SINGING GROUPS: MUSIC HATH CHARMS

The Loganettes have been called on throughout the year to sing for various civic organizations. These girls are interested in working to better their musical ability. They have performed at numerous school assemblies this past year. Their close harmony and original style adds a great deal of interest to the music department.

The boys' quartet is composed of Dave

DuMez, Ray Birkner, Ken Knutson, and Mr. Loyd Meiden, the choir director. In the three years that these three boys have been in choir, they have sung in various groups. This year Mr. Meiden joined them to form a quartet. Throughout the year they have appeared at various social functions in the city and at many school activities.

GLEE CLUB: IT'S A NOTE FOR YOU

The newest member of Logan's musical family is the Boys' Glee Club. This group is made up of sophomore boys who perform at assemblies and at other programs. They wear dark pants and white shirts for their appearances. The Glee Club is set up to prepare boys for singing in the A Cappella Choir.

This year the Girls' Club seemed to be popular with the sophomore girls; the official dress, a white blouse and a red skirt, or a love for music may be back of this strong influence. There are about fifty girls in the Girls' Glee Club.

Both Glee Clubs are under the direction of Mr. Loyd Mieden. They sang in the Thanksgiving assembly and in the Christmas program.

CHOIR: VOICES BLEND IN HARMONY

Logan High School is widely known for its excellent music organizations. The choir has an especially well-deserved reputation for its outstanding performances at various school and outside functions.

The choir was made up of about eighty juniors and seniors. Sophomores must be in Glee Club for one year before entering the choir.

The choir made its first appearance this year at the first P.T.A. meeting. During the first semester, the choir also performed in the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs. The highlight of the second semester was the choir's participation in the musical "Showboat Revue." The group also performed in the Easter assembly, the Spring Concert, the Baccalaureate service, and the Memorial Day assembly. The senior choir is often called upon to sing for various civic organizations.

The choir is under the fine direction of Mr. Loyd Meiden. Mr. Meiden composed "Glory to God," a hymn, that was sung at the Christmas program.

The officers for the choir this year were: president, Dave DuMez; vice-president, Ray Birkenner; secretary, Cheryl Bruemmer; and treasurer, Harry O'Mealy.

LATIN CLUB: "ET TU, BRUTE!"

The Junior Classical League, which meets every third week, prepares all year for the Latin Banquet and the State Convention. The dinner, held once a year, is an attempt to recreate an actual Roman banquet with the guests dressing in Roman costumes. By attending the State Convention, delegates help to strengthen ties with other groups located throughout Wisconsin.

SPANISH CLUB: WATCH YOUR LANGUAGE

Interest in foreign language at Logan has been stimulated by the addition of Spanish to the subjects that can be taken. This romance language that is now offered to the students is one of the most beautiful in the world. It brings to us not only the rhythm and beauty of spoken Spanish, but also the romance and adventure of the countries in which it is spoken. This language of romantic moods, dark, flashing eyes, and Flamenco guitars adds a little international flavor to Logan High.

Y-TEENS: SPREAD GOOD WILL

"To grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities; and to grow in the knowledge and love of God." These are the goals of the Y-Teens and the Y.W.C.A. with whom the Y-Teens are affiliated.

The Y-Teens throughout the city formed a Christmas Choir which sang for the "Hanging of the Greens" at the Y.W.C.A. and went caroling at various hospitals. Among some of the other activities of the club this year were:

speakers, including a model, a foreign college student, and a travel talk, discussion groups on problems of teenagers, service projects, and the annual Christmas pizza party and spring picnic.

This year the Y-Teens sponsored a dance on January 12, as their money-raising project for the year. This money goes toward sending delegates to the State Y-Teens Conference.

The Y-Teen advisor is Mrs. Elsie Vollenweider.
