ferguson. She is now married to Billy Adye and is now living in California. She seems to like California rather well.

Since I had nothing else to do, I decided to take a drive in the country. After driving about twenty miles, a tire blew out so I walked to a near by farm house. When I reached the door, I met Nellie and her four sons. Nellie is now Mrs. Edgar Payne. I learned from her that in the next house on the hill Elda Rae Sisley lives, the former Elda Rae Ayer.

As I was looking for a typewriter, I stopped at a L.C. Smith Shop. Here I found no other than Delores Waninger demonstrating some of her skill. Delores is now the world Champion Typist.

After inheriting a very large sum of money from an old Italian aunt, Thomma Rodsey now enjoys a life of leisure in Florida.

From some friends I learned that Augusta Kelley is the very well liked teacher of the Killian School. Luck to you Augusta!

Since I wanted some enjoyment, I decided to spend a day at the circus. I heard a man calling out, "Popcorn! Peanuts!" As I was hungry, I decided to get some popcorn. Can you imagine whom I saw? None other than Robert Beasley. I talked with him and he said he owned a big farm and raised nothing but corn. No wonder, he is selling popcorn; by the way it was tough, Robert!

As I was on the way out of the circus, I met Margie Greens. Of course after going to school with her, I just had to chat a while. She had several of her children with her and they were watching the monkeys. I heard her say to them, "That is just the way the kids in my senior class acted."

The other day while in Faginaw, Michigan, I saw that my school-girl figure was getting away from me. I made an appointment at the Reducing Salon. On the sign it read "Owned by Jean Wroe". Of course, I hadn't forgotten she had gone to C. H. S., so I went in. After she finished with me, I went to the mirror and I just couldn't believe my eyes! She really did the work, but no saying how or where! Talking to me she asked me if I remembered Billy Himmelheber? No, I couldn't have forgotten him, so I inquired. She said he had a restaurant right around the corner. I made a dash for it. If I had blinked my eyes, I would have missed it but it was a cute place. There behind the counter was Bill jerking sodas. He gave me three sodas on the house. After that I thought I had better leave, for I was getting a strange pain in my stomach.

One Sunday morning while at home I turned on the radio to get some music. There was a vocalist, singing and was she good! I thought I recognized her voice but yet I didn't know. When the announcer announced it was Katherine Poertsch, it brought back memories to "47" when she and the other girls sang at school. She is really doing okay for herself.

I went to a night club to relax for a while but as soon as I got there I knew I couldn't relax and enjoy myself for who would have ever guessed Lloyd Underhill owned it? And do you know who the leader of the orchestra was? None other than Charlie Polster who is taking Harry James' place.

After seeing all my classmates, I felt that the class of 1947 has accomplished a great deal, and we wish them all the success in the world. Good Luck, always.

Class Will

We, the senior class of 1947, who have successfully traveled the long narrow path through the uncertain life of high school students, hereby publish our last will and testament.

Article I--To the faculty of Chrissey High School, we leave our deep thanks for helping, teaching, and guiding us through the trials and tribulations of our school life.

Article II--To the freshmen we leave our ability to study and to obtain the most from our lessons.

Article III--We will to the Sophomores, the problems which they will face when they become upperclassmen, and our experiences to help them in solving these problems.

Article IV--To the Juniors we bequeath our place as "dignified" seniors, hoping they will use this opportunity to set a good example for the other classmen.

Article V--As individuals we will to the other students the following items:

Bessie Bays wills her bangs to Joan Cooley.

Elda Ayer gives her interest in government to Bud Claycamp.

Dorothy Beren leaves her quiet nature to Norma Lou Sibrel.

Lester Bays wills his laugh to Eugene Heckel.

Charles Dunn bequeaths his ability to go "steady" to Jim Raaf.

Joyce Hudson wills her taste for fruit, namely dates, to Vivian Eiceman.

Katherine Foertsch wills her "swing" to Patty Doyle.

Clyde Meyer leaves his basketball ability to Paul Hagan.

Wanda Gay Ferguson bequeaths her "know how" to keep a senior after graduation to Leta Ice.

Nellie Beasley wills her position in the band to Cora Doyle.

Lester Merta bequeaths his curly hair to Herman Wittman.

Marjorie Greene wills her nick-name of "Dynamite" to Betty Lorenz.

Marie Felzer wills her singing voice to Mary Wasinger.

Bob Medcalf wills his long legs to Leon Faege.

Loretta Snyder gives her "waggin" tongue to Ann Tevertaugh.

Chow Chow

The Chow Chow is a breed of dog that is known for its thick, wavy coat and its distinctive "lion's mane" around its face. It is a large, powerful breed that is often used as a guard dog. The breed is believed to have originated in China, where it has been kept for centuries. It is a very loyal and protective breed that is often very quiet and reserved.

Howard Hagan bequeaths his love for moonlight to Richard Starkey.

Lloyd Underhill leaves his popularity with the Rockport girls to Jack McCullough.

Earl Kramer wills his natural blush to Don Smith.

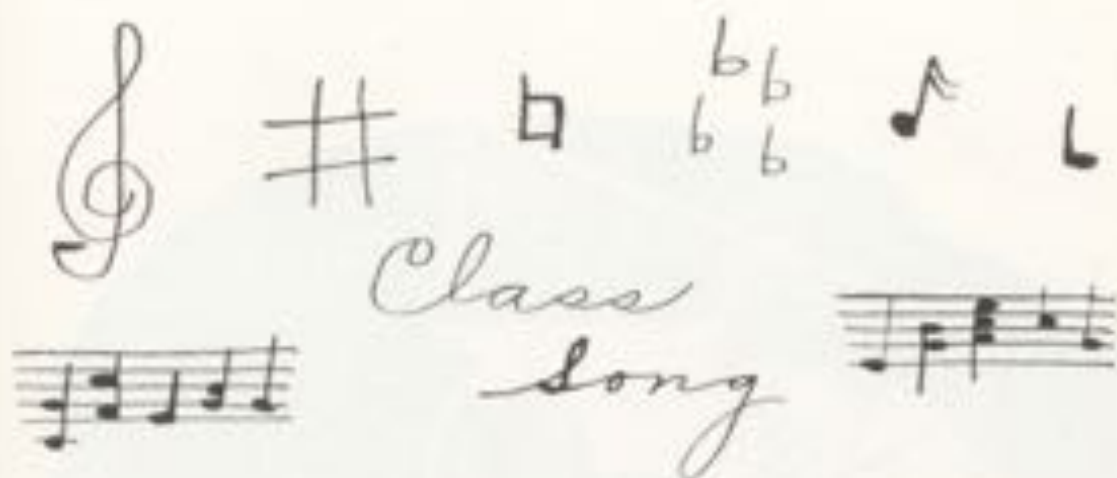

Augusta Kelley bequeaths her indispensable smile to Anna Lois Vance.

Jean Wroe leaves her driving ability to Ruth Ellen Byrne.

Marcene Ross wills her beautiful blonde hair to Viola Richard.

Bill Himmelheber wills his trips to Grandview to Robert Vance.

The first part of the report is devoted to a general description of the project and its objectives. It then proceeds to a detailed account of the work done during the period covered by the report.
The results of the work are then discussed and compared with those of other workers in the field. Finally, the report concludes with a summary of the work done and a list of references.

Tune: "Here Comes the Navy"

We Seniors all are sorry
 That our school year now has ended,
 We always liked our classes
 And the way our voices blended,
 We'll be lonely, very lonely
 For each other for a while
 And for our wonderful teachers
 Who always had a smile.
 But the time has come
 For us to part,
 We all have got a heavy heart,
 But we must all cheer up and sing
 And make this old school room ring.

Chorus:

Here come the Seniors,
 Thirty-eight members in all.
 Here come the Seniors,
 Some are so short and some tall,
 Make way for Seniors,
 Seniors of old Chrismey High,
 Now's the time to cheer the Seniors,
 And to tell them all good-bye.

UNDERGRADS

JUNIOR CLASS

It came September, 1946, and we began our junior year. It was a very successful year under the leadership of our class officers--President, Tommy May---Vice President, Vivian Eiceman---Secretary, Roberta Kramer---Treasurer, Leta Ice --- Program Chairman, Norma Lou Sibrel---Sponsor, Mrs. Richard.

To begin the year we conducted a magazine sale. J. P. Myers won an award for being the high point salesman. Lavon Lloyd was in second place. The losing team in the magazine sale gave a party for the winning team.

The Junior Class has several of its members on the basketball squad, Jim Raaf, Russell Sibrel, Myron Beeler, Jim Smith, and Elayne Goodman. Another Junior J. P. Myers is the student manager.

We received our class rings in October.

Our class had more names on the honor roll than any other class during the year.

We won the sale of basketball season tickets and our candidate for queen, Roberta Kramer, was crowned at the Gentryville-Christney basketball game. We sold $136 worth of tickets.

Katherine Ravens won the most popular girl contest at the Halloween Festival.

Then to close the year the junior class gave a banquet for the Seniors. We are looking forward to a summer vacation and beginning next year as dignified seniors.

SOPHOMORE SIDELIGHTS

Our year of being green freshmen was over and we started our second year of high school feeling like veterans in this business of education.

During the first month we elected our class officers. President, Jack McCallough Vice President, James Mosby---Secretary and Treasurer, Anna Lois Vance --- Program Chariman, Evelyn Buxton---Sponsor, Miss Elae.

Jean Underhill was our candidate for basketball queen.

Tom Fleming, Marlon Gaston, Lionel Varner, and Marian Price were the sophomore boys that played on the basketball team.

Our only disappointment was that there were not very many of our members on the honor roll.

In March we ordered our class rings and expect to receive them at the beginning of our junior year.

One of our class members, Viola Richard was elected yell leader.

FRESHMAN CLASS

There never was a greener bunch of boys and girls than these freshmen who entered our school this fall. Before many days had passed, they felt they really belonged here.

Their elected officers were---President, Bobby Bennett--- -- Vice President, June Tullis---Secretary, Lila Ann May---Treasurer, Cora May Doyle---Program Chairman, Wandalea Johnson---Sponsor, Mr. Thomas.

During the first month we had the lowest percent in the school paper sale contest and had to give a program for the E. C. A. period.

June Tullis was elected yell leader.

Stanley Walls, Hilbert Grigsby, Ben Varner, Ralph Hagan, Leroy Meyer, and Leroy Jackson are members of our class who have made places for themselves on the basketball team.

We are just freshmen now but in 1950 we will be seniors---and after that ----- who knows.

Class Poem

Old C. H. S. opens its doors once more,
And out will go the class of forty-seven,
The class has studied hard to make their score,
And for this work a diploma will be given.

To all our patient teachers,
We now would like to say,
And express our loyal thanks,
For helping us all the way.

The class must leave old Chrisney High
The place where they've had much fun and joy,
And now we wish you would gladly receive,
A word about each senior girl and boy.

Elda Rae Ayer, a girl who's hard to beat,
And very dignified in her class,
She can either be cross or very sweet,
Because she is such a changeable lass.

Some claim boys do not interest them,
They do not like their ways,
But just watch the way she grins at them,
And you'll know this isn't said by Bessie Bays.

And Lester Bays who is often caught lyin',
And wears his glasses down on his nose,
At all the girls he's always sightin',
And under his feet no grass ever grows.

When you first see Nellie Beasley,
You'd think her quiet and dear,
But it's a different story,
When Edgar Payne is near.

Robert Beasley who has lots of fun,
Throughout the whole day long,
But one thing I should like to hear,
Is for him to sing a song.

Dorothy Beren is a quiet girl,
She hasn't much to say,
But by working very hard,
She hopes to be a nurse someday.

Classroom

1. The first part of the lesson is devoted to a review of the material covered in the previous lesson. This is done by asking the students to recite the definitions of the terms "classroom" and "classroom management".

2. The second part of the lesson is devoted to a discussion of the importance of classroom management. The teacher asks the students to discuss the reasons why classroom management is important and the consequences of poor classroom management.

3. The third part of the lesson is devoted to a discussion of the techniques for effective classroom management. The teacher asks the students to discuss the techniques for effective classroom management and the consequences of ineffective classroom management.

4. The fourth part of the lesson is devoted to a discussion of the role of the teacher in classroom management. The teacher asks the students to discuss the role of the teacher in classroom management and the consequences of ineffective classroom management.

5. The fifth part of the lesson is devoted to a discussion of the role of the student in classroom management. The teacher asks the students to discuss the role of the student in classroom management and the consequences of ineffective classroom management.

6. The sixth part of the lesson is devoted to a discussion of the role of the parent in classroom management. The teacher asks the students to discuss the role of the parent in classroom management and the consequences of ineffective classroom management.

7. The seventh part of the lesson is devoted to a discussion of the role of the community in classroom management. The teacher asks the students to discuss the role of the community in classroom management and the consequences of ineffective classroom management.

8. The eighth part of the lesson is devoted to a discussion of the role of the government in classroom management. The teacher asks the students to discuss the role of the government in classroom management and the consequences of ineffective classroom management.

9. The ninth part of the lesson is devoted to a discussion of the role of the media in classroom management. The teacher asks the students to discuss the role of the media in classroom management and the consequences of ineffective classroom management.

And now we come to Junior Brown,
A very strong and sturdy lad,
Most every day he wears a frown,
I wonder if he's really mad.

Earl Kramer's very tall and slender,
And his hair is very black,
And if he studies very hard,
Intelligence he will not lack.

Bob Medcalf really likes to flirt,
He thinks it's very funny,
This will stop when he gets married,
I'll bet you any money.

And now comes Lester Merta,
Who has very curly hair,
And we often wonder,
If he'd really take a dare.

He loves to flirt with all the girls,
For this he has a fever,
Now you know this handsome brute,
Is no one but Little Beaver.

Next in line is that Miller girl,
Her first name is Lorene,
She is the secretary of the senior class,
And more fun than you've ever seen.

From Evanston comes Charles Polster,
No better lad could be so fine,
Just say something about Lamar,
And he can really shine.

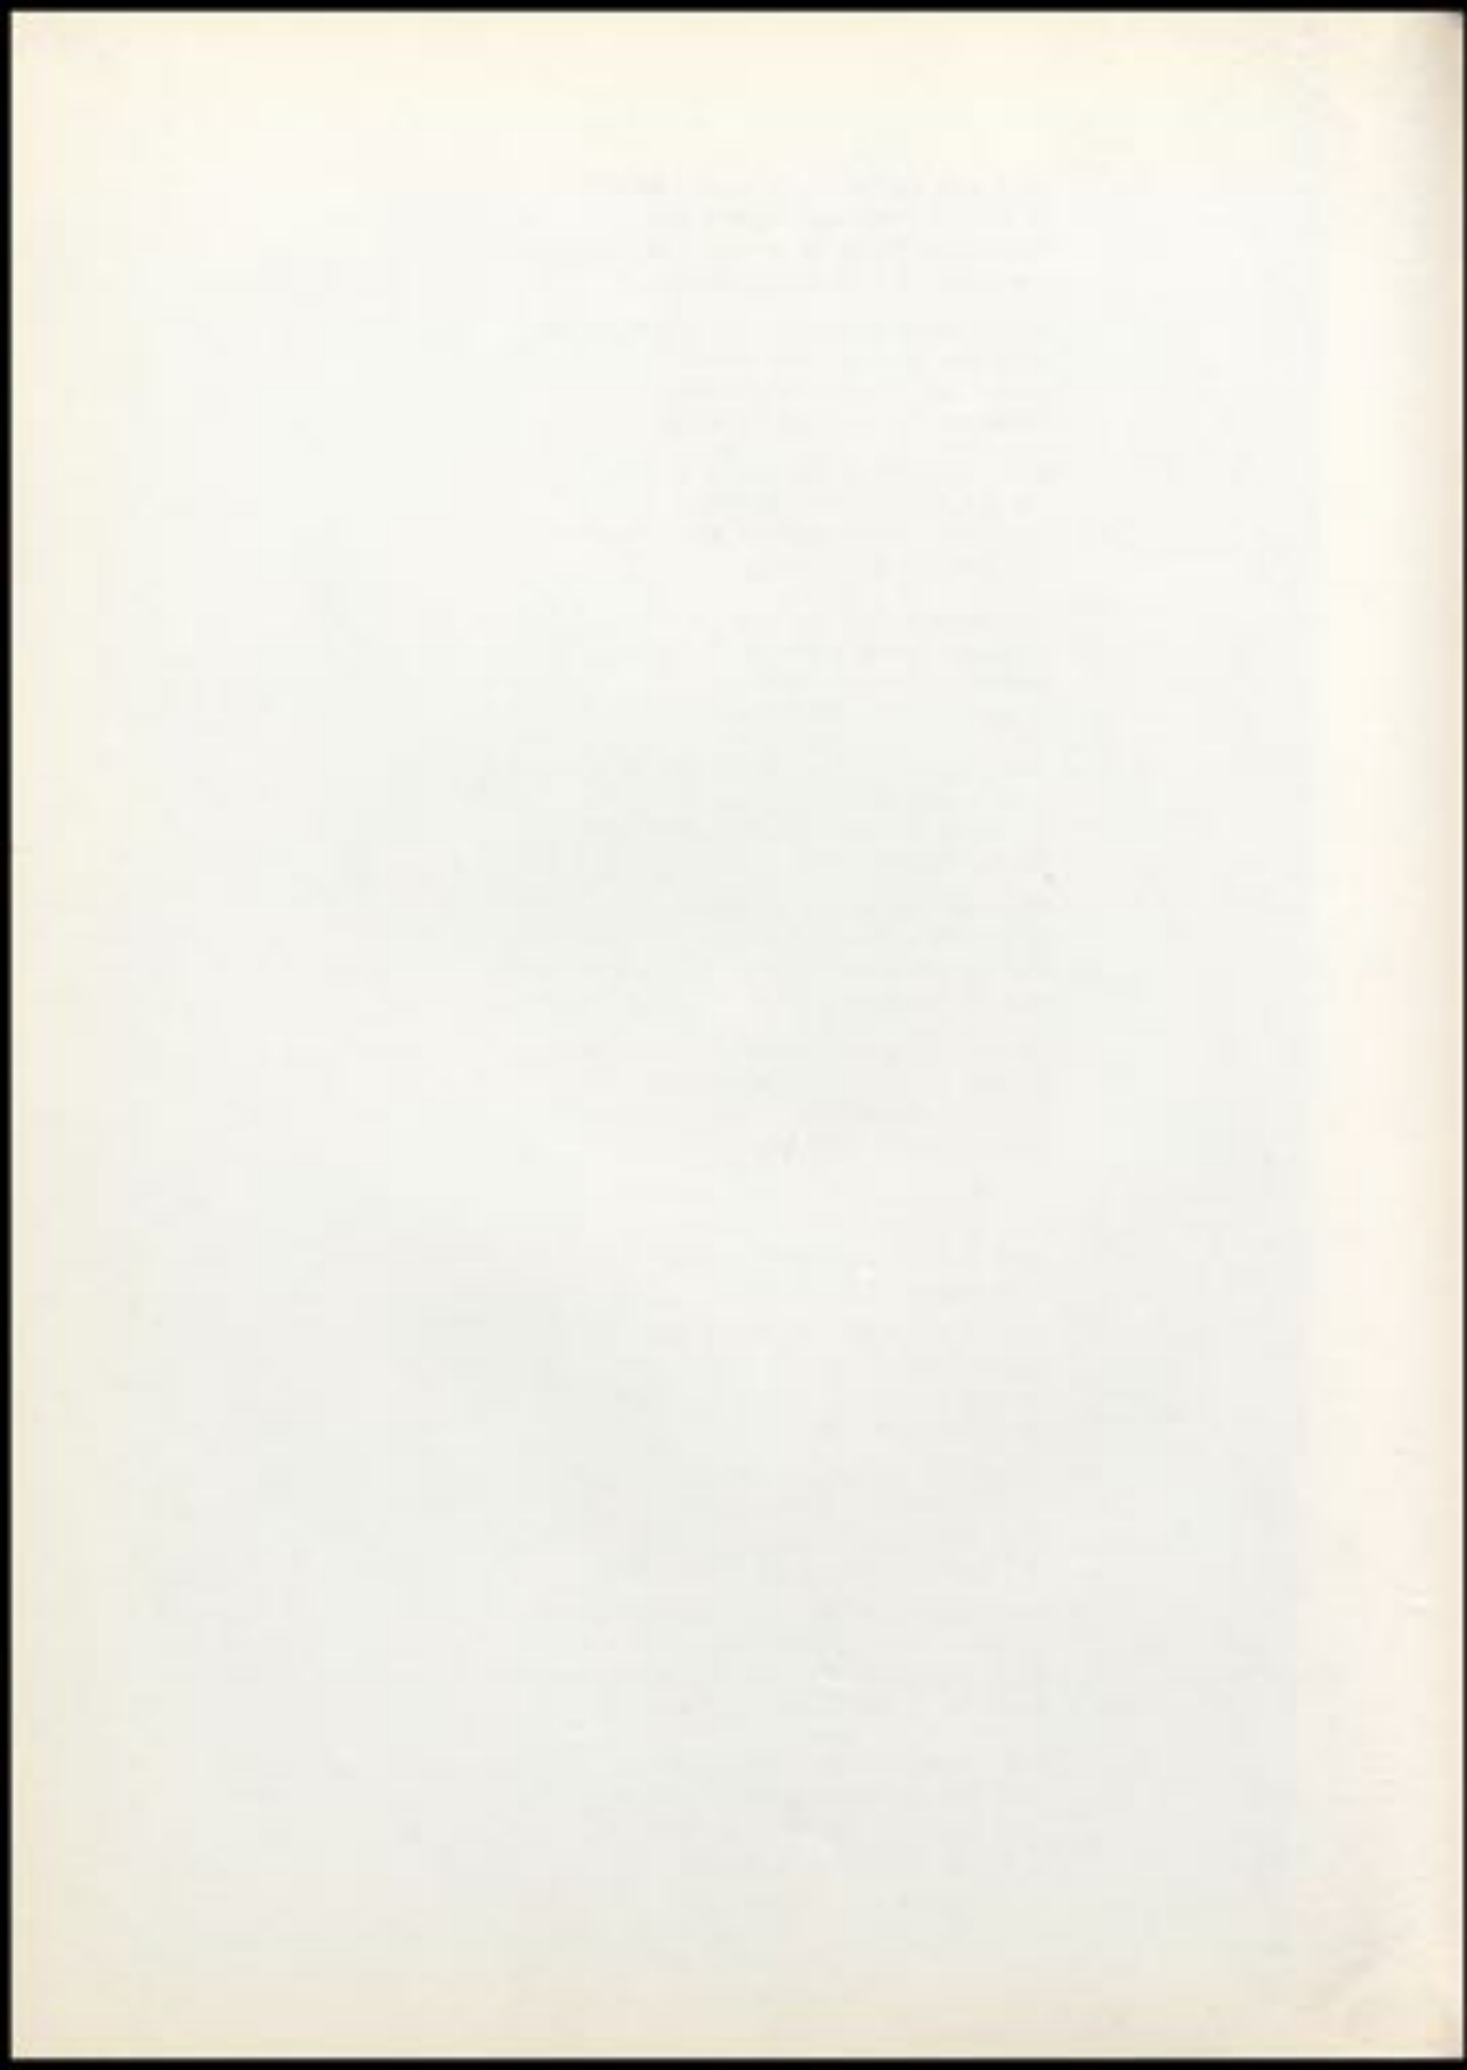

On Saturday and Sunday nights,
He can't be found in any town,
For gallivatin' Charles Price,
Can really move around.

Now Walter Raven, whom they call "Pete",
He is really liked by all,
And in one thing he can't be beat,
And that's in basketball.

In her studies she works very hard,
So she can gain her knowledge,
For Thonma Rodney may be planning,
To attend some great big college.

Now when you speak of Marcene Ross,
It isn't very hard to say,
That she is nice and everyone knows,
She'll be a success someday.

I don't know much about Marie,
And you can never tell,
Just what her future is to be,
But I know she'll do it well.

Now what is Charles Dunn interested in,
I wonder if it's Clarie,
And some day his life will begin,
When Clarie and he shall marry.

A glamorous girl in Wanda Gay,
She likes to look so-so,
For a certain boy who's with her,
Where ever she may go.

Katherine Foertsch is in our class,
A secretary she could be,
I know the boys would envy the boss,
Who'd hold her on his knee.

Raphael Forler is next in line,
He always seems so shy,
But with his cute grin,
He can be quite a guy.

Tyrus Forler is very handsome,
To this most girls agree,
And all of them are saying,
"I wish he's pay attention to me."

Margie Greene who's often seen,
Acting very crazy,
But when it comes to doing work,
She isn't very lazy.

Emogean Gripenstroh, often called "Grippie",
Is very outstanding in the class,
But when she is out of school,
She can be a noisy lass.

Howard Hagan is quite a fellow,
When he is Hatfield bound,
To get his girl, it makes him glad,
And then they paint the town.

Our class president is Bill Himmelheber,
He is our pride and joy,
And all the girls think of him,
As a right good looking boy.

You see her here, you see her there,
Joyce Hudson really flies,
Just whisper something in her ear,
And she'll laugh until she cries.

Augusta Kelley, whom you all know
Is seen in Boonville on Saturday nights,
We wonder what the attraction is,
I'll bet it's not the city lights.

And when we speak of Loretta Marie,
Who always has lots of fun,
She gets around it's plain to see,
And is loved by everyone.

Lloyd Underhill has a weakness,
This not many people know,
Just let a cute red head pass,
And he is ready to go.

We think of Frank V., as very nice,
We all just think he's grand,
And someday to Leta Ice,
He'll ask for her lovely hand.

Her name is Delores Wanzinger,
She can really swing and sway,
And if you didn't stop her,
She'd dance both night and day.

Leta Wirthwein is a pleasant girl,
She is very nice and neat,
And when she gets real angry,
She tells them off and doesn't repeat.

Adelene Wiseman comes from Lamar,
And is smart in all her work,
There is one thing that we all know,
She was never known to shirk.

Bob Wittman can always dress up,
He really can look nifty,
But still we know he doesn't work,
So he must be mighty thrifty.

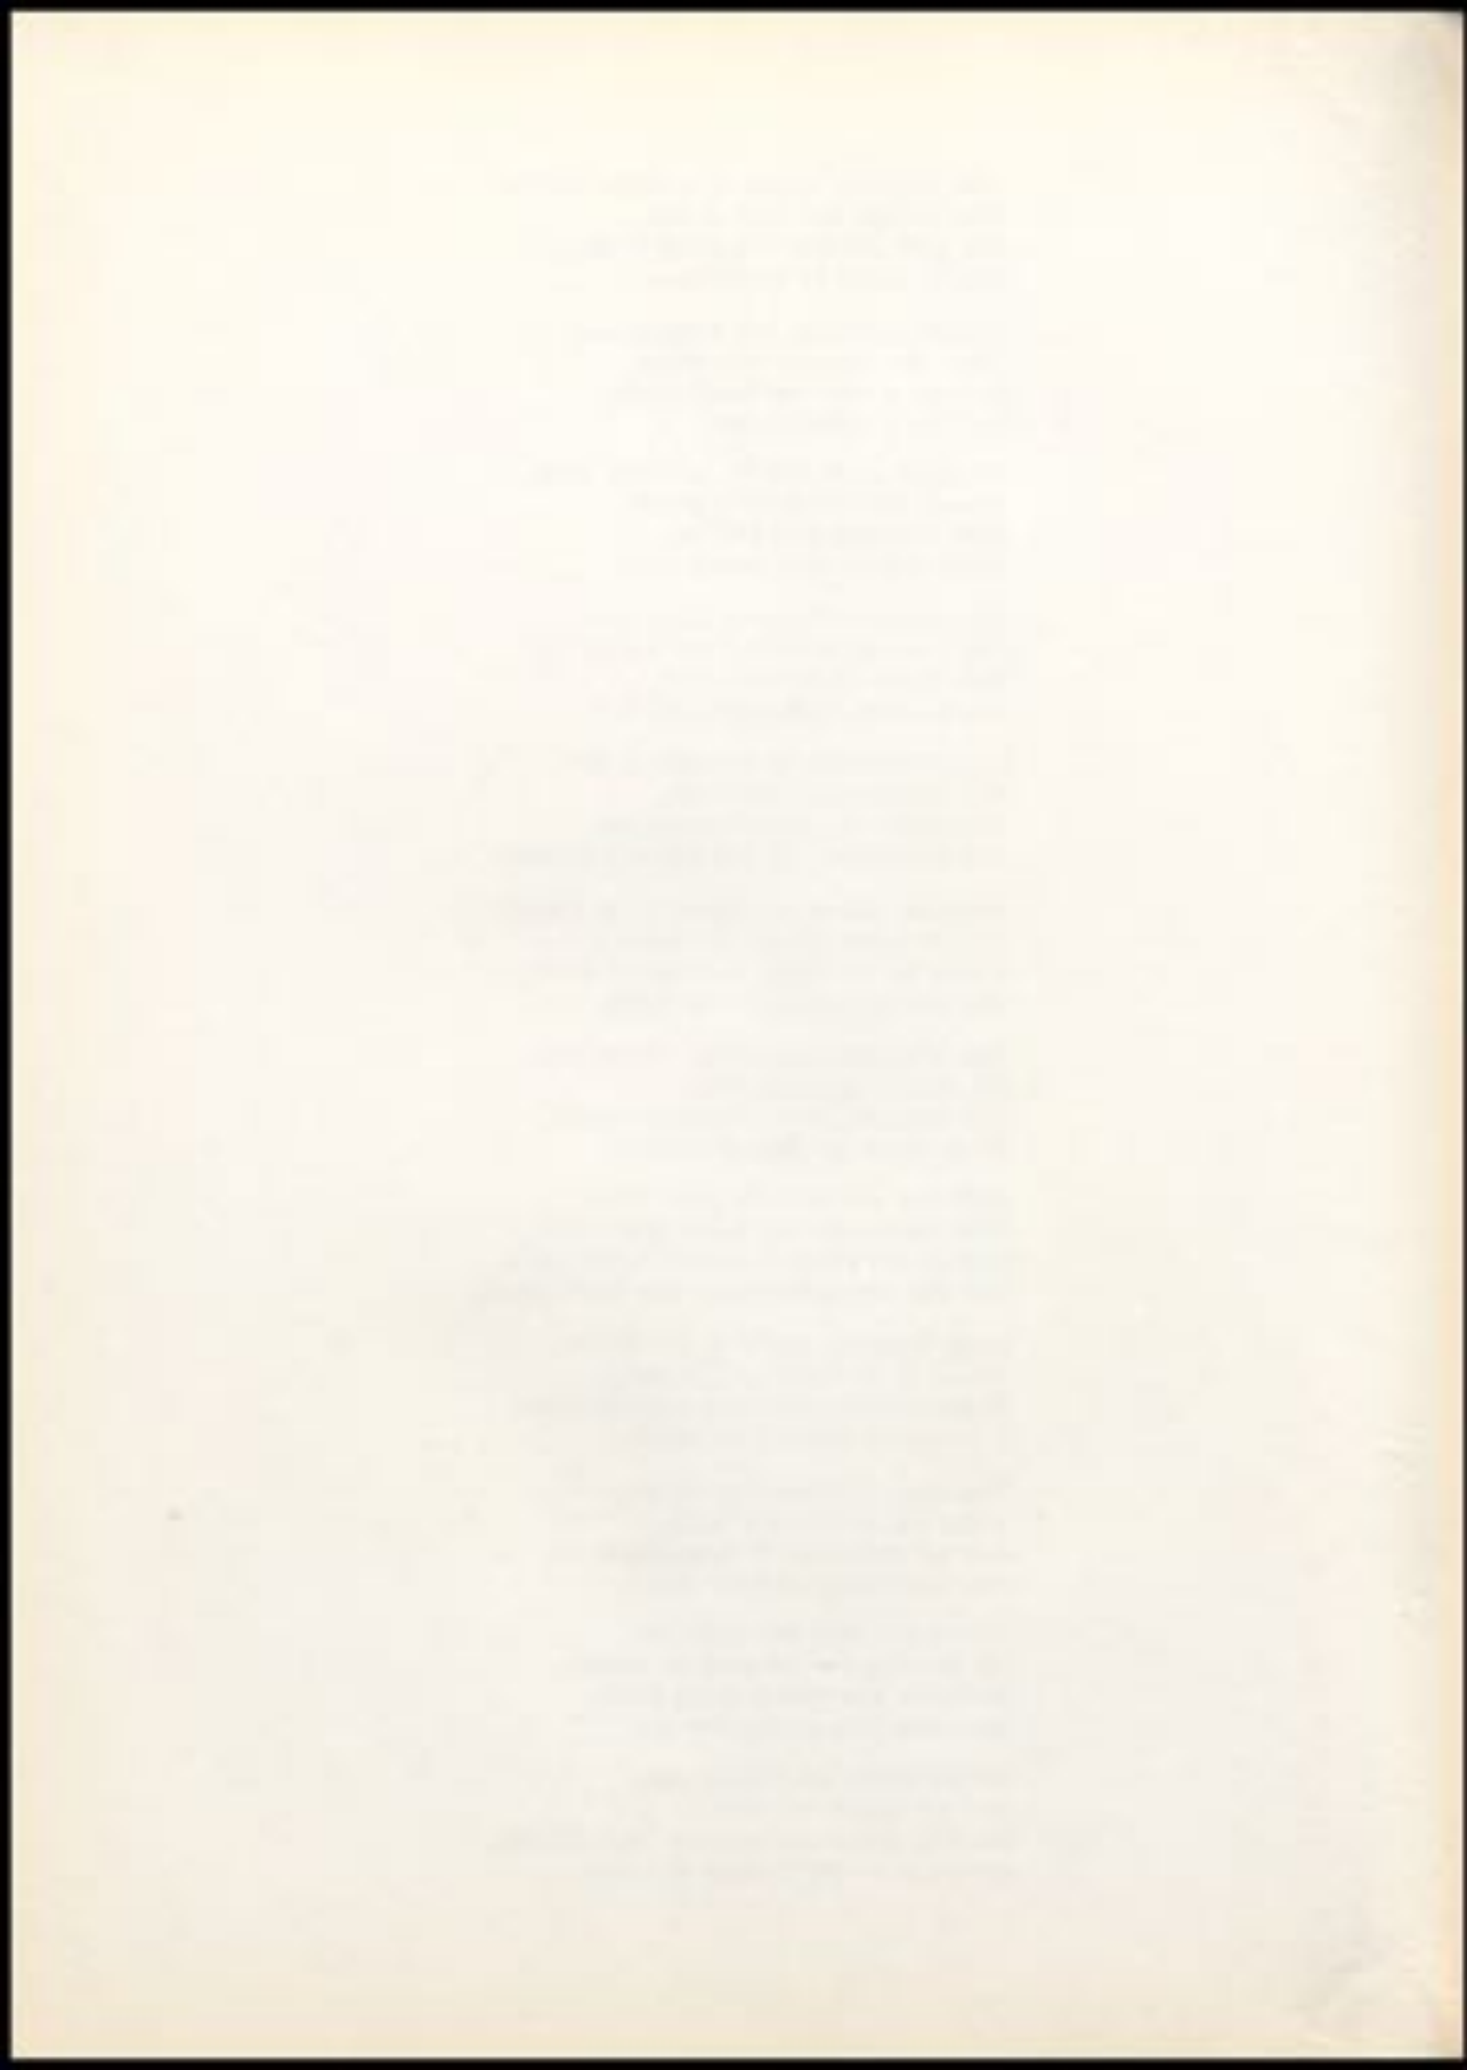

And now we come to Jean Wroe,
Who can make you laugh quite loud,
Just go with her to a basketball game,
And she can drive away any dark cloud.

Betty Yearby, who's in the class,
There is no doubt you'll smile,
If you would watch her actions once;
It would be worth your while.

The time is growing closer,
When all of us must part,
And we know you'll remember us,
Way down deep in your heart.

I hope you will not judge us,
By the way we behaved in school,
Because you really must know,
We were just acting the fool.

As we leave the school life,
And go out on our own,
We will think of Chrisney High School,
As much as we'll think of home.
