DALE MEMORIES

THE STUDENTS OF DALE HIGH SCHOOL OFFER

MEMORIES

OF THE SCHOOL YEAR 1962-1963

On the following pages are memories of our school year 1962-63. Perhaps a page or a picture or maybe even a word will offer a memory, perhaps not. That is not important. It is important, however, that one remember in some way. We offer this help for whatever it may be worth.

"Students, I'm shocked!"

"Peace"

"Quiet"

"Last name--Tsal, spelled T-s-a-i"

To the Seniors of Dale High School:

Your period of apprenticeship is about to end. Your teachers have endeavored to guide you correctly. You are a storehouse of mental, physical, and spiritual energies--let's try to channel those energies into the proper avenues.

Mr. Ralph T. Kifer

"Let's get quiet now and try again."

"Twas the night before concert....."

"Oh lord, I forgot to tell Alice."

"Where's dust?"

"The Dale FHA chapter is now in session." That is president Dona Geier who is so ardently reading the manual. Other officers from left to right are: Jenny Schue, reporter; Linda Springston, historian; Darlene Stroud, song leader; (Dona); Patty Nord, treasurer; Regina Litkenhus, secretary; Marilou Ofer, parliamentarian. Not pictured is Rita Litkenhus, vice-president. This year the Dale chapter has sponsored: a "Save the Children" clothing drive for needy children, ice cream sales during the noon period, and Mother-Daughter tea in the spring. Also the members have sponsored two parties in conjunction with the FFA chapter at Dale. The Dale chapter is a member of the southwest district of the National FHA and officers participate in meetings of this district in the spring of the year. Miss Sadie Weedman is and has been sponsor of the FHA in Dale for the past twelve years, and is certainly to be commended for her good work.

Pictured below are the officers of the Dale chapter of the FFA. From left to right are: Richard Gries, president; Herbert Dilger, secretary; Ronny Dauby, treasurer; Tom Porter, vice-president; Raymond Otto, sentinel; Leon Dilger, reporter; Mike Boehman, advisor. During the past year the club has sponsored: a FHA-FFA hayride, a pest control program, and parties jointly with the FHA. The club has also participated in the "Farm Progress Day" held at Lubbenhusen's this year and in the district cattle and swine judging programs. The Dale chapter is a member of the State FFA, district of Evansville. Mr. Dresel Rosbottom is FFA counselor.

The Library Club began its second year as an organization at Dale. The club is a member of the Indiana Student Librarian Association and its purpose is to interest students in librarianship as a vocation. Members act as student librarians and are also responsible for the many posters and signs which appear in the library from time to time. Officers of the "Dale Dixies" are: Diana Leroy, president; Judy Roos, vice-president; Martha Wiederkehr, secretary; Judy Schlacter, treasurer.

Mrs. Josephine Stone, school librarian, is the sponsor of and is responsible for the formation of the club at Dale.

The Latin language is not as "dead" as some people or as some would like to suppose. Evidence of this is the Latin Club at Dale. The club was organized last year as an independent group interested in the Latin language and especially its people and customs. This year the club has become a member of the Junior Classical League sponsored by the American Classical League. Officers for this year are: Ronald Heady, president; Larry Estes, vice-president; Trudy Winkler, secretary; Connie Brown, treasurer. In addition to its meetings the club also prints the "Latinae Linae" newspaper. Membership is limited to those who have had or will have had one year of the Latin language. "Latina est non morbida", indeed, it lives and is relevant in many ways.

Mrs. Opal Ellis is the sponsor of the Latin Club. As a Latin teacher and a member of the American Classical League it is through her efforts that the club was organized.

"A hostess's hostess," that is Miss Sadie Weedman who has sponsored the Senior-Faculty tea for the last twenty years. Miss Weedman has taught for forty-two years and twenty-six of these have been as home economics teacher at Dale. She has not only taught but has been active in advancing many of the extracurricular activities of the school. Many times it has been Miss Weedman who has had the last word in the who, how and what color department. She has acted as teacher, advisor, counselor and in many many other unheralded and unsolicited capacities. After her forty-sixth year of teaching Miss Sadie Weedman will retire at the end of this year.

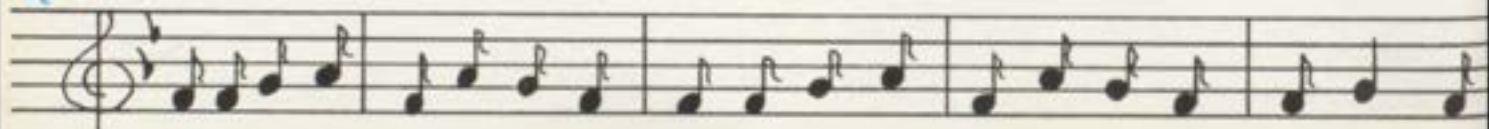

The Senior-Faculty tea was held in the home economics room on Friday, December 21, 1962. The sophomore girls played hostess to groups of seniors and faculty members. Cookies, candy and punch were served and entertainment was provided by a group of carollers. It remains to be seen whether the annual tea will be discontinued due to the retirement of Miss Weedman.

Mrs. Myllis Pohl is the director and teacher of music at Dale High School. Under her baton the band has held two concerts, participated in the band festival at Huntingburg and the state contest at North Posey. Several of the band members have taken part in the solo and ensemble contest also at Huntingburg. The band has played at each home ballgame and of course has practiced and practiced and practiced.....

Stan Guth, Larry Rexing, Karen Weber, Teddy Hubert, Larry Lindauer, Dennis Stanton, Mike Hile. ROW FOUR: Bob Van Winde, Raymond Cooper, Danny Schum, Wayne Roel, Danny Thorpe, John Schroeder, Jerry Sanders, J.D. Springston, Sheila Potter, Kenneth Schaaf, Randy Flamion. ROW FIVE: Kirk Miller, Roger Guth, Jay Brown, Jennie Schue, Wayne Fisher, Mrs. Pohl, Darrel Heilman.

The annual Christmas concert was held on December 20, 1962. The band and choir played and sang music ranging from Handel's "Messiah" to the "Nutmcracker Suite". The Goldentones (upper left) also contributed with the ever-favorite "Twas the Night Before Christmas". Unknown to the audience the choir-mistress and band director, Mrs. Phylliss Pohl, because of her "exuberance" in directing, broke her baton and was forced to lead with a half of one. The band and choir also held a concert in the spring.

As music director Mrs. Pohl directs the Dale High School band, the Dale Junior High band, the choir, gives private music lessons and directs the band at St. Joseph parochial school.

The junior class presented their play "It's Great to be Crazy" in the fall of 1962. Players included: Patty Arnold, Susie Ballman, Connie Brown, Larry Estes, Ronald Heady, Beth Kaiser, Sandra Kleeman, Ellen Lamb, Rita Litkenhus, Gregory Shelton, Mary Stroud, Kenny Wahl, Dennis Weber, Bonnie Whitaker. Play sponsor was Miss Phylliss Meier.

In the top picture (upper left, down) it is a very tense moment no doubt. Someone must have forgotten their lines. Roger Forler seems undismayed but notice the look of anguish on Beth Kaiser's face. In the second picture check the "nonchalance" and especially the foot placement. In the bottom picture the plot unfolds. Notice the hand posture. The picture at the top of this column shows Ellen Lamb, a very suspicious looking Kenny Wahl, and Susie Ballman looking like a high school Hermione Gingold.

Student Council members this year were; seniors--James Wallenmeyer; Vicki Brown, treasurer; Nancy Kifer, secretary; Kenneth Schaf, vice-president; John Schroer, President; juniors--Stan Guth, Larry Estes, Sandra Kleeman, Ronald Heady; sophomores--Ward Weber, Wayne Dersch, Darlene Stroud; freshmen--Judy Whitaker, Gary Ballman.

The Council sponsored sock hops, conducted school elections, sold Aces booster pins and helped in chartering the National Honor Society as a group at Dale.

Student Council sponsor was Mr. Menke.

The cheer block was re-established as an active group this year. Vicki Brown was elected cheerblock captain. Working with Vicki, the cheerleaders, and Mrs. Moseley the block was very effective at both home games and games away. Organized enthusiasm--we had it at Dale.

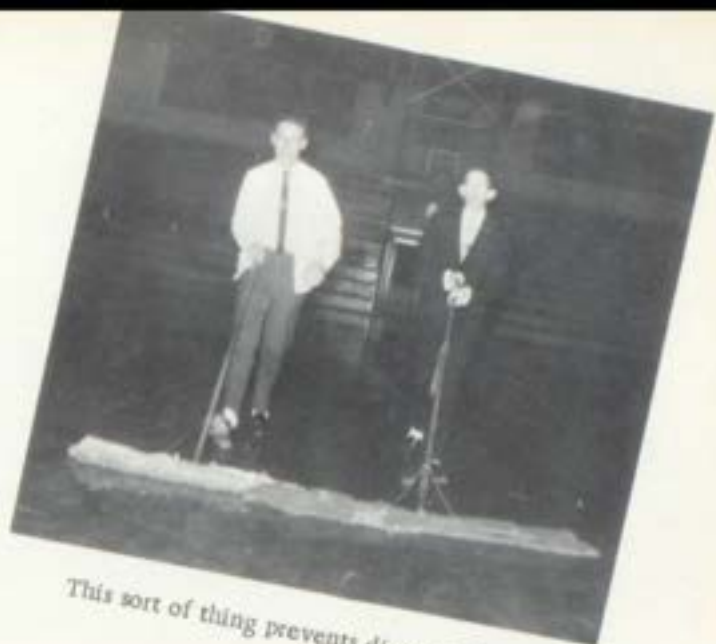

The Student Council sponsored three sock hops this year and also the American Legion Post 444 sponsored after game dances for all home games. This was the year of the "Loop de loop", the "Waddle", the "Watusi", the "Limbo", the "Boso nova", about ten variations of last year's "Twist", and many other types of "dance???". The "twisting" skirt above belongs to Connie Brown and the two making little circles in the air are Dennis Weber and Greg Shelton. The "refreshing" fellows below are Ron Heady and Danny Schum.

Mr. Menke checks the floor.

This sort of thing prevents dirty socks.

"Thank you, Arthur Bretz"

Who is Ward's partner?

Hmm!

Such concentration

Mr. Harris has just broken open a three pack.

Student managers swing a lot of weight around.

"Let me just sample one of those, Miss Meier."

We use brand X in our machines.

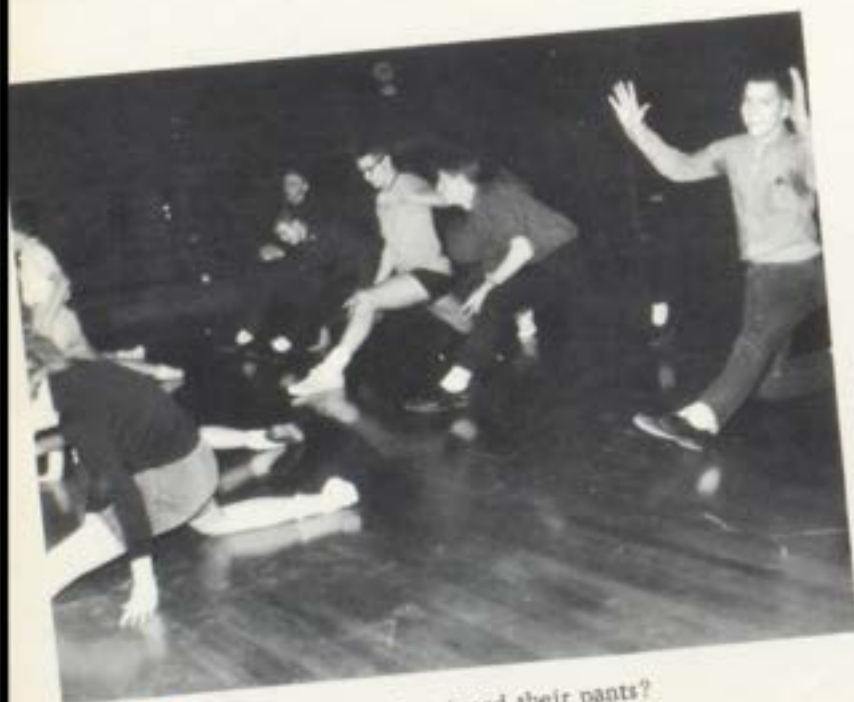

The day the "reign" came.

Support

"Wow! What a wild ride."

Guess who ripped their pants?

Is this the day that they pulled the bar off the wall?

On October 12 at the Dale vs. Richland game Miss Nancy Kifer was crowned Football Queen for 1962. Nancy, a senior was chosen by vote of the entire student body. Among other activities Nancy is a varsity cheerleader, member of the Student Council, a class officer, and a member of the band. Attendants to the queen were; seniors--Barbara Michel and Jenny Schue, juniors--Shirley Morris and Beth Kaiser, sophomores--Susie Woodring and Darlene Stroud, freshmen--Judy Whitaker and Pam Smith. Captain Tom Winkler did the crowning. The first half of the game ended in a rainstorm and a 0-0 score. Queen Nancy and her court were forced to watch the second half of play in an upstairs room of the school. The two teams swam to a very damp 0-0 tie.

"THE CALM BEFORE THE STORM"

In the pre-game warm-up at the Dale-Ft. Branch game everyone seems to be in time, except the two guys in the back row. Who? Oh, you can guess.

Dale	20	Petersburg	12

Opening the season, Dale's Golden Aces took an early lead then had to come back to upset favored Oakland City and drop them by the score of 20-18. The actual margin of victory came on two successful extra point completions by Dale.

Dale scored the first time it got its hands on the ball as they climaxed a sustained drive with Dick Walker grabbing a ten-yard pass from brother Steve for a touchdown. The kick was no good and Dale led 6-0. This lead was short lived, however, as the Acorns came right back on a pass play from Gary Duncan to John Richeson good for 28 yards and a score. Richeson's kick was no good and the score was tied 6-6 at the end of the first quarter.

Neither team could score in the second period as both teams played about even with some key

This "pop" play by Oakland City shows Tom Winkler (16) with his hand on the ball and Ronald Scott (14) making the tackle from the rear. End, Dick Walker (15) is behind the referee. Dale's other defensive men are: safety, Larry Estes (12); linebacker, Wayne Rudy (24); linebacker, Gary Grundhoefer (11); and guard, Tom Arnold. Rudy was the high tackler for the season with Arnold and Winkler, a close second and third respectively.

At a quick glance it looks as if the ball is going up the middle, but actually, it will go in the air by quarterback, Steve Walker. Steve's big brother, Dick, is taking his end in and that is Tom Winkler (16) who is breaking away for the pass. Steve's pass protectors are: Tom Arnold (18) and Larry Birchler. Among the arms, legs, and heads in the pile up, include those belonging to: Ronald Scott, Wayne Rudy and at least two other Dale players.

Dale has just upset favored Oakland City in, perhaps, its best game of the season. The picture includes: Larry Birchler (13), Greg Shelton (30), Sam Byers (28), Larry Morrison (33), David Griepenstroh (41), J.D. Springston (10), Duane Luff (38), Ray VanWinkle (34), Don Jones (39), Ronald Scott (14), and someone who has, apparently fallen on his face. Dale beat Oakland City with its best effort of the season on Friday only to play its worst on the following Tuesday against Rockport, but that is one of the hard "knocks" of football. Dale ended the season with a 3-4-1 record.

Miss Sylvia Mehling reigns as queen of Dale High School basketball for the 1962-63 season. Sylvia was chosen by the entire student body and she was crowned at the Dale-Petersburg game by captain Tom Arnold on January 18, 1963. Miss Jenny Schue acted as Sylvia's "Maid of Honor" and the queen's court consisted of seniors: Barbara Michel, Vicki Brown, Barbara Schroeder, Laverne Birchler, Jeannie Schum, Randy Potter, Jane Whitten. The crown-bearer was Patty Englebrecht and the ballbearer was Charlie Moseley.

The action above is in the Dale-Petersburg game. That is Gary Grundhoefer (20) who is "all up in the air". Dick Walker (30) is pivoting off his screen as Mehling (22) moves in. Arnold (40) fights for a position and Guth (32) as usual, will be in the right place at the right time.

This shot by Dick Walker means either two points or a union dues payment (rebound) for Mehling (22) or Arnold. Number 20 in the back court is Gary Grundhoefer. Incidentally, Walker missed the shot and Arnold rebounded and put it in.

There was lot's of good "cheer" at Dale this year and it wasn't the kind that comes in mugs, legs, or cans either. Rather, it was the kind that Dale's cheerleaders served--and with such style, too. The cheerleaders, under the "scrutiny" of Mrs. Ina Ruth Moseley, led the cheers and stopped the jeers for Dale's teams from September through February. In the fall the girls participated in the cheerleading conference at Bloomington and took ballet at Owensboro, Ky. The four varsity girls at the top are Nancy Kifer, Connie Brown, Trudy Winkler, Kathleen Grundhoefer. The "B" team cheerleaders at the left are Judy Whitaker, Karen Weber, Jane Wilson, Pam Smith, Linda Wahl. These nine have not only led cheers but they have participated in both queen crownings, helped revise the cheer block for basketball and played host to and were guests of cheerleaders from other schools several times. The varsity squad boasts a football queen, a runner-up for basket basketball queen and three "Prep Sweethearts" in the Evansville "Courier and Press". Three cheers for the cheerleaders.

The last cheer must go to Mrs. Ina Ruth Moseley who has sponsored, coached, criticized, counseled, comforted, laughed with and was proud of her nine girls. Mrs. Moseley has been cheerleader sponsor for four years.

These are several of the pictures that appeared in the "Sunday Courier and Press" sport section on April 17, 1962. The paper was to cover the Dale-Cannelton baseball game but it was rained out. In the picture at the left are: James Hevron, Don Snyder, Ronnie Reinhart, Tom Arnold, Dave Grundhoefer, Wayne Rudy, Tom Winkler. Dale finished the season with a 7-2 record.

Dale's infield included: Van Kaiser, catcher; Dennis Weber, 3rd; Stan Guth, short; John Schroer, 1st; Larry Birchler, 3rd; Ward Weber, 2nd; Steve Walker, 2nd; Joe Kaiser, 2nd. Dale lost only to Rockport, twice.

The picture above was of the mile relay team. Pictured are John Schroer, Larry Estes, Tom Winkler, Tom Arnold. Meets that the track team participated in included: Perry Spencer meet at Tell City, P.A.C. meet at Petersburg, Spencer County meet at Rockport and several other triangular and duel meets. Track was in its third season at Dale.

Pole vaulting in the gym? It was in the "Courier and Press" and it was Estes and Forler so it figures.

These pictures, also, are among the many many pictures and articles which appeared in several of the tri-state newspapers. Papers carrying Dale as a feature have been, among others, "Evansville Courier and Press", "Dale News", "Jasper Herald", and "Louisville Courier and Journal".

"OH THE MADDENING CROWD" Were you at the Dale-Rockport football game? If so, you froze your toes, nose, and a little bit of everything else. 0 weather and 40-0 score.
