Dedication

"THE ROSE

STILL GROWS BEYOND THE WALL"

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

The light, the dew, the broadening view,
Were found the same as they were before;
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve,
And make our courage faint or fall?
Nay, let us faith and hope receive-
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

To our former classmate, Bonnie Cooper, we dedicate this annual.

Sponsor, Mrs. Upson; Editor, Mary Heim; Assistant Editor, Gayle Hinkle.

Senior

We the Seniors of Dale High School, being of sound mind and having full use of all faculties, do make this last will and testimony.

To the faculty we leave all the memories of both the pleasant and unpleasant incidents during our school days.

To the Freshmen we leave our ability to get along with the teachers and to go anywhere in the school building without getting lost.

To the Sophomores we leave our seats in the Senior room hoping you will fill them eagerly and advantageously.

Next we leave our personal wills to each individual Junior;

I, Verona Leistner, will to thee, Allen Wetzell, my seat in Speech Class so you can learn to make campaign speeches when you are running for President of the United States.

I, Robert Rickenbaugh, will to thee, Carolyn Schum, a baton to twirl to your little heart's content.

I, Bethel Crews, will to thee, Robert Schum, my friendly smile.

I, Ralph Michel, will to thee, Joseph Gogel, my Dodge to tote the girls around in.

I, Christine Wetzel, will to thee, Sally Suhrheinrich, my privilege of studying bookkeeping under Mrs. Upson.

I, Ray Snyder, will to thee, Ronald Byers, my "precious" Magruder to use in Mr. Bockstahler's government class.

I, Margaret Sergesketter, will to thee, Karen Rickenbaugh, my ability to go to high school four years and not learn anything.

I, Willie Hunter, will to thee, Robert Schmitt, my football equipment so that you can play football next year.

I, Beatrice Konerding, will to thee, Alvin Hoffman, my seat in the front of the school bus to help keep you out of mischief.

I, Fred Crews, will to thee, Carl Ray Harris, my ability to play football and not get banged up.

I, Wanda Eberhardt, will to thee, Bob Knott, my good behavior.

I, Jim Sergesketter, will to thee, Patsy Day, enough sense not to take bookkeeping.

I, Nellie Elliott, will to thee, Andrew Jochim, my big mouth so that you can keep the fans cheering in football and basketball.

I, Melvin Brinkman, will to thee, Robert Cochenour, my ability to play a French Horn.

I, Gayla Hinkle, will to thee, Howard Poellein, all 7,777 of my nicknames.

I, Andrew Gogel, will to thee, Eloise Doogs, my ability to talk in 5th period Study Hall.

I, Mildred Grigsby, will to thee, Charleen Hile, all the A's I didn't make in American Government.

I, Leroy Hildenbrand, will to thee, Leo Kaetzel, my seat in the Senior room and all the chewing gum that goes with it.

I, Jean Saltzman, will to thee, Linny Elliott, my willingness to go to bed on Halloween.

I, Donald Barnett, will to thee, Betty Burden my ability to remain silent.

I, Judy O'Daniel, will to thee, Lois Hartloff, my seat in the Chemistry room and the knowledge I should have obtained from this subject.

Wills

- I, Norman Schue, will to thee, Shirley Griepenstroh, my ability to waste paper when typing.
- I, Marilyn Kordes, will to thee, James Porter, a pair of stilts so that you can see over the crowd.
- I, Jean Wahl, will to thee, Elsie Roessler, my ability to eat candy in Mr. Bockstahler's government class and get by with it.
- I, Patsy Harper, will to thee, Jo Anne LeRoy, my bookkeeping workbook to save a lot of precious time.
- I, Jack Truelove, will to thee, Dorlis Phillips, my old art gum to improve your grade in art.
- I, Mary Jean Harris, will to thee, James Brown, my admiration for blonde headed girls with glasses.
- I, Donna King, will to thee, Mary Bocking, all the luck you will need to get through your senior year.
- I, Phyllis Kelley, will to thee, Alfred Coffey, my small feet and quiet ways.
- I, Mary Heim, will to thee, Patrick Majors, my bookkeeping workbook so you won't have to spend so much time working the problems.
- I, Bertha Nord, will to thee, Joy McDaniel, my love for basketball so that you can always watch Bob Knott in his favorite sport.
- I, Cornelius Collignon, will to thee, Marlene Hartley, my knowledge of American Government.
- I, Vita Birchler, will to thee, Monica Collignon, my ability to sleep with my "head up" in Mrs. Hoop's Study Hall.
- I, Ila Jean Ellis, will to thee, Eugene Hufnagel, one A for every F I got in Business Law class.
- I, Sharon Schwenk, will to thee, Darrell Michel, a 1954 Chevrolet convertible to take you to see your secret lover.
- I, Jerry Hile, will to thee, Joy Dike, my seat in chemistry and the knowledge I should have gained from this subject.
- I, Pearl Ann Ferguson, will to thee, Patricia Clark, my inexhaustible supply of pep so that you will always have a lot of pep to lead yells with.
- I, Elsie Hartung, will to thee, Robert Criss, my ability to drive constantly in low gear.
- I, Jerry Taylor, will to thee, Russell Mosby, my job at Winkler's so that you won't have to catch chickens for the Hoop's Poultry Co. anymore.
- I, Robert Barrett, will to thee, David Dersch, my ability to read "Comics" in Mrs. Hoop's study hall.
- I, Vita Birchler, will to thee, Barbara Barrow, a package of brown "Noreen" to make your hair darker.
- I, David Wright, will to thee, Evelyn Dilger, my most treasured gift, my ability to sleep in class.
- I, Bertha Mae Nord, will to thee, Connie Dilger, my bookkeeping workbook so that you won't have to work so hard on the problems.
- I, Larry Hendren, will to thee, Sharon Dike, my English workbook so that you won't have to work as hard as I did on English.
- I, Christine Wetzal, will to thee, Irene Kunkler, my American Government book so you can enjoy the subject as much as I did.
- I, Mary Heim, will to thee, Mary Louise Hildenbrand, my ability to take letters in Shorthand as fast as Mr. Kifer dictates and then be able to transcribe it.

Freshman History

The Freshman enrollment at the beginning of the school year 1950 saw seventy-two green Freshman trying to get acquainted with the school and with each other.

With the aid of their sponsors Miss McDaniel, Mr. Livengood and Mr. Pegler they elected the following officers: President --Fred Crews, Vice-President--Patsy Harper, Secretary--Ralph Michel, Treasurer--Nellie Elliott, and Reporters--Bethel Crews and Pear Ann Ferguson.

The Student Council members elected were Bethel Crews and Pearl Ann Ferguson.

Their festival queen candidate was Nellie Elliott.

They chose as their Freshmen cheerleaders Patsy Harper and Nellie Elliott.

They had two class parties, one at Lincoln State Park and the other one on the school ground.

School closed. Many found summer jobs, while others rested their wits for the coming year, some moved or changed schools, and other finding jobs did not return at all.

Student Council

On August 23, 1951, fifty students came back to Dale High to begin a year as silly Sophomores,

Those who had discontinued were Charles Altman, Wilma Barker, John Barrow, John Burden, Cleon Brahm, Edwin Fisher, Edward Hoffman, Charles Huber, Larry Fisher, Thelma Morris, Kenneth Peters, Leo Seckinger, Patricia Showmaker, Albert Temple, Arthur Vaal, Claude Vaal, and Virlee Waninger.

They were very glad to welcome two new students, Gayla Hinkle from Chrisney and Clyde Julian from Folsomville.

They elected as their officers, President--Bethel Crews, Vice-President--Nellie Elliott, Secretary--Gayla Hinkle, Treasurer--Beatrice Konerding, and Reporters--Ils Jean Ellis and Pearl Ann Ferguson.

Officers

Their sponsors this year were Miss McDaniel, Mr. Bailey, and Mr. Jenkins.

Those chosen to serve as Student Council members were Bethel Crews, Ralph Michel, and Robert Rickenbaugh.

The Sophomore football queen candidates and attendants were Beatrice Konerding and Gayla Hinkle.

Judy O'Daniel was the festival queen candidate.

Honor Roll

This year we ordered our class sweaters and rings. Our sweaters were black with a gold shield in which was printed Dale and the year Fifty-four.

On December 14, The Sophomore girls served the annual Senior Tea.

For their class party they went to the Huntingburg Municipal Park. On their second one they went to the Lincoln State Park.

The school year passed rapidly and our Sophomore year soon came to an end, each going his own way.

Festival Candidate

Junior History

On August 23, 1952, forty-five students came back. Those who had discontinued were, Mildred Armstrong, Donald Brock, Aaron Harris, Phyllis Kelley, Bill Marshall, Mason Bryant, Mary Ann Otto, Abraham Welch, and Patricia Shoemaker.

Sponsors

They were happy to welcome two new girls, Georgia Stanton from Bloomfield and Mildred Grigsby from Evansville.

They chose as their class officers, President--Patsy Harper, Vice President--Robert Rickenbaugh, Secretary--Gayla Hinkle, Treasurer--Ralph Michel, and Ila Ellis and Pearl Ann Ferguson as reporters.

Their sponsors were Miss Weedman, Mrs. Hoops, Mr. Glezen, and Mr. Bockstahler.

Their Student Council members were Bethel Crews, Margaret Sergesketter, and Ralph Michel.

This year they had charge of concessions, which they enjoyed while at the same time they weremaking money for their class treasury.

They chose as their class colors, OldRose and Silver; as their class flower, the White Carnation; and as their class motto, "They Can Who Think They Can".

Their class play, "The Eager Miss Beaver" was a huge success.

The highlight of the year was the annual Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held on Saturday night, May 10. The theme was "The Mardi Gras". The toast mister and mistress were Robert Rickenbaugh and Patsy Harper. The gym was gaily decorated with balloons and serpentine. As each guest arrived he was given a half mask to wear.

Time flew and summer vacation arrived.

Senior History

On August 21, 1953, forty-two of the original seventy-two students came back as Seniors.

Those who had discontinued were Betty Bryant, Georgia Stanton, and Donald Huebschman.

They were very happy to welcome Phyllis Kelley, from Wadesville and David Wright from Hanson, Kentucky.

They were very sorry to lose their friend and classmate Bonnie Cooper, who passed away on September 5, 1953.

With the aid of their sponsors Mrs. Stone, Mr. Robsbottom, and Mr. Jenkins they elected President--Patsy Harper, Vice President--Jerry Taylor, Secretary--Gayla Hinkle, Treasurer --Ralph Michel. Nellie Elliott and Judy O'Daniel were reporters.

Their football queen candidates were Beatrice Knerding, Gayla Hinkle and Judy O'Daniel. Gayla and Judy were both elected to serve as Queen.

Nellie Elliott was elected Christmas Queen.

This year was a busy one. They published the annual and Comet. Some of the events were the Junior-Senior Banquet, the class play, Baccalaureate services on Sunday, May 16, and Commencement on Tuesday, May 18, 1954.

In parting we wish to bring home one thing to our underclassmen, "They Can Who Think They Can".

Too Many Dates

When the curtain rises, lively, lovely Louanne Miller is battling her way out of another boyfriend; when he leaves, she finds herself without "social security" for the next evening's party. The trouble begins when Louanne allows herself to be talked into having a blind date--by her three girl-friends, each of whom is having her own difficulties with the "troublesome element" (boys); Louanne has promised to "sit" with the neighbor's infant on the same evening the girls have scheduled the blind date. Louanne's mother--herself immersed in Girl Scout activities and a host of resultant troubles with younger sister Betsy--is against blind dates. Mr. Miller angrily reminds her that he met her on a blind date twenty years ago--and look at the results of this mistake involving the entire community and the hysterical young parents of the infant. And not one but three blind dates appear for Louanne; one of them turns out to be her ex-boyfriend himself! In the midst of the growing hubbub, the girls find time to rehearse a sketch titled "If Girls Behaved as Boys on Dates"

Sr.-Faculty Tea

For several weeks the sophomore girls and Miss Weedman made secretive plans concerning the annual Senior-Faculty Tea.

The big day finally arrived on December 17, when all parties concerned turned out in their Christmas finery to go to a very festive and beautifully decorated Home Ec. room.

The guests were welcomed at the door by two sophomore girls who pinned a ribbon-tied bell on each guest's dress or jacket. They then entered to meet a jolly Santa.

After punch, cookies, and candy were served, the guests were entertained with an accordion solo by Linda Little. Then a group of harmonious girls sang "White Christmas" and "Silent Night" which featured Lynne Kay Whitaker as soloist.

The Dale Grade Team comprised of 7th and 8th graders had a total of 12 scheduled games for the 1953-54 season.

With only two regulars returning from last years team, the Rockets quickly organized into a compact and fighting ball team.

As this is written the Rockets have an 8 won and 1 loss record. The following boys make up the team: Davis, Amos, L. Spurlock, Bockstahler, Musgrave, Kemp, Witte, Neighbors, and G. Spurlock. L. Spurlock is the high scorer with an average of 18 points per game.

The first call for football in August produced 23 candidates. This increased to 34 at mid-season and the Golden Aces would up with 29 boys (of which 15 were Freshmen).

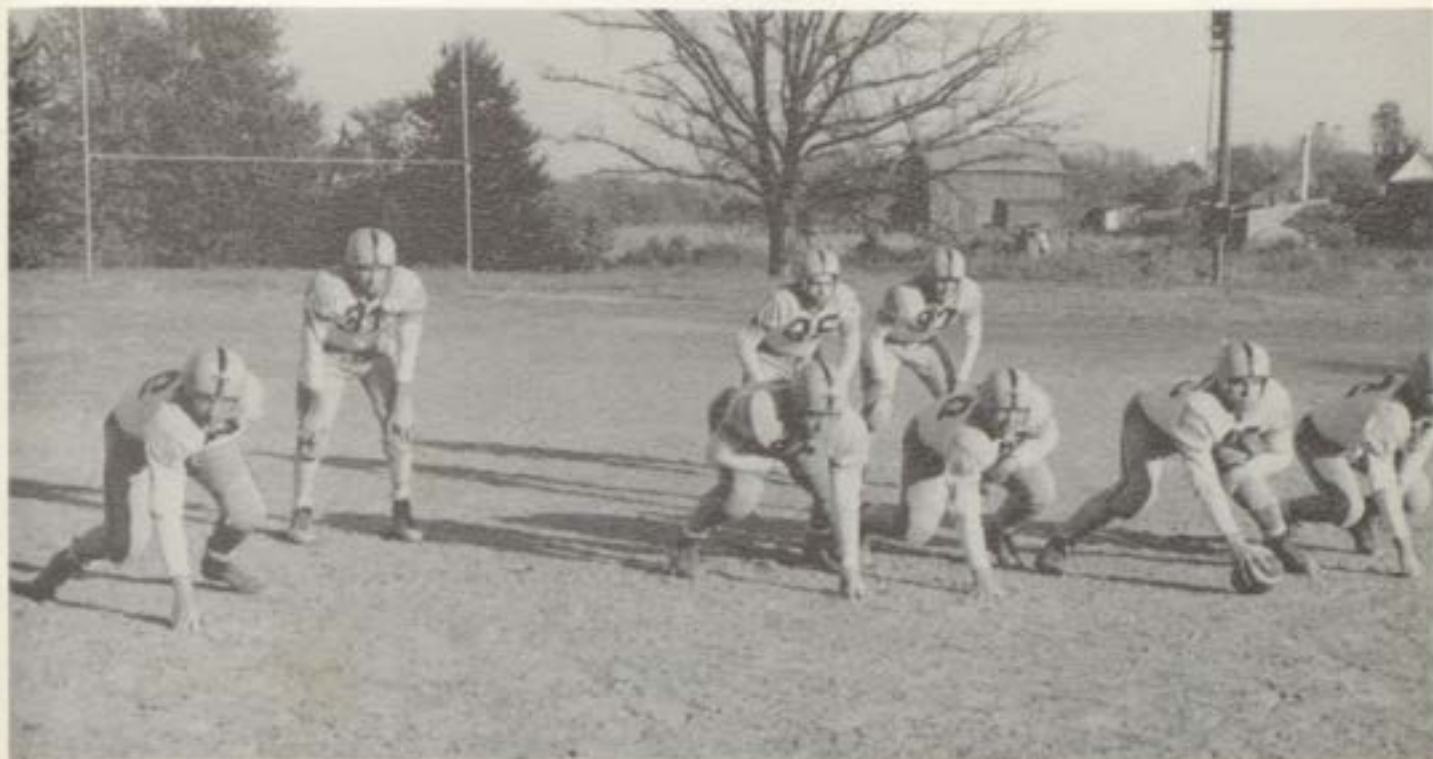

Eight returning lettermen of which three were regulars in 1952 comprised the nucleus for the Aces football team.

Under Coach Bill Tislow and Assistant Coach Jerry Kemp, the Aces won two and lost six. Although losing three close ones the record does not indicate the fight and determination these boys gave and the improvement that they made during the season.
