TOP MAGAZINE SALESMEN

The Seniors sold $1,818.13 worth of subscriptions, which was $300 above our goal of $1500. Out of this amount the Seniors receive $635.

The top salesman was Arnold Braun with $138.70. Close behind was David Meyer with $123.99, and Mark Masterson with $121.50. Arnold chose a radio for his prize from a list of nice gifts. Arnold was also awarded a "Wormy Apple" stuffed animal for selling the most 50¢ magazines.

A black and white photograph featuring a silhouette of a young man in profile, looking out a window. He is wearing a dark jacket and a tie. The window has a dark frame with several panes. Outside the window, a bright, overexposed outdoor scene is visible, including a goalpost on a field and some trees in the distance. The overall mood is contemplative and quiet.

Remember, it's a diploma, not a passport!

A diploma certifies you received X grades for X hours of study in X subjects. It is not a passport into certain success. In business, it provides no exemptions from real-life problems of divorce, bankruptcy, IRS audits or mistakes in judgment. In romance, it gives no advantage over the dashing chap who was cum laude from dancing school. But don't underestimate it. It does give you an added edge of being able to think clearly in such situations. It does give you a job advantage over those who did not finish high school. The rest is up to you. GOOD LUCK!
