DEDICATION

It is appropriate that this being the sesquicentennial of the one hundred fiftieth birthday of our sixteenth president of the United States that we dedicate our yearbook to him.

So it is with respect and appreciation that we, the class of '59, dedicate this, our yearbook, to a truly great man, Abraham Lincoln.

(On the eve of the Presidential Inauguration we present to our readers the only correct portrait yet given to the public of Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States. Great Labor and care have been bestowed upon its preparation, and we feel assured that as a work of art, and as a life-like portraiture of the man who has been chosen to fill the highest office in the gift of the people at a time of great trouble and difficulty, it will be conceded by all to be unequalled in excellence and truthfulness.)

STAFF

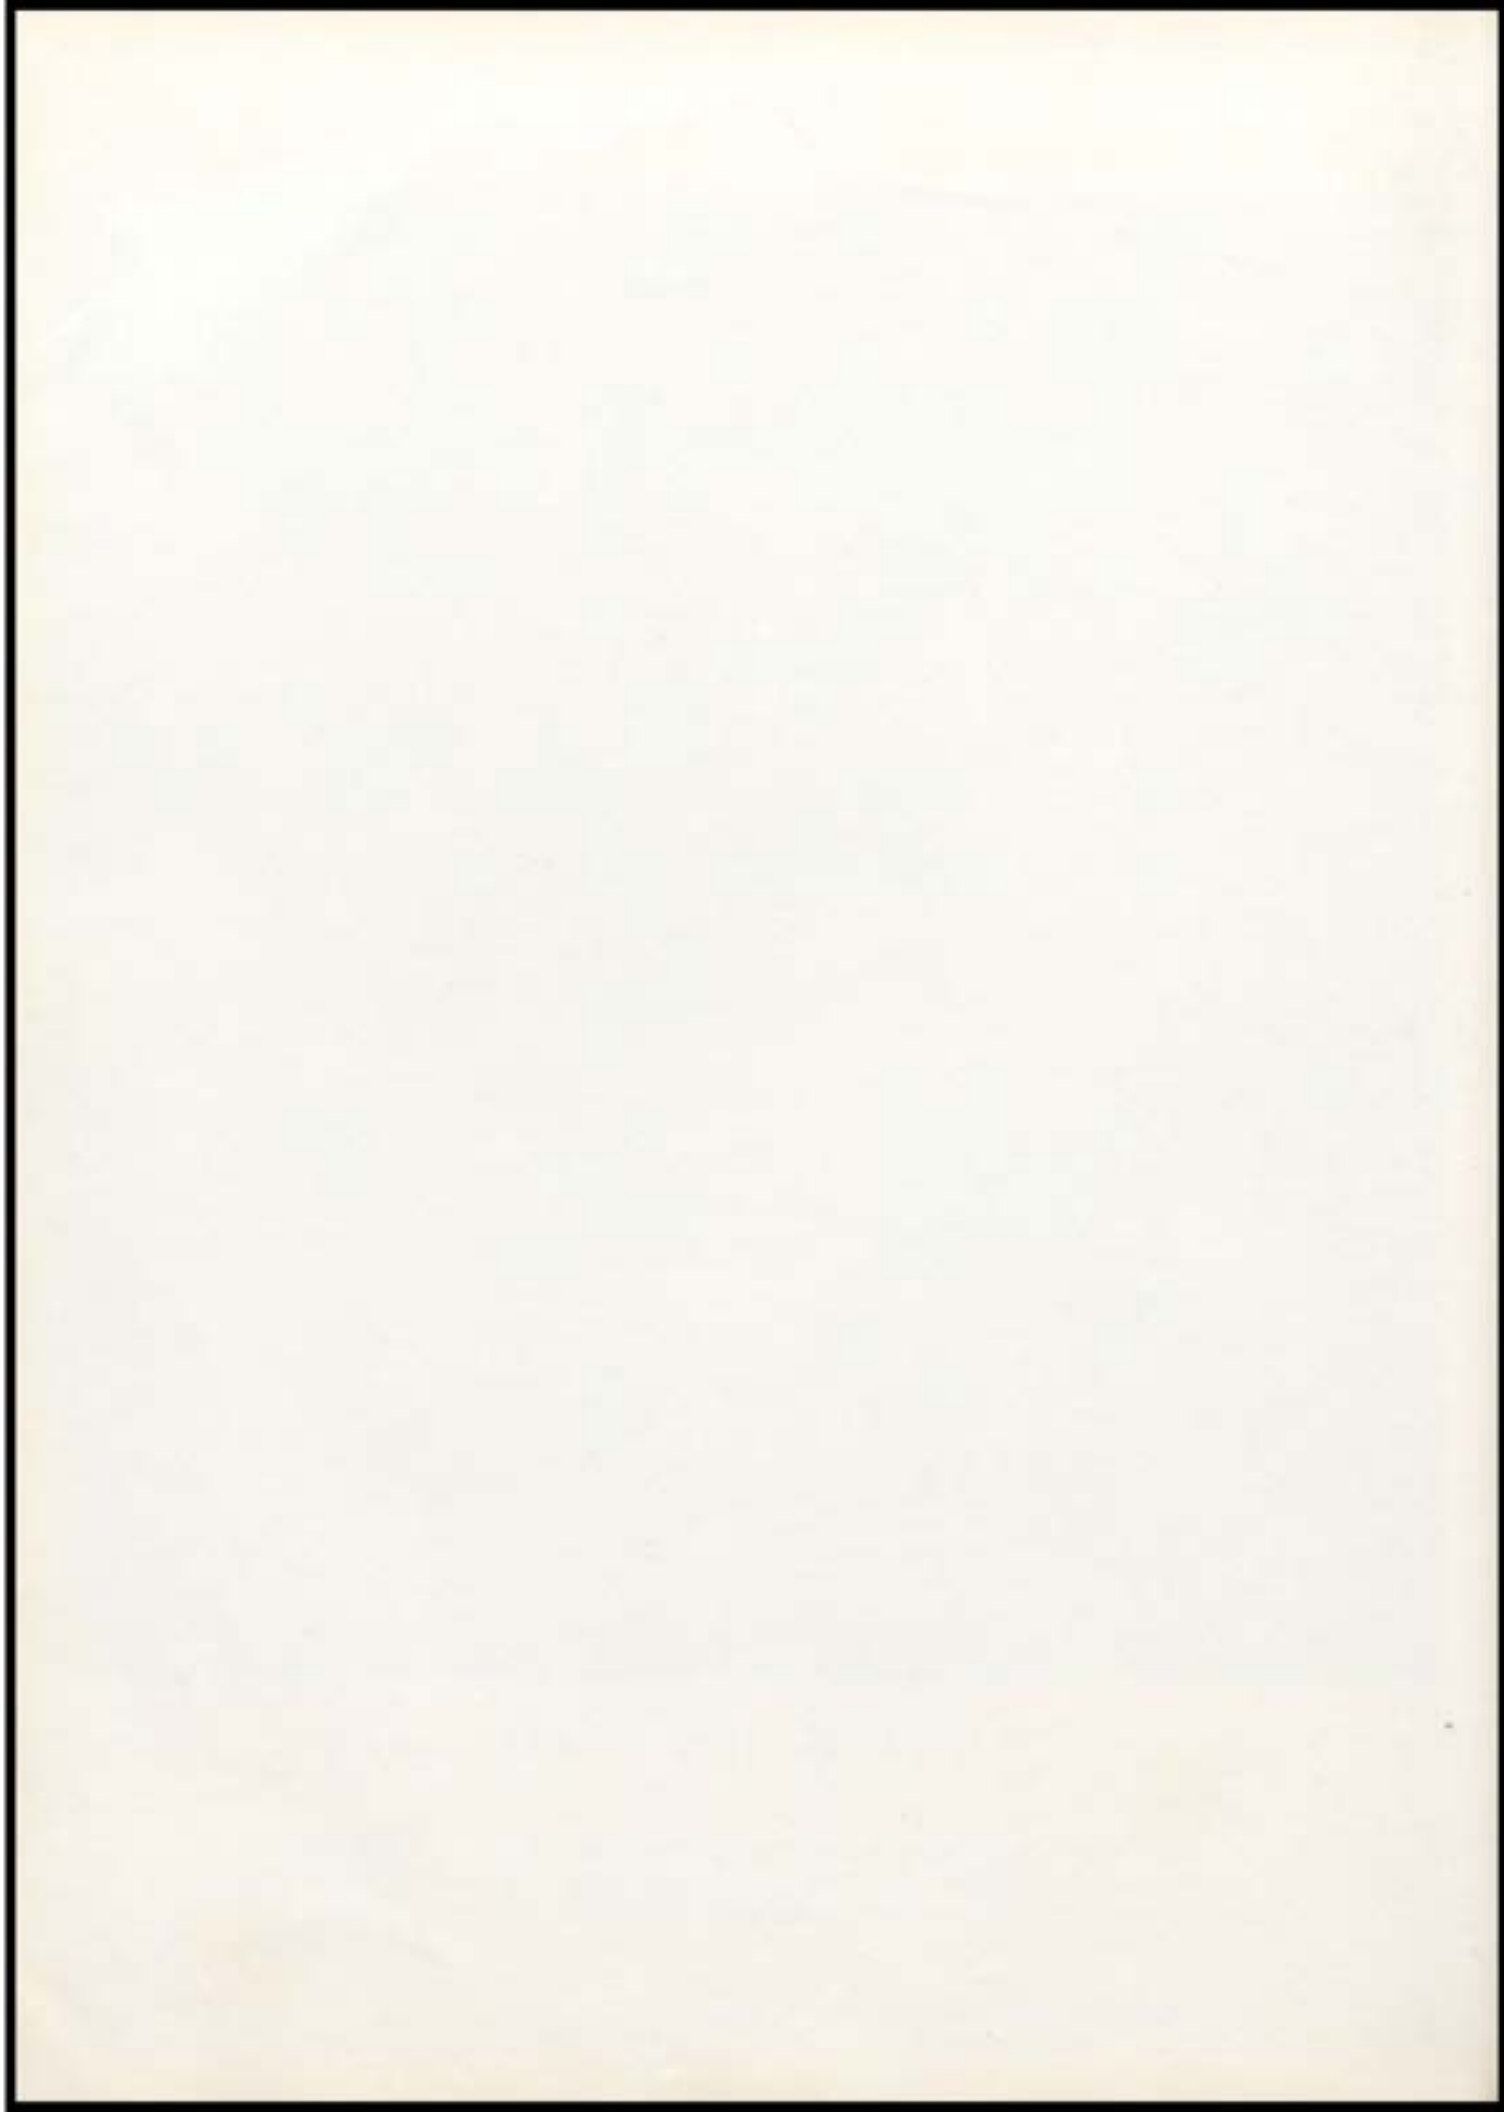

A HARD JOB FINISHED

Although at times we would get disgusted and tired, we, the annual staff are proud to have put forth our effort to help remember our school days forever. We want to thank Mrs. Ingram for all the help she has given us and the ones that have helped in any other way.
