

Maple Leaves

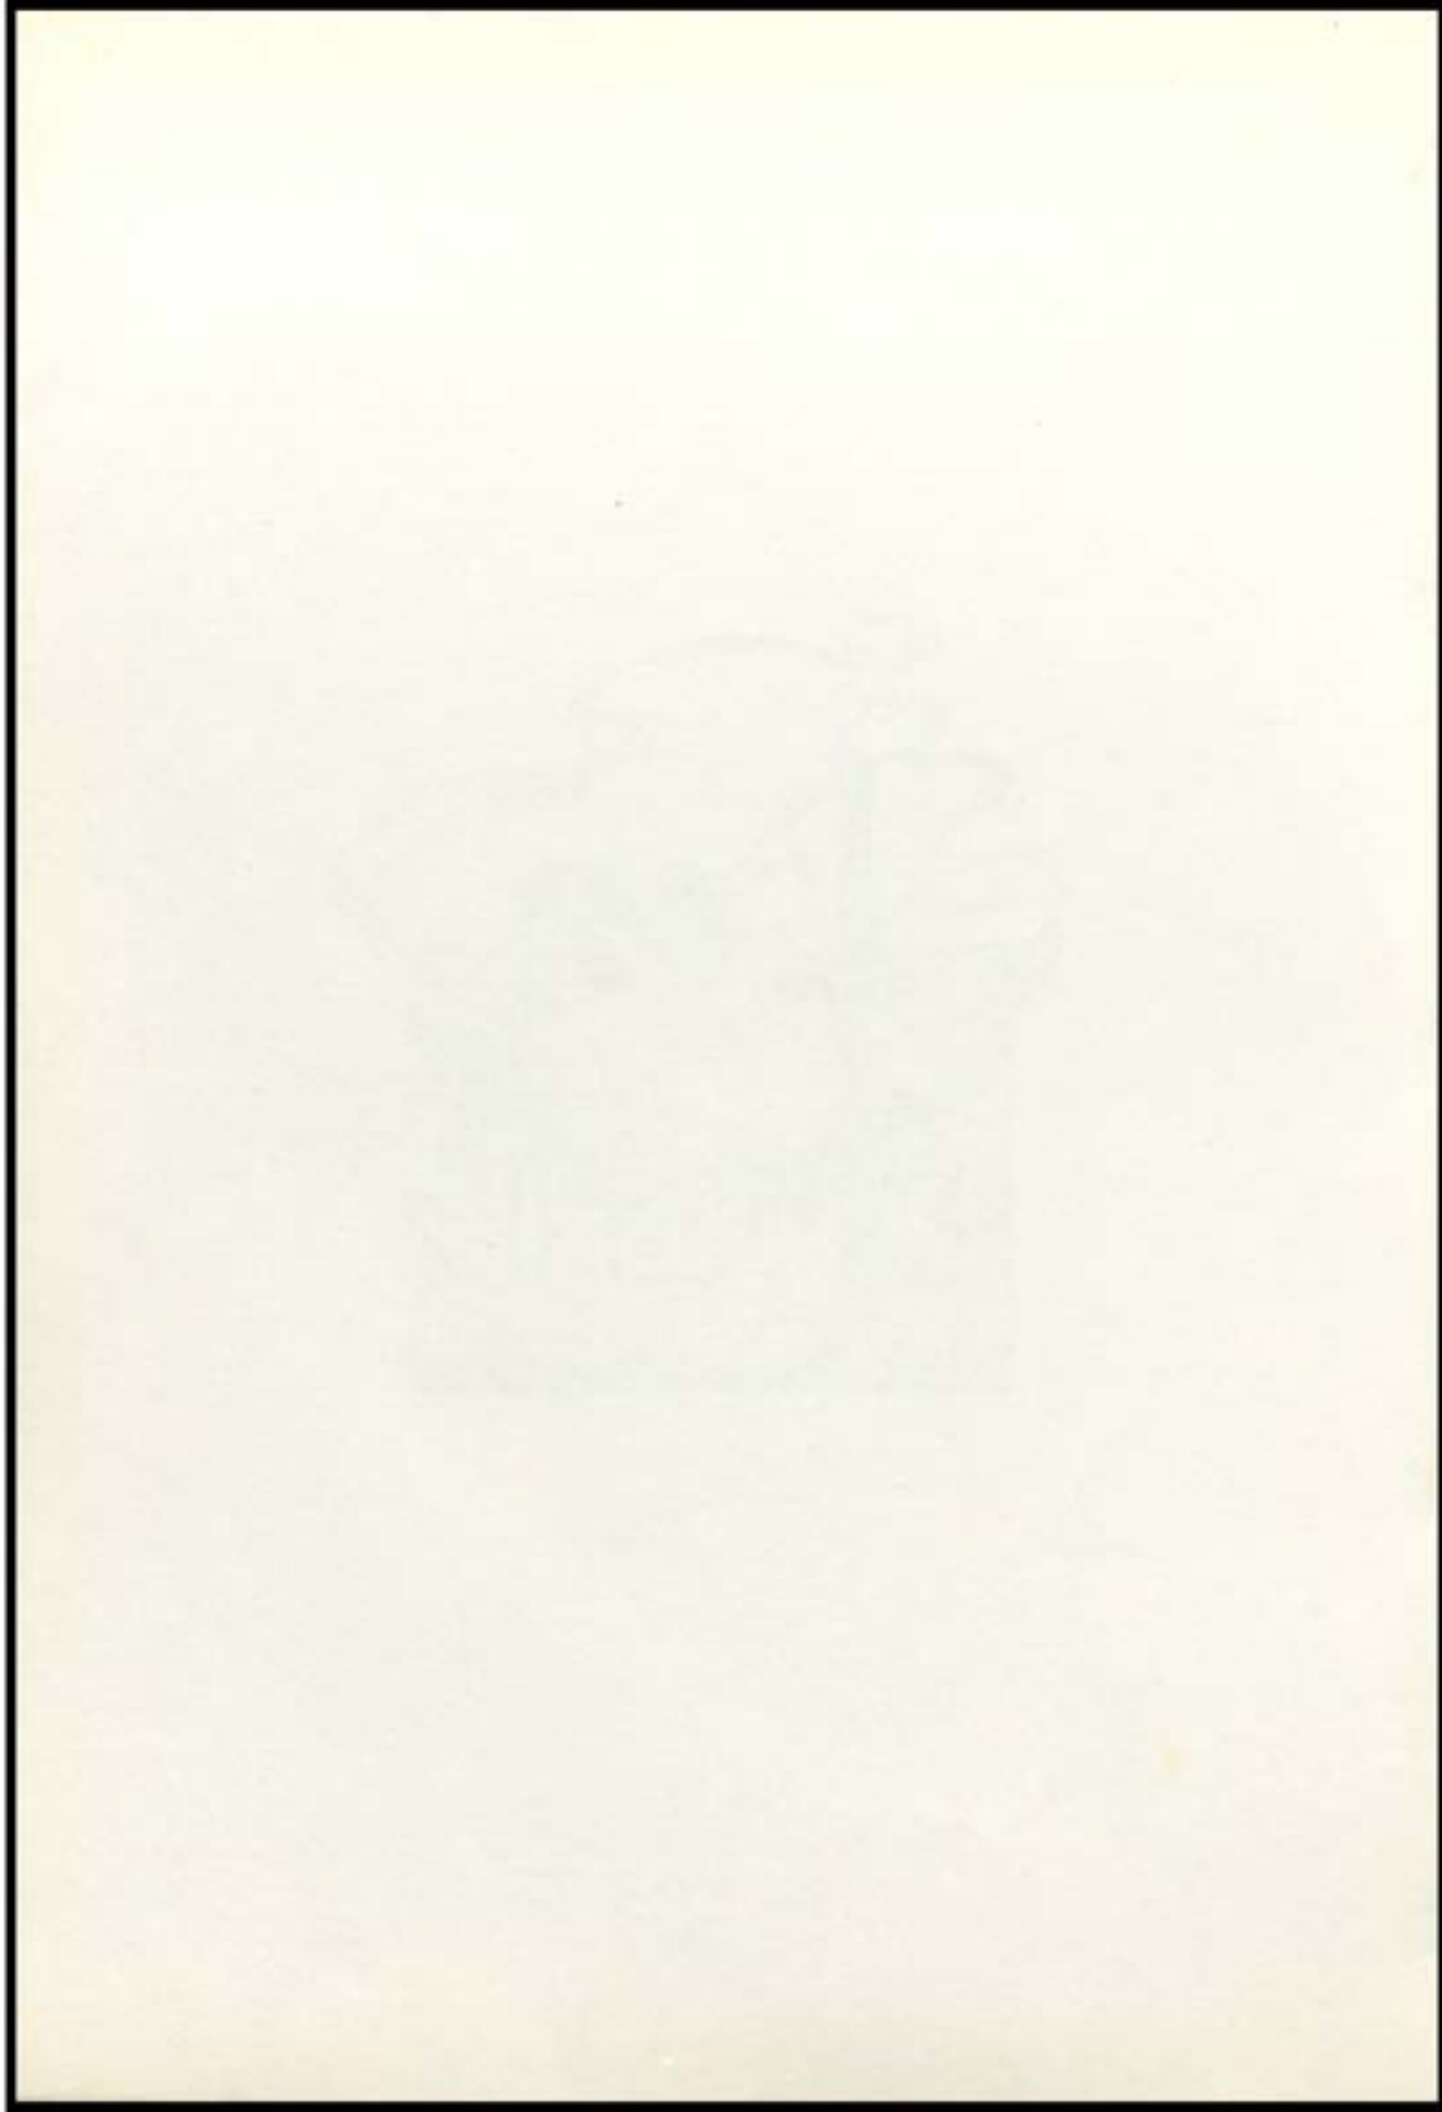

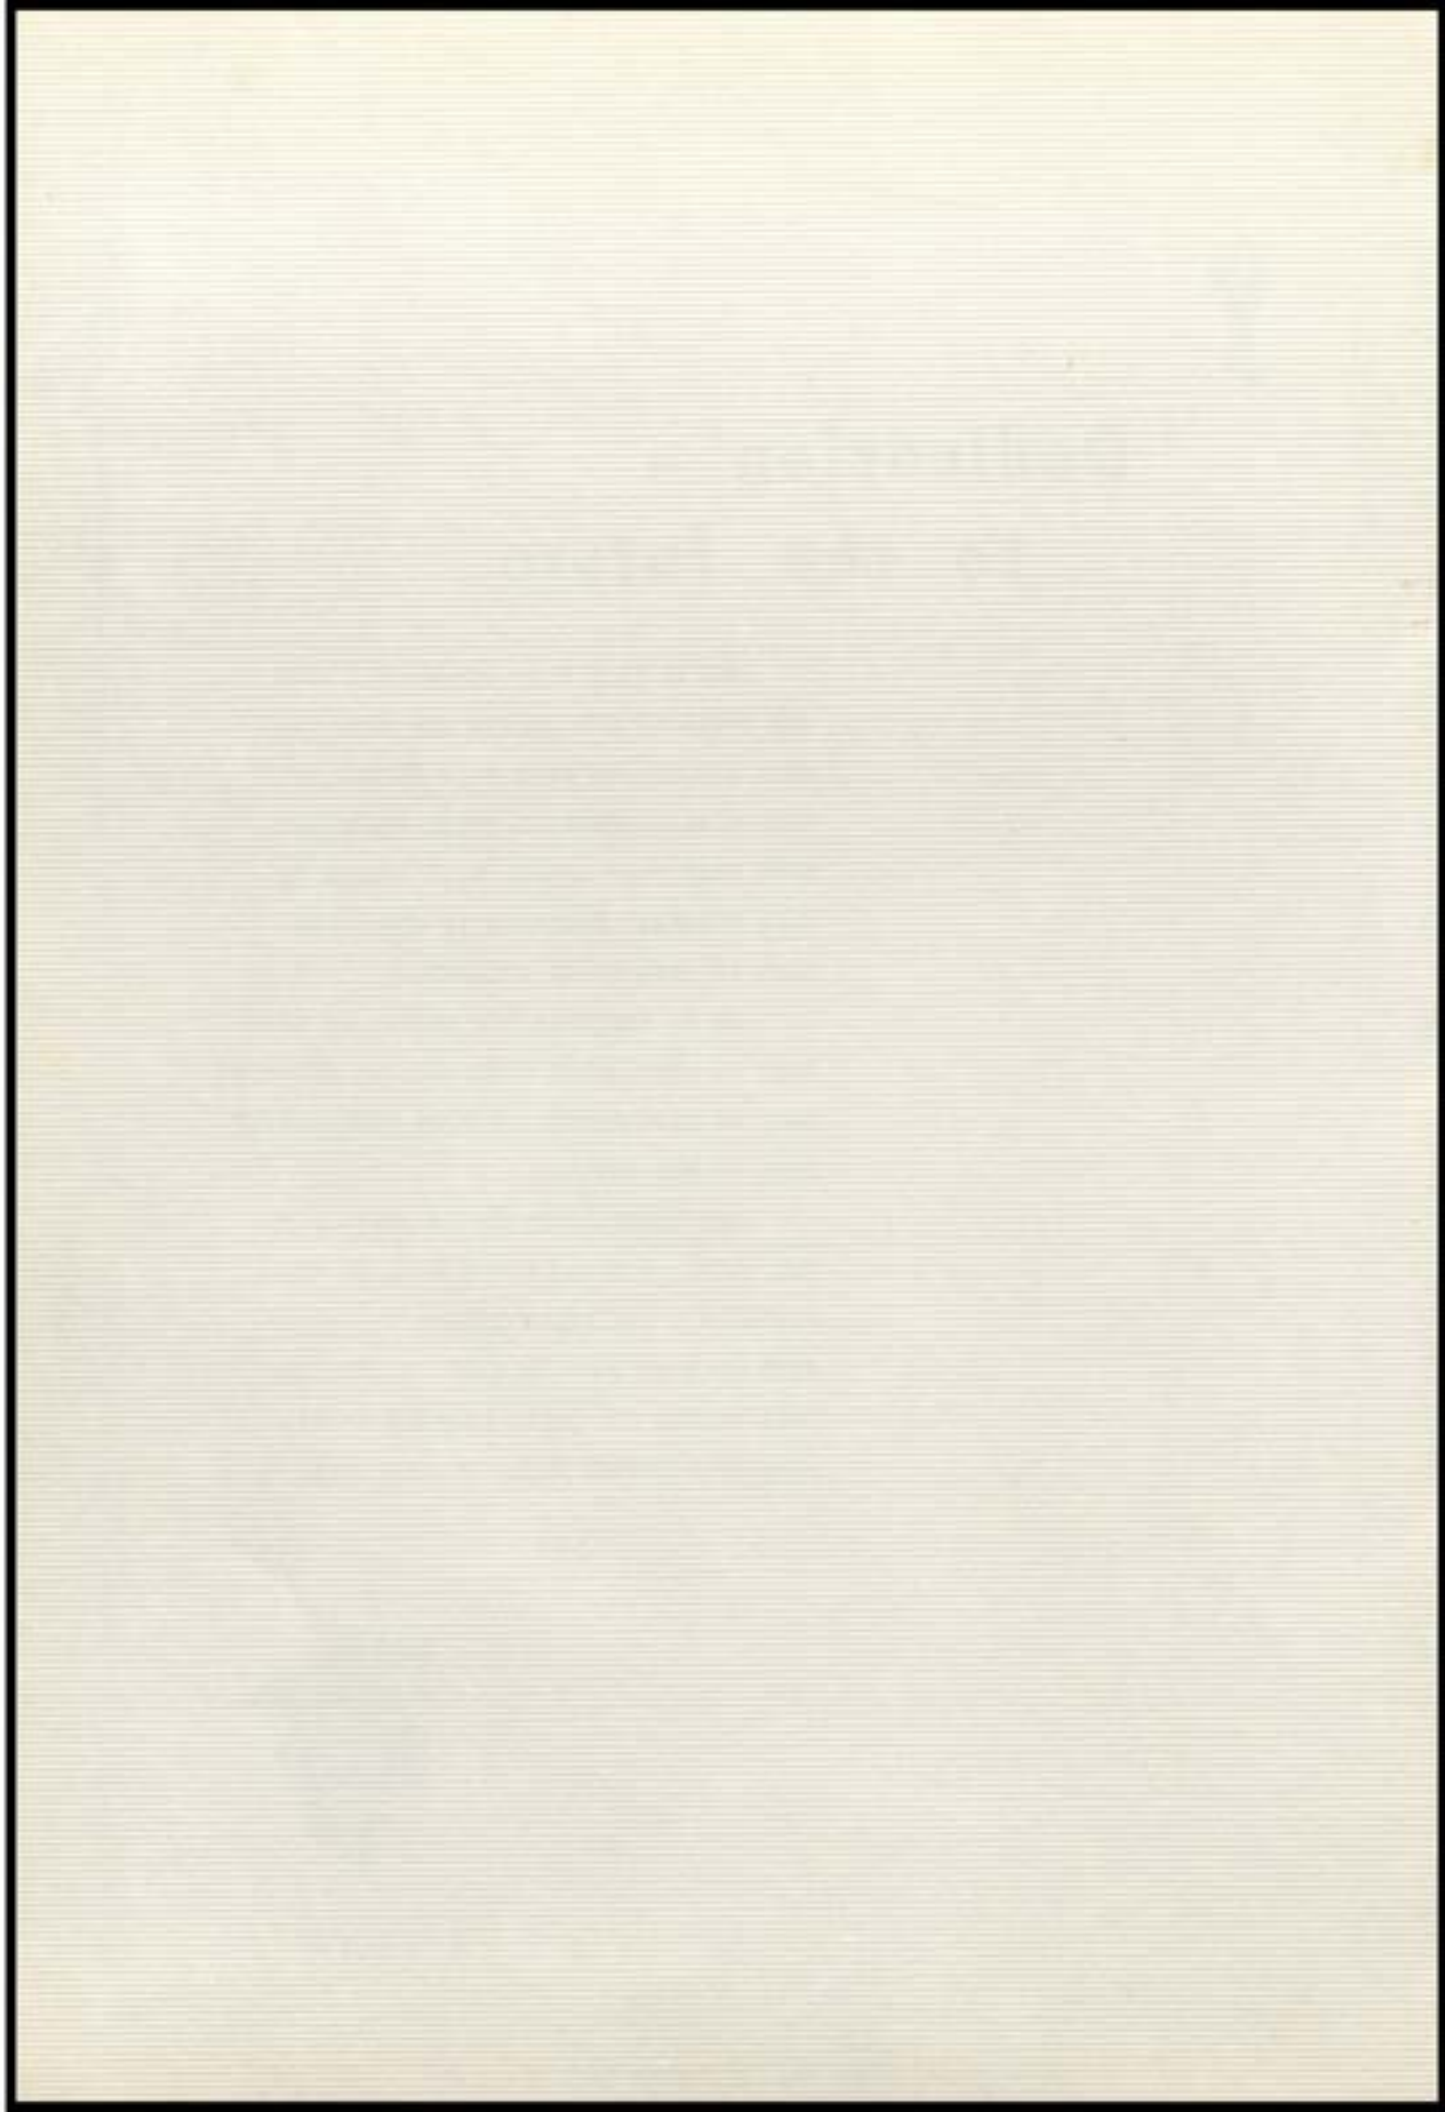

Dedication - to the future

SINCE DALE HIGH SCHOOL HAS BEEN THE SCENE OF OUR GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT DURING THE PAST FOUR YEARS, WE WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER THESE YEARS AND HOPE THAT THIS ANNUAL WILL ALWAYS RECALL PLEASANT MEMORIES OF THE SCHOOL DAYS WE HAVE KNOWN TOGETHER.

AS WE REMEMBER THE PAST--THE DAYS THAT WE HAVE SPENT HERE AND THE FRIENDS THAT WE HAVE KNOWN--WE MUST NECESSARILY LOOK TO THE FUTURE.

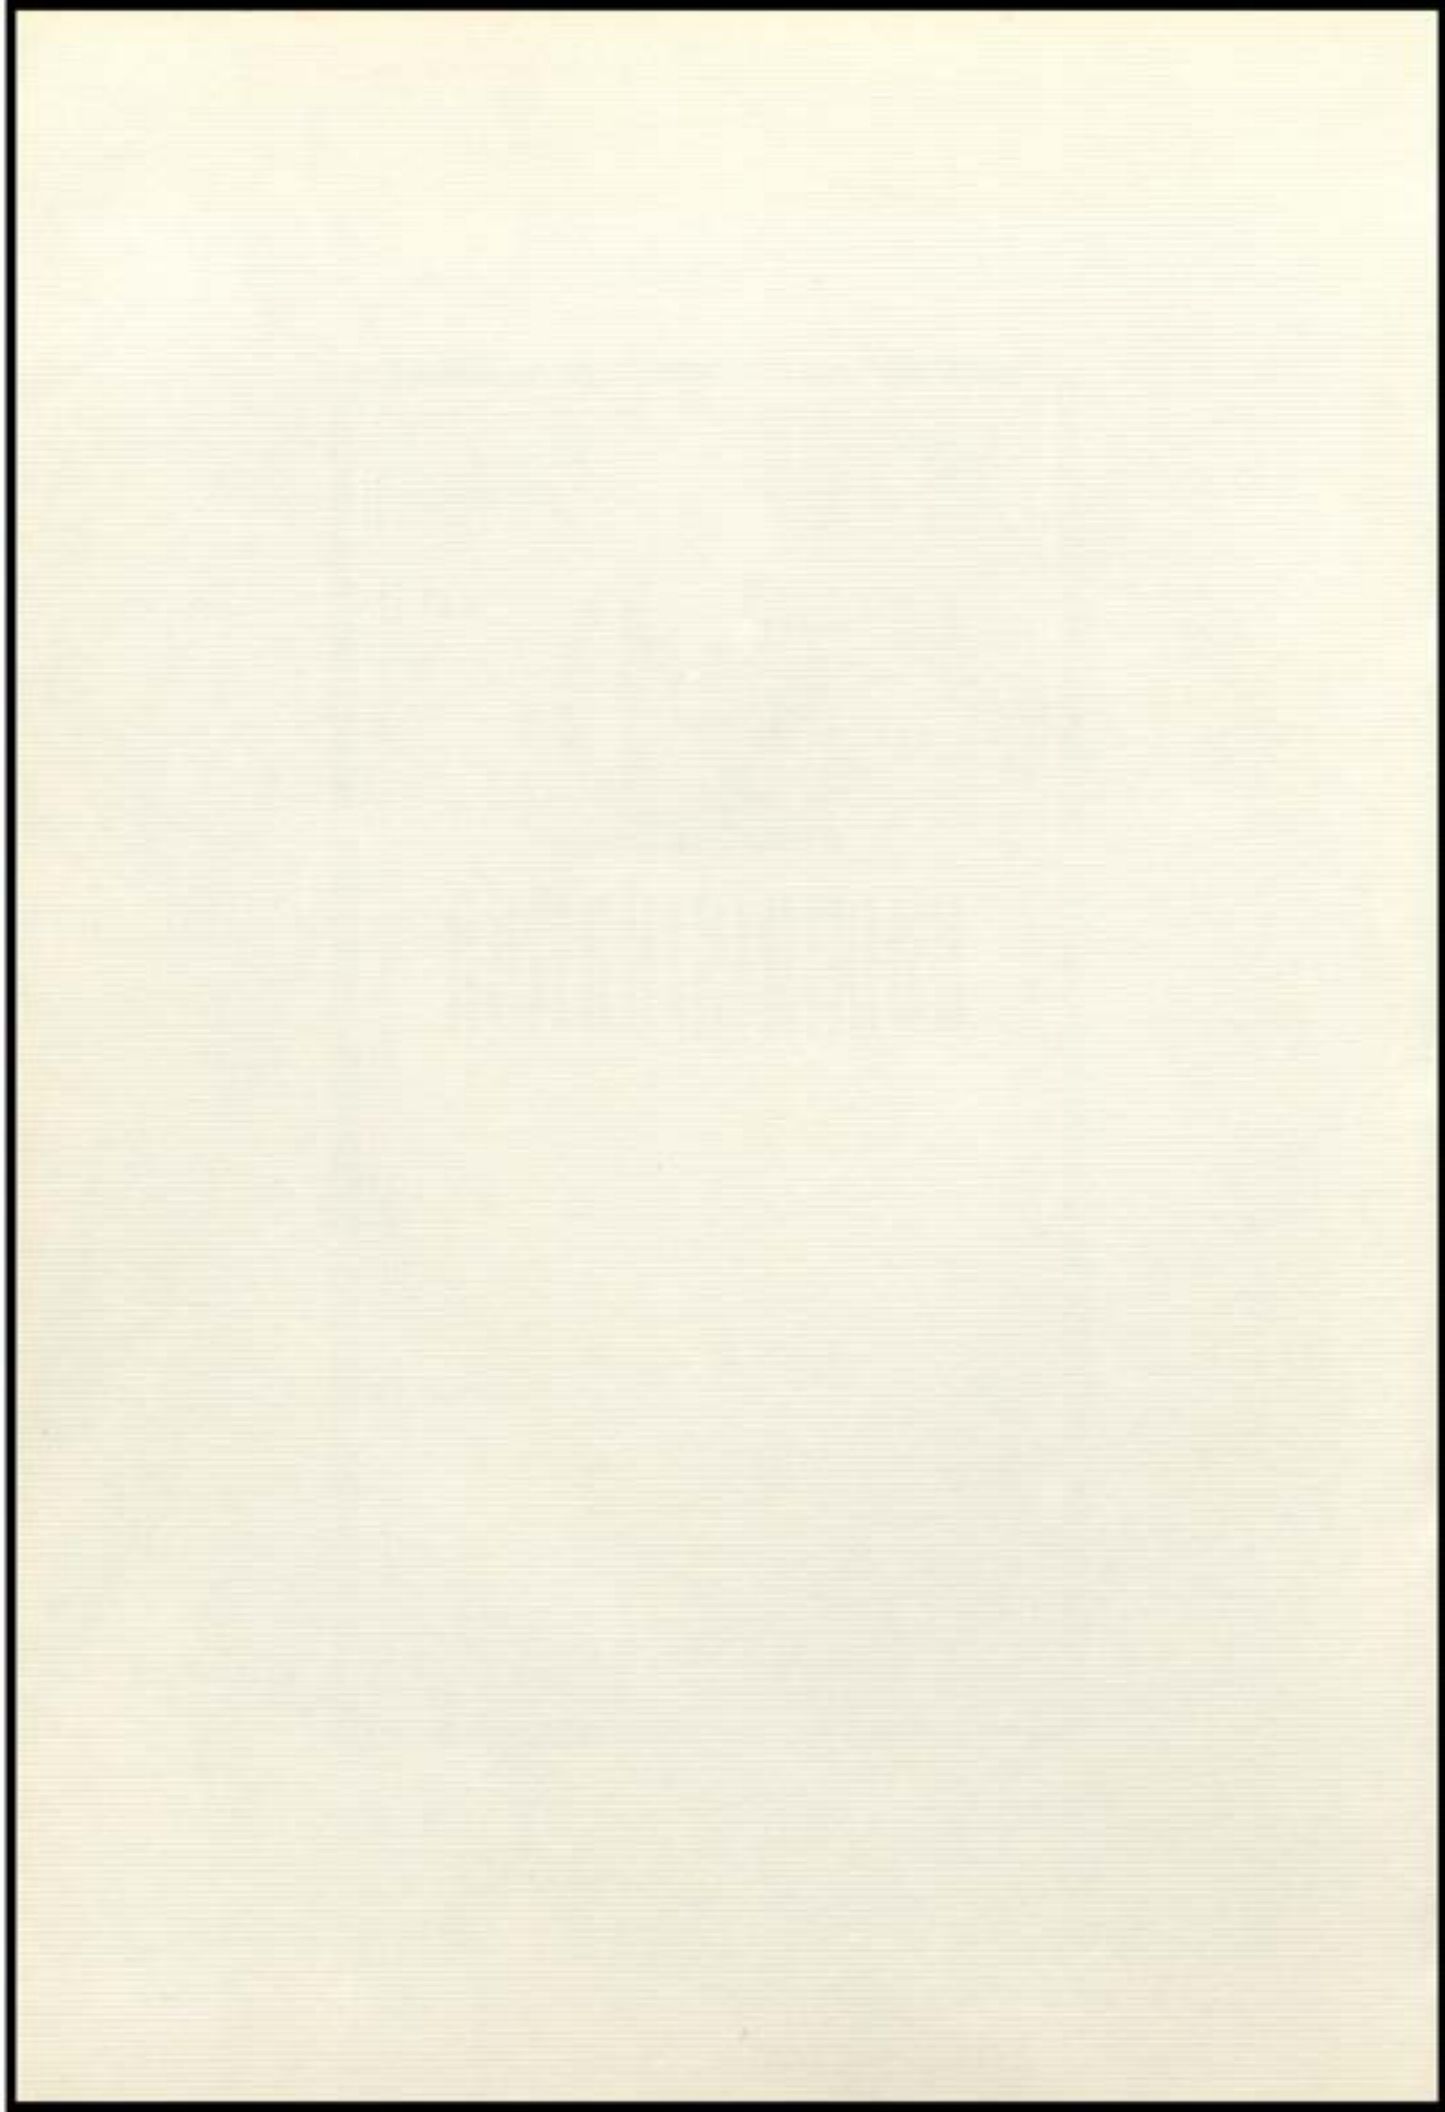

THE WORLD OF TOMORROW BELONGS TO THE YOUTH OF TODAY ! THE GOAL OF WORLD PEACE IS A CHALLENGE FOR US TO ACCEPT. WITH THIS THOUGHT IN MIND WE DEDICATE THIS VOLUME OF "MAPLE LEAVES" TO THE DAWN OF A BETTER WORLD FOR ALL MEN.

TO OUR TEACHERS:

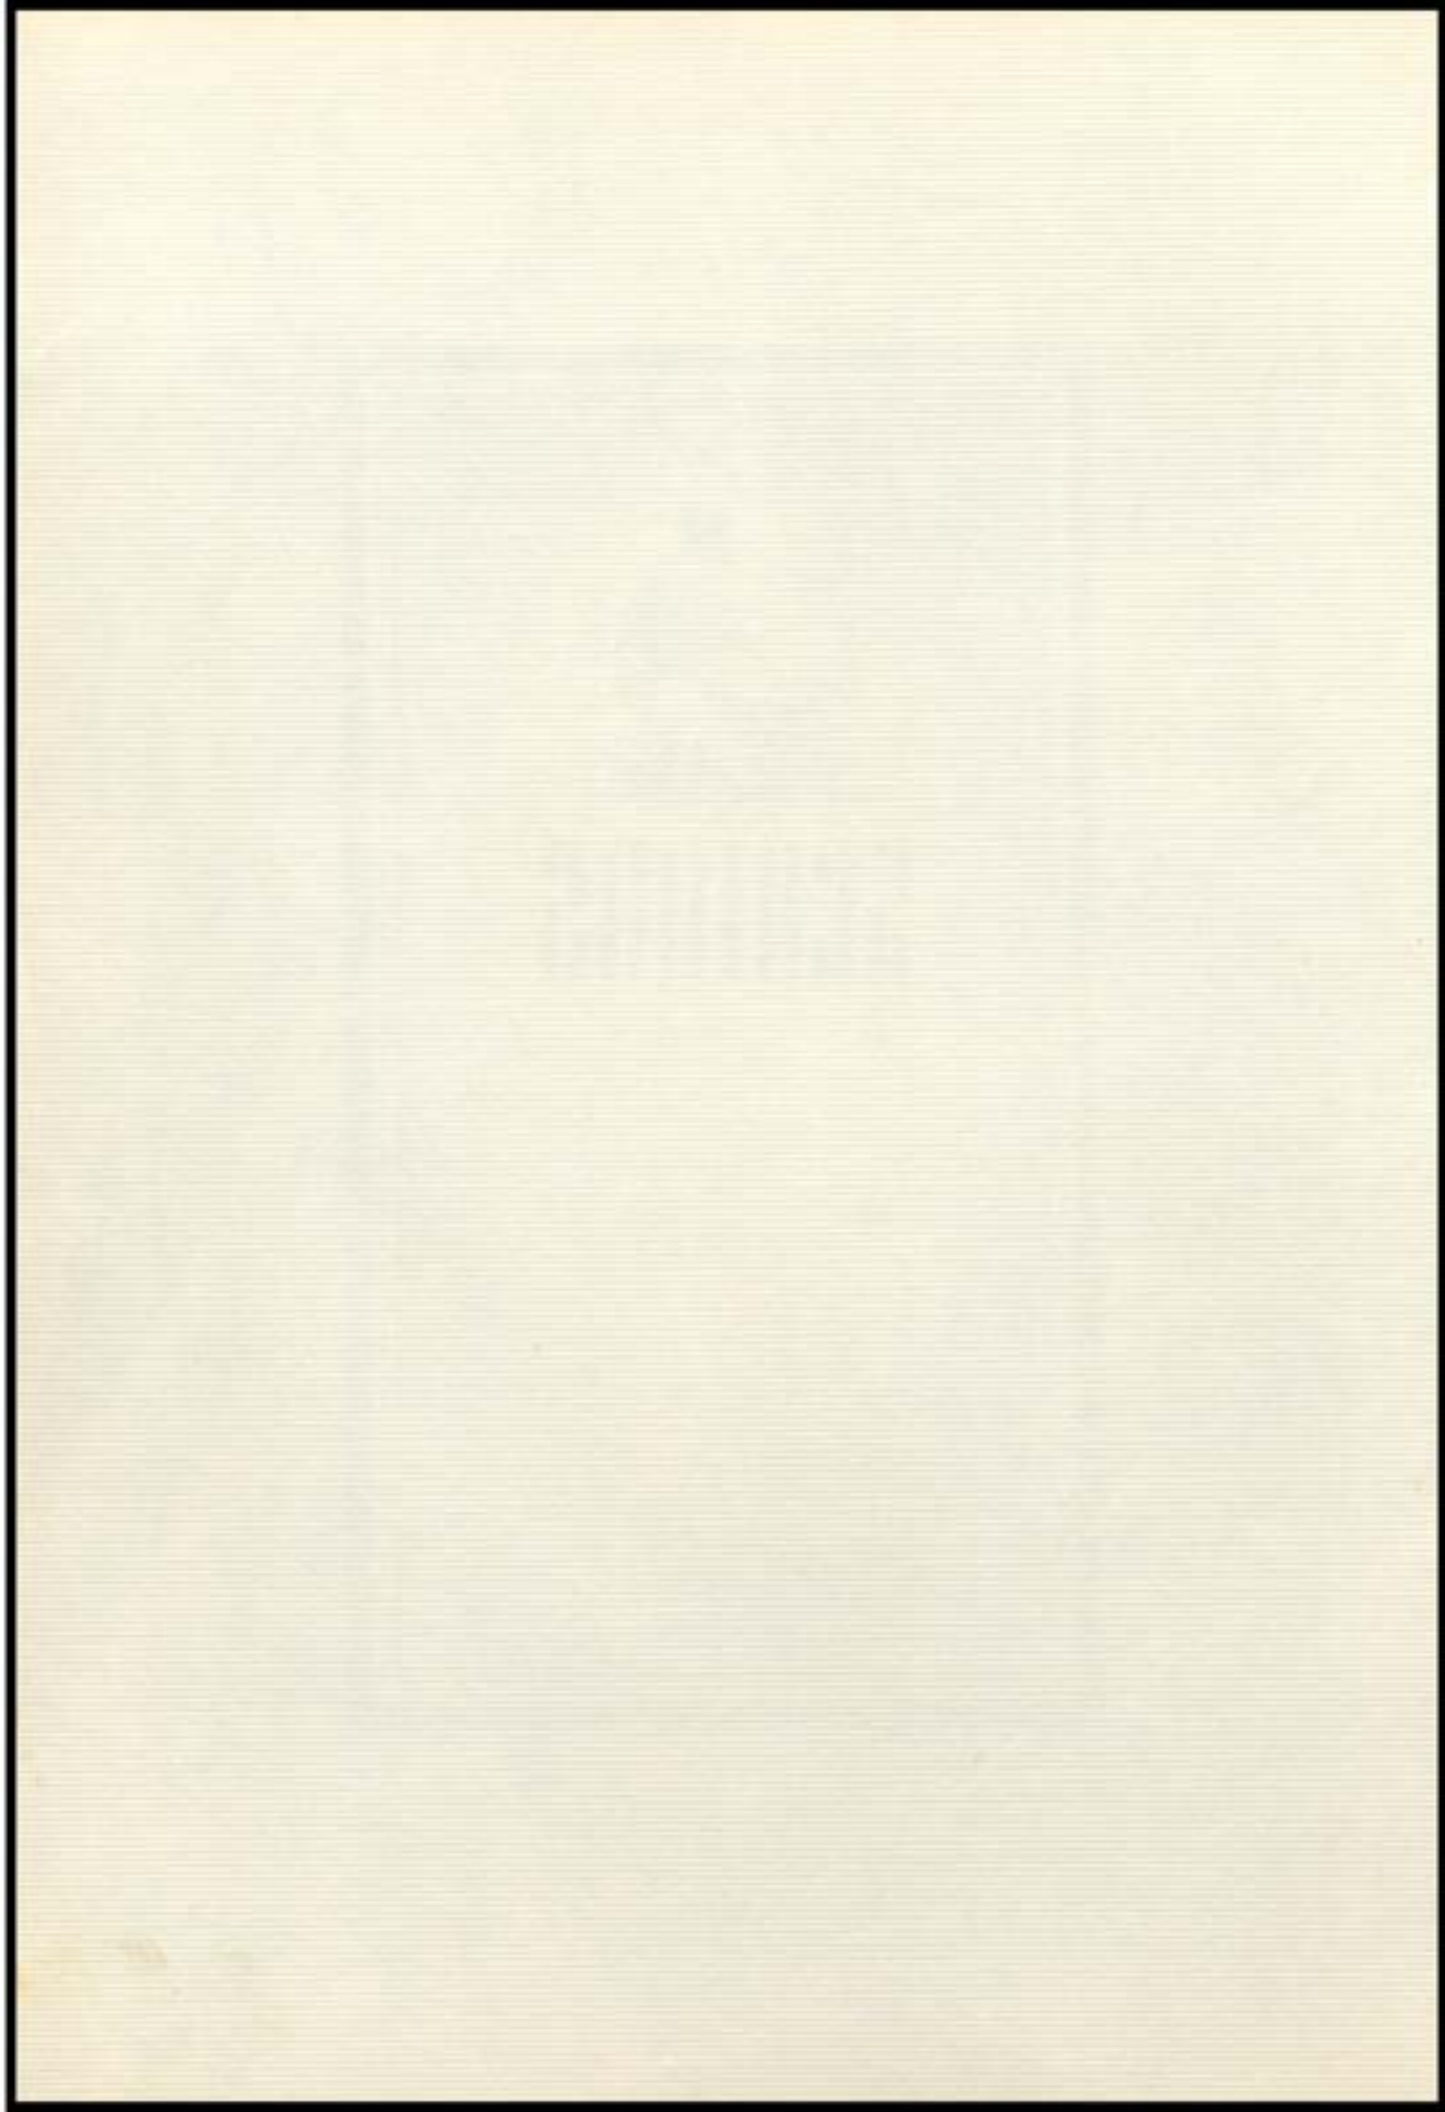

Gratefully we will recall the teachers that we have known. We thank them for their patience and understanding; and it is the firm purpose of the class of '50 to live the ideals and knowledge which the faculty of D. H. S. has instilled in our hearts and minds.

The senior class and the faculty elected five students from Dale High School to represent the Who's Who in America's High School's. The underlying purpose of this honor is to aid in recognizing and developing the potentialities and abilities of young high school students by justly honoring them for their accomplishments, thereby giving them incentive for higher goals; by aiding them in their future efforts; by lending itself as a goal to which younger students will aspire, thereby promoting greater effort and self-development.

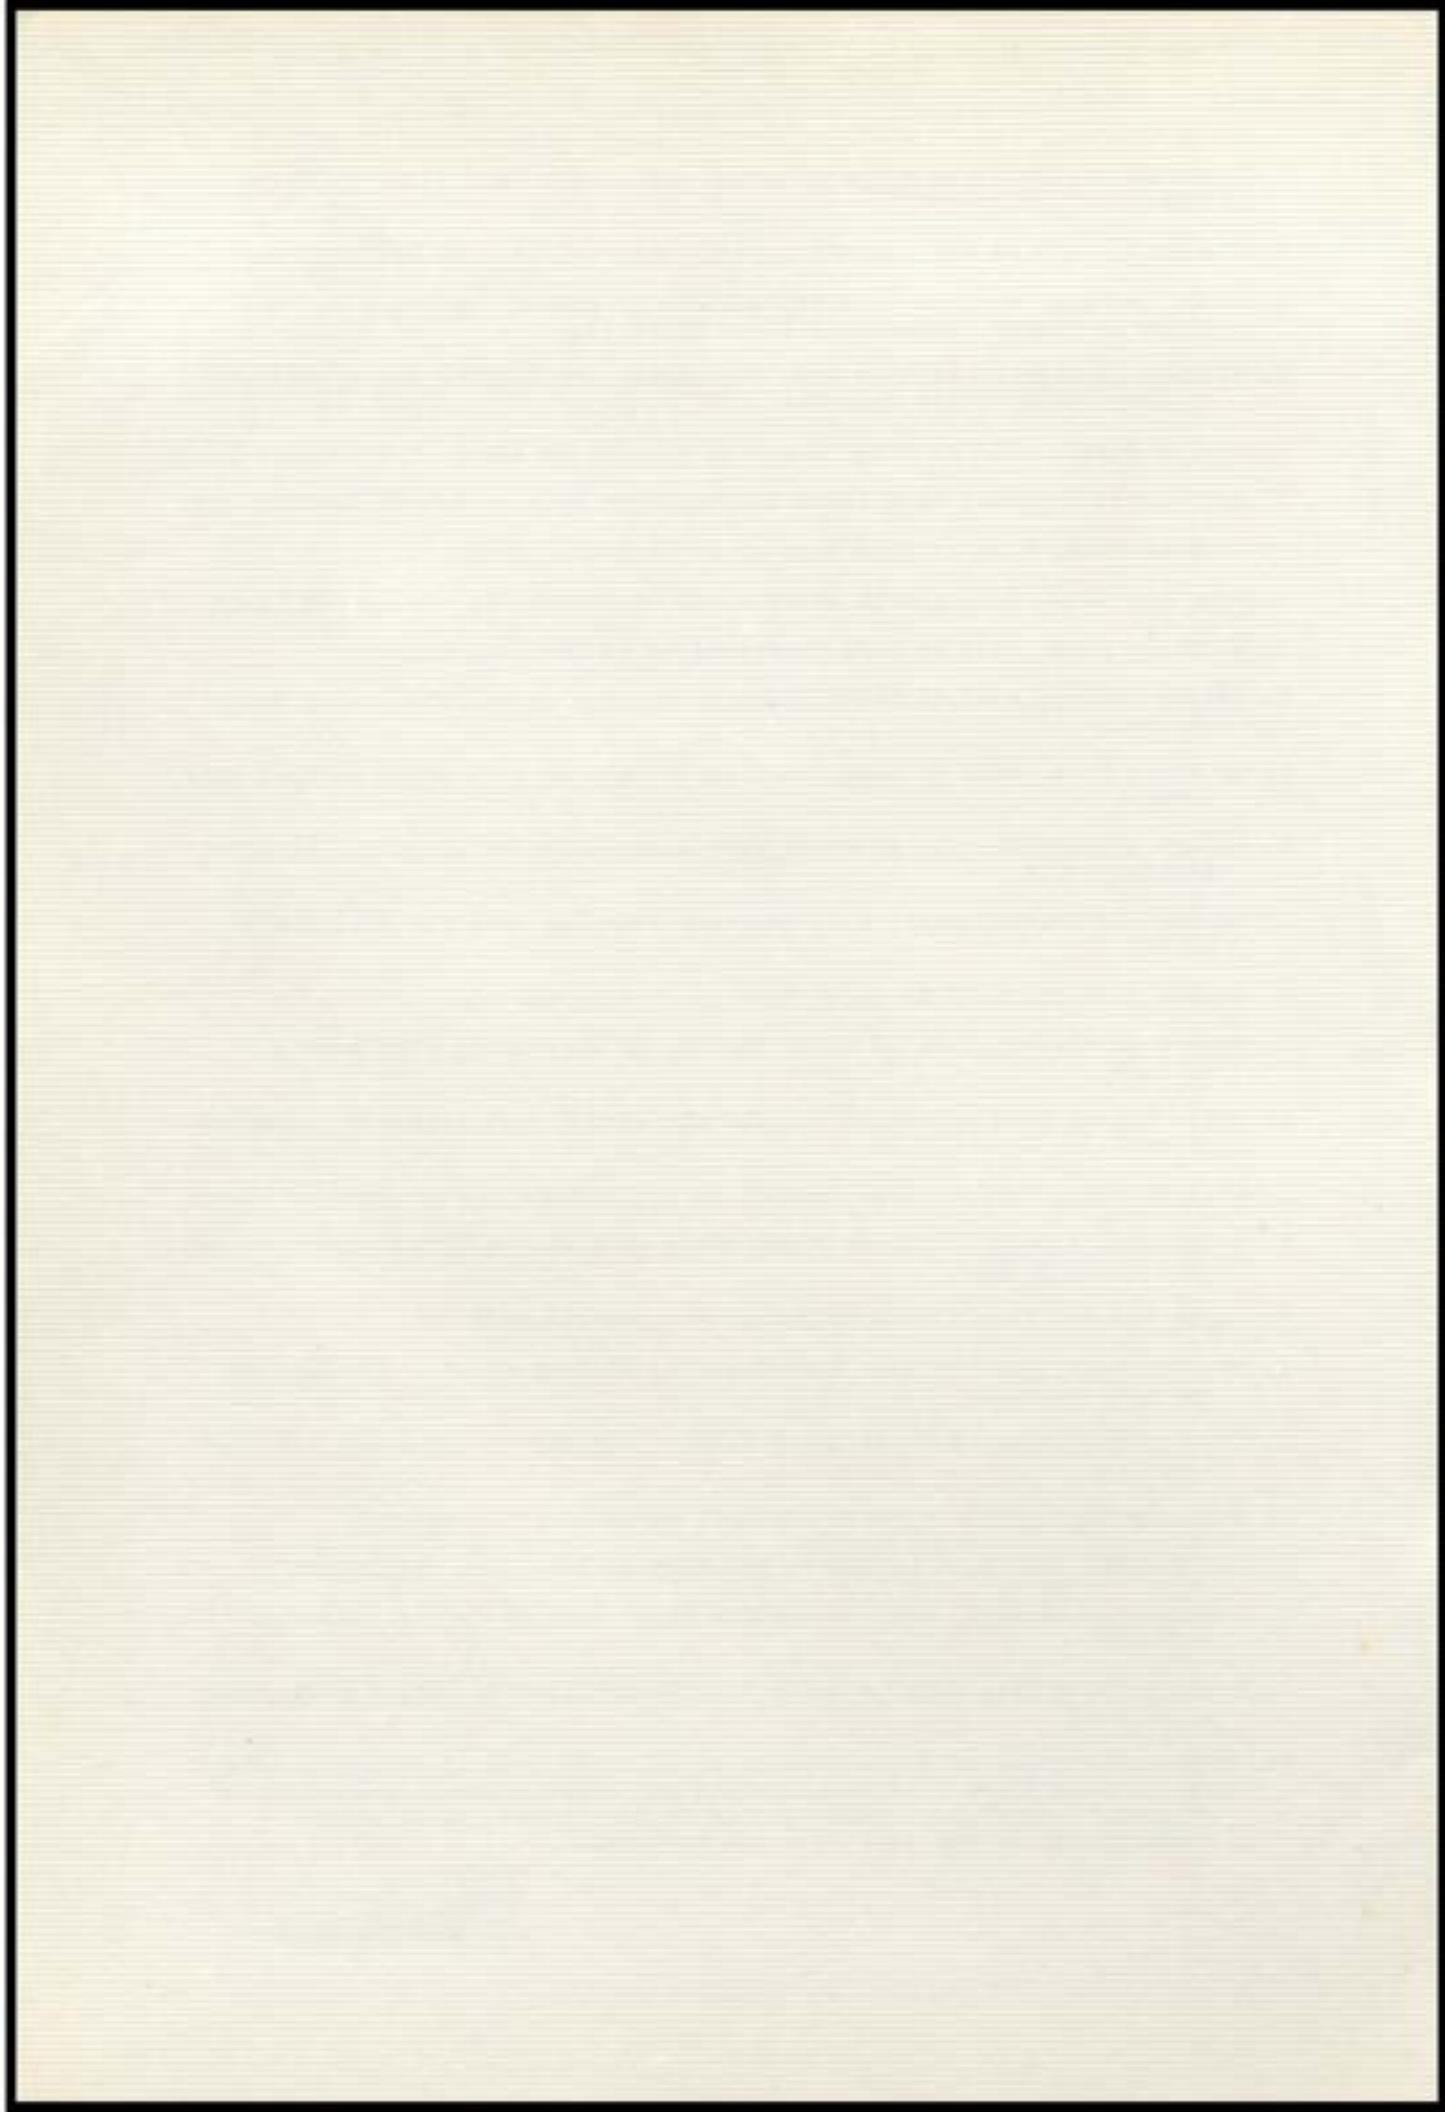

Class Will

- To our Alma Mater we leave our echoing voices and laughter to ring thru the corridors through the coming years.
- To the faculty of Dale High School, we the senior class of '50, bequeath a handful of sympathy for all the trials and tribulations which have found their source in the senior class.
- To the freshmen we bequeath our desire to remain ladies and gentlemen at all times and places.
- To the sophomores we give our footsteps in which you may follow, so you may do the same natured things we did.
- To the Junior class we individually bequeath the following things:
- I, Raymond Altman, will to Charles Forster my ability to get along with Mr. Bailey in Civics.
 - I, Bobbie Braun, will to Kathleen Elliott my love for spinach.
 - I, Rosy Clark, will to Joe Seckinger my quiet disposition and ability to write shorthand.
 - I, Arlen Rex Conner, will to Henry Varner my love for blonde hair.
 - I, Carol Cooper, will to James Polster my love for money, especially for Nichols.
 - I, Charles Crawford, will to David Tribble the ability to take Civics with ease.
 - I, Edwin Ebert, will to James Brookman a bookkeeping answer book to make the subject more simple.
 - I, Mary Ann Eble, will to Marvin Housman my excellent ability to sing baritone.
 - I, John Elliott, will to Elsie Hildenbrand my ability to get demerits in Mr. Woolsey's study hall.
 - I, Rose Mary Gogel, will to Mary Lee Cooper my excellent ability to crochet.
 - I, Wayne Guth, will to Joe Allen Wetzel my ability to get good grades in Mr. Bailey's class.
 - I, Kenny Heichelbech, will to Jack "Merit" Pennington a double-barrel shotgun so he may be an expert snipe hunter.
 - I, Jerry Hensley, will to Bill Schum my training rules.
 - I, Wallace Hartley, will to Mary Elkins my small stature and dainty feet.
 - I, Bernice Hartung, will to Bettye Conner my bookkeeping book.
 - I, Margie Holtzman, will to Geneva Barker my ability to drive on my side of the road.
 - I, Clinton Hughes, will to Agnes Hufnagel a pair of stilts so she can see over the crowd.
 - I, Joan Hunter, will to Glenn Hile my bashful ways toward the opposite sex.
 - I, Lois Kapp, will to Frank Crews my ability to sing (out of tune).
 - I, Porter Kellams, will to Gladys Rechelhoff my voice so she can yodel to her boyfriend.

- I, Joyce Kelley, will to Billy Schum my ability to tell side splinting jokes.
- I, Jim Kurtz, will to Doris Oakin enough sense not to take Bookkeeping.
- I, Leroy Lichtey, will to Leon Vonderheide my ability to get along with girls at Jasper, especially those named Ida.
- I, William Livengood, will to Jack Pennington two pencils and a notebook to keep count of his demerits.
- I, Stella Meyer, will to Bill Becher my ability to sleep in the Study Hall.
- I, Alice Neville, will to Gilbert Schwindle my ability to get Bookkeeping.
- I, Vernita Nord, will to Gary King my curly hair.
- I, John Poellein, will Gloria Brown a box of Kæenex to use in Art class.
- I, Mary Ann Pund, will to Edna Konarding my Bookkeeping talent.
- I, Leland Ranger, will to Billy Schum my ability to get along with town marshals.
- I, La Verne Roos, will to Jean Suhrheinrich all my good times in Dale High School.
- I, Robert Schaeffer, will to Willa Faye Bockstahler my abilities to do Bookkeeping.
- I, Marlene Schnellenberger, will to Jerry Jones my love for classical music.
- I, Dawson Schmitt, will to Alice Were my driving ability.
- I, Sharon Schriefer, will to Wilma Fuhrman my friendship with Marvin Housman.
- I, Bette Schum, will to Glenda Winkler the time I lost trying to think up my will.
- I, Bill Seifert, will to Erna Schulthise my friendship with Raymund Altman.
- I, Bernadette Sitzman, will to Frank Crews my blonde hair to remind him of Carrie Mae Webb.
- I, Louie Tempel, will to Gloria Bender my graceful walk.
- I, Frances Wahl, will to Lela Ruth Minor my ability to stay out late on Saturday night.
- I, Dorothy Wanninger, will to Leroy Guth my ability to get along with the teachers.
- I, Dennis Wilmes, will to Norma Reinhart my Bookkeeping talent.

- I, Louella Woebkenberg, will to Darlean Hearn part of my out standing features.
- I, Doris Jean Barger, Will to Willa Faye Bockstahler my love for changing schools.
- We, the senior class of 1950, consisting of 45 individual parts, passing out of this place of education with our brain crammed, possessed of an almost superhuman understanding do hereby publish an extraordinary paper--our last will and testament.

Senior Class History

Life in D H S began for us way back in September, 1946--four long years ago. Sixty-two googly-eyed, open-mouthed boys and girls embarked on their career of higher learning. As guides for our perplexed group, we chose two boys and one girl--President, Raymond Altman, Vice President, Wallace Hartley; Secretary-Treasurer, LaVerne Roos. Sponsors were Miss Gabert, Mr. Ciesna, and Mr. Glezen.

We took time off from our studying for two parties. The first at Lincoln Park, the second on the schoolgrounds.

Came fall, '47--sixty-five of us, having decided D H S was swell, returned, rarin' to go under the celestial classification of "Silly Sophomores." However, some had moved away, some had quit, and some also joined our great class. Those missing were: Linus Seier, Bernice Fleck, Robert Hartsaw, Joseph Mullis, Leo Otto, Martin Strobel, Robert L. Schaeffer, Virlee Schaefer, Pauline Waninger, Harold Fleck and Harold Eskridge. Those joining our class were: Carol Cooper, Charles Crawford, Edwin Ebert, Joan Hunter, Bette Schum, Barbara Poe, Anthony Rhodes, Joyce Yates, Leroy Lintey, Frank Clark, Jeanne Meyer, and Kim Kurz.

At an early class meeting the officers were elected. President, Jerry Hensley; Vice President, Mary Ann Eble; Secretary, LaVerne Roos; and Treasurer, Joyce Kelley. Our sponsors were: Miss Gabert, Mrs. Kirk, and Mr. Glezen.

During the sophomore year, we again had two parties. One at Lincoln Park, one at Huntingburg Fair Grounds.

By this time, we had learned that laughing at the teachers' jokes made almost as good an impression as studying; so enthusiastic as we were, we resolved not to try to be masterminds, but to have a little fun plus work.

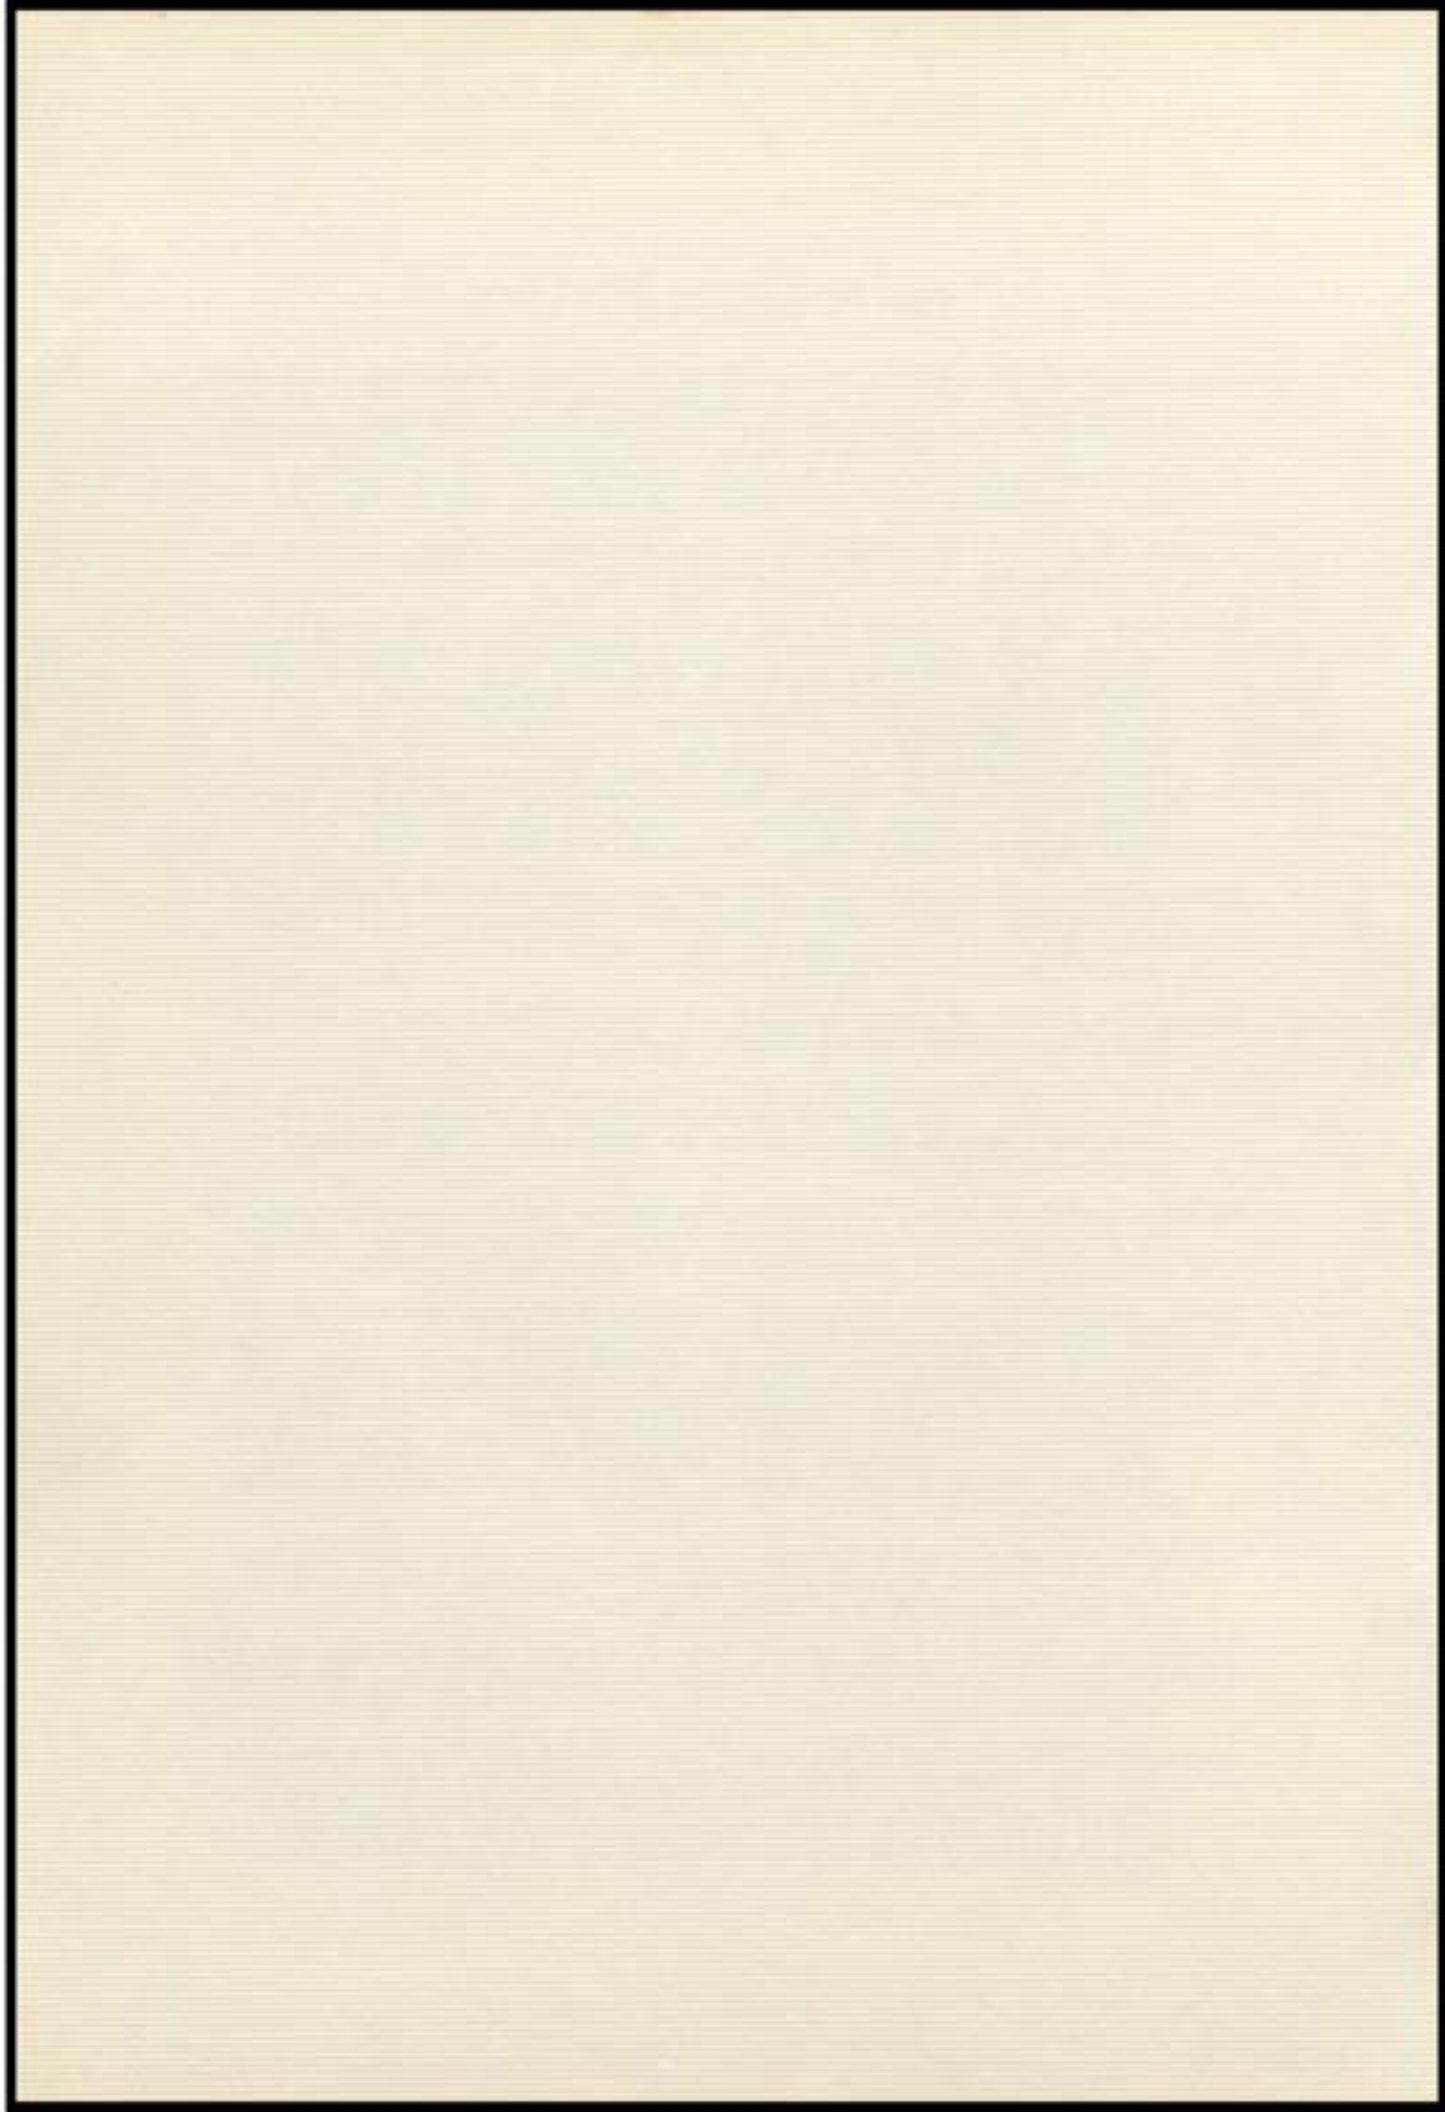

To make ourselves known to the school and the faculty, we participated in several extra-curricular activities; we even managed to contribute two cheer leaders to the cheering student body.

Having weathered two stormy years of school activity, we approached the third ring in our ladder as we opened the doors of D H S as Juniors. Fifty "Jolly Juniors" started the year out right. To start our climb for the year we went into a huddle out of which emerged our officers, Jerry Hensley, President; Leland Ranger, Vice President; Mary Ann Eble, Secretary and Louis Tempel, Treasurer. At a re-election, Bill Livengood was chosen President, and Joan Hunter Vice President. Our sponsors--Miss Weedman, Mr. Rhea, and Mr. Glezen.

Our Junior year was high-lighted by an outing at Evansville Zoo, the Jr.-Sr. Banquet and the Junior play, "Just Ducky" presented under the able guidance of Miss McDaniel.

So, having reached the top of our ladder for the year, we left school, looking forward to being dignified seniors--as if that were possible.

September 1949--and again we opened our book at D H S to add the fourth and final chapter. Shortly after resuming our trials and tribulations (meaning studies) we tallied our class votes with the result that Bill Livengood was chosen President, Clinton Hughes, Vice-President; Mary Ann Eble, Secretary; and Carolyn Whitten, Treasurer.

We still couldn't believe that we were at last Seniors, so trying to convince ourselves of our rank, we ordered our calling cards and announcements.

The last semester we welcomed into our class of '50, Doris Jean Barger of Indianapolis, making the total number of seniors fourtysix.

With our Commencement exercises, we bow out of D H S History. They say "the last mile is the hardest," but under the able leadership of our sponsors, Mrs. Stone, Mr. Woolsey and Mr. Glezen, and with the help of other faculty members, we found our senior year to be the most interesting, exciting chapter of our life in D H S.

Senior Tea

The sophomore Home Ec girls, along with Miss Weedman, sponsored the traditional Senior-Faculty Tea in the Home Ec Room December 21, 1949. While a group of sophomore girls sang "Silent Night" and "Here Comes Santa Claus," we ate our canapes, cookies and favors and drank our punch. Sharon Kaiser recited the poem, "The Night Before Christmas." It was enjoyed and will be remembered by everyone.

The board was beautifully decorated with a picture of baby Jesus and the Three Wise Men. The picture was drawn by Barbara Barnett, sophomore.

Senior Trip

Early Saturday morning, October 8, 1949, forty sleepy-eyed seniors climbed aboard the bus with sponsors, Mrs. Stone, Mr. & Mrs. Glezen, Mr. Bailey and Mr. Pegler and headed for Indiana University. We stopped a while on the way to eat our breakfast and reached the University about 9:00. At 10:00, we were led over the campus on a tour which ended at the cafeteria. Some ate here but others ate elsewhere. The football game between Indiana and Texas Christian started at 1:00 p.m. with Texas Christian winning the game.

Everyone piled into the bus to start on the long trip back home. Again we stopped to eat at Loggootes. At 7:30 we rolled into Dale, glad to be back and agreeing that we had had a very nice senior trip.

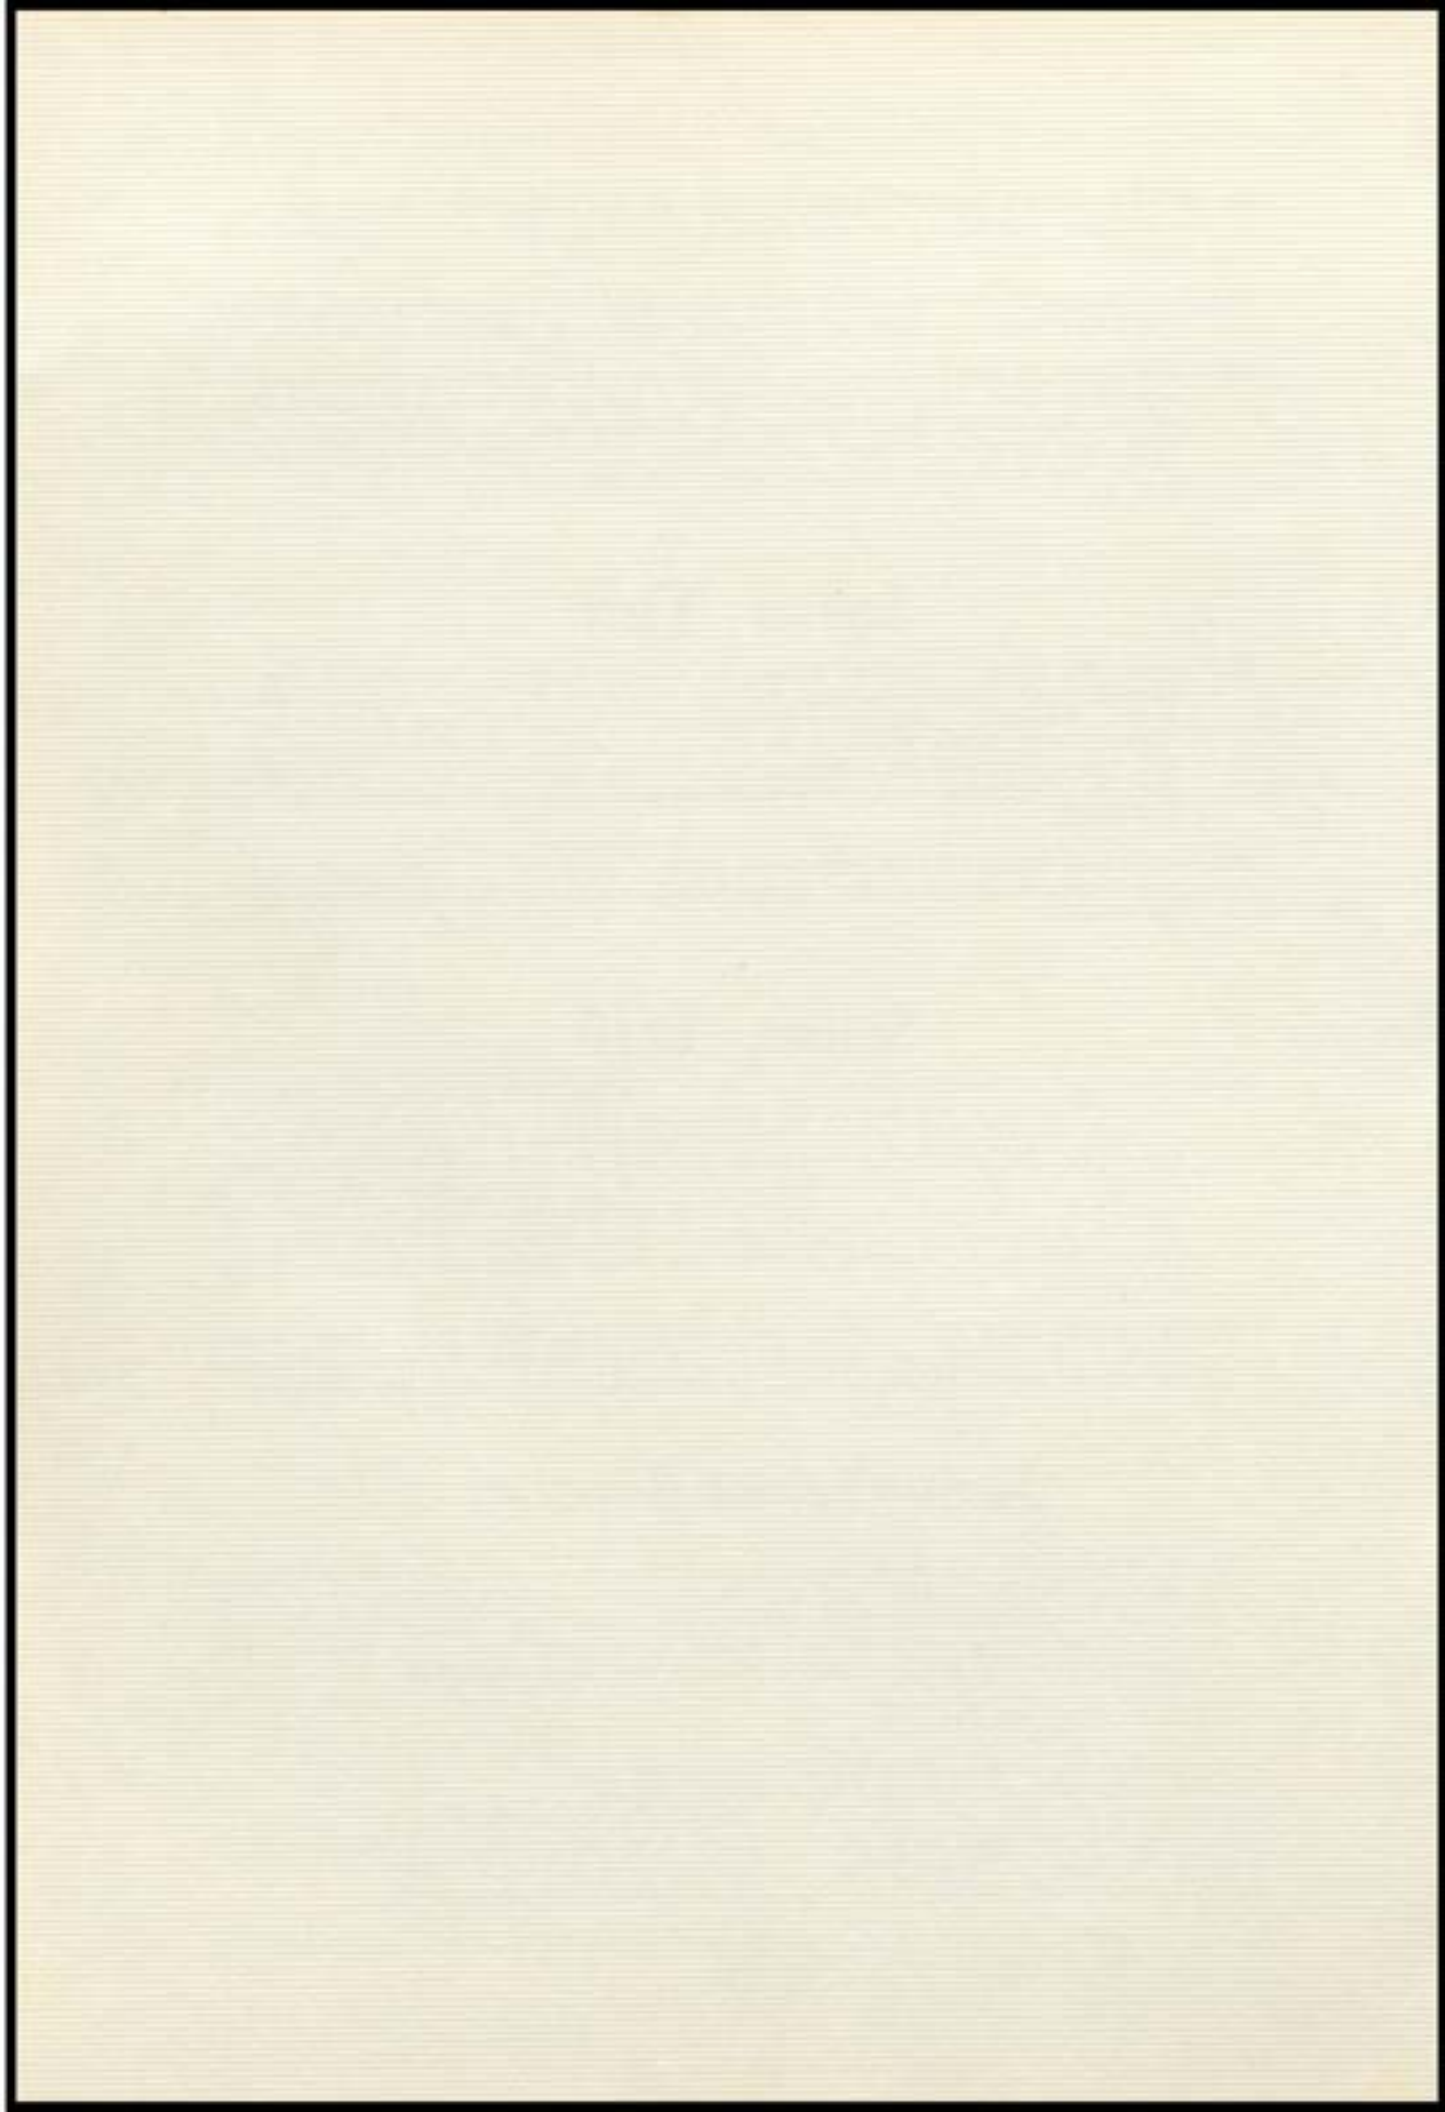

Junior-Senior Banquet

At 8:00 P.M. April 9, 1949, the juniors, seniors, faculty and other guests gathered at the Dale High gym for the Junior-Senior Reception. The theme carried out through the evening was "The Forty-Niners". A big covered wagon stood at one end by a campfire. The tables were decorated with small covered wagons and gold nuggets.

The program was as follows:

Coon Holler Bill-Bill Livengood-Toastmaster
Colorado Carrie-Carolyn Whitten-Toastmistress
Betsy from Pike-Bette Schum	Digger Jim-James Wahl
Gold Dust Alice-Alice Neville	Gun-Totin Lannan-Prin. Loren Lannan
Hop-a-long Clint-Clint Hughes	Gypsy Verne-LaVerne Roos
Cactus Al-Alfred Kemmer	Slap Happy Jo-Joan Hunter

Music around the campfire was given by a group of juniors, accompanied by Porter Kellems and his guitar.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1947, sixty-eight students enrolled in the freshmen class but before the year was over nine had withdrawn and only one had entered. The officers were; president, Glenn Hile; vice-president, Gloria Brown; secretary, Marjorie Schenk. For their first class party they went to Ferdinand State Forest and the second they stayed on the school grounds.

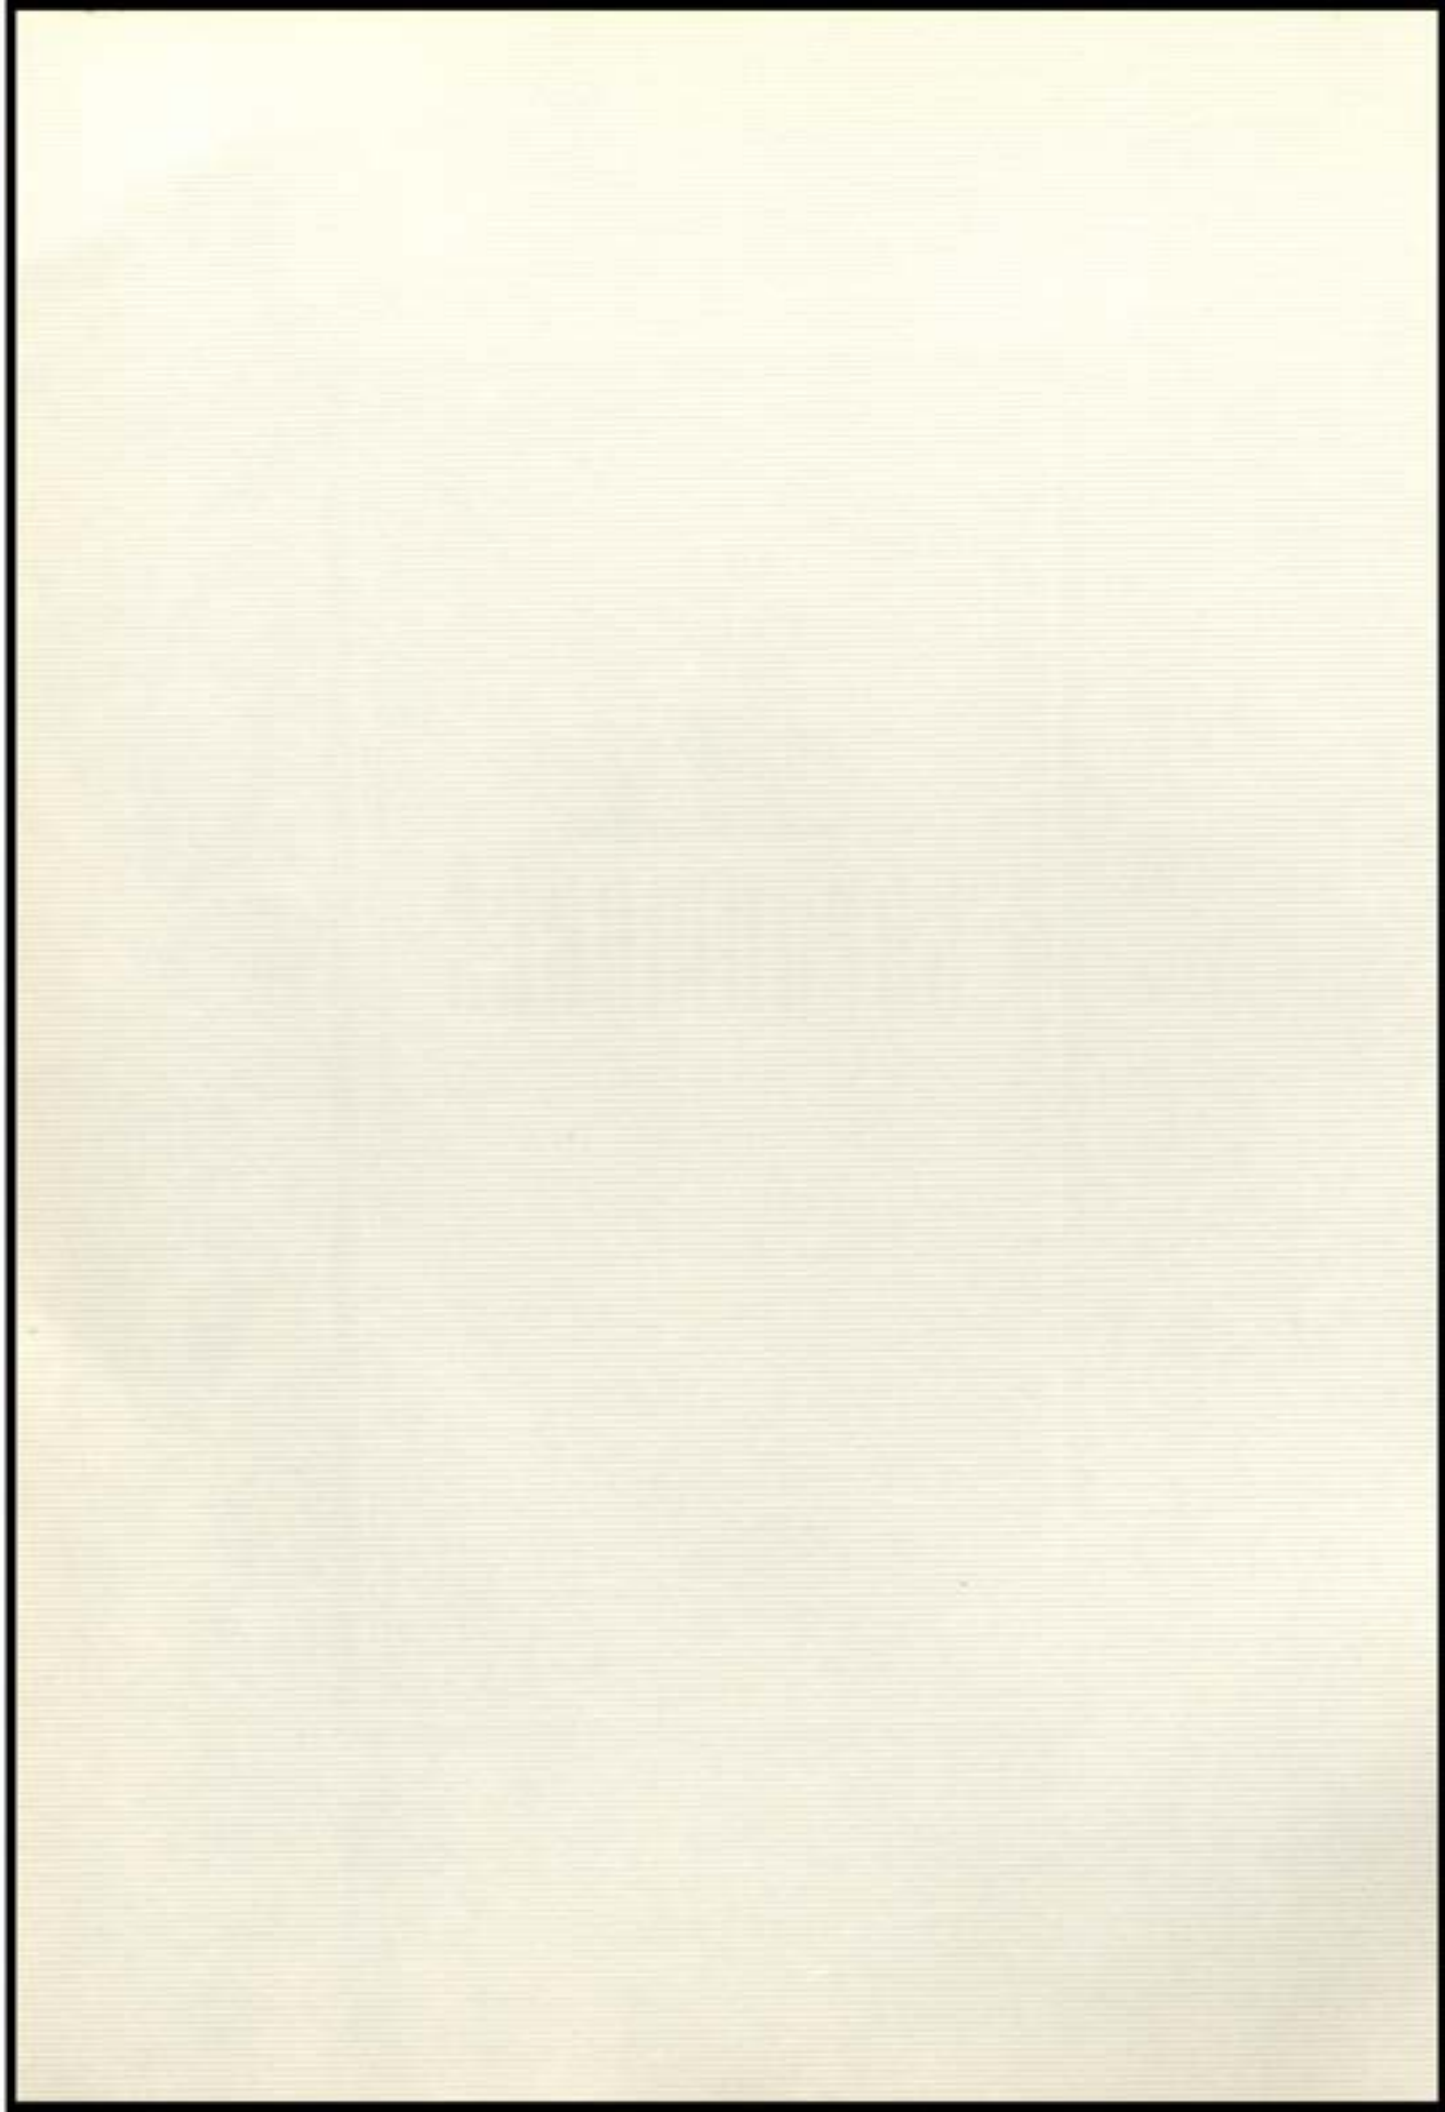

The following fall only forty-seven of the sixth returned for their second year of high school. Their officers were; president, Glenn Hile; vice-president, Carrie Mae Webb; secretary, Gloria Brown; treasurer, Frank Crews. Two class parties were held during that year; one at Huntingburg Park and one at Lincoln Park.

When the Junior Class assembled in 1949, they found that forty-three of their classmates had returned. That meant that only three had not come back. Before the year was over three had withdrawn leaving only forty. For their officers they elected; president, Glenn Hile; vice-president, Willa Fay Bockstahler; secretary, Carrie Mae Webb. Mary Lee Cooper was chosen treasurer by the sponsors and other officers. Their first class party was held at Mesker Park at Evansville. For their class play they gave, "Bashful Bertie."

DALE ACES

Kenneth Heichelbech and Bill Livengood were the two seniors who finished the season with the "Aces". Three of the starting ten dropped out during the year, they were Wallace Hartley, Wayne and Leroy Guth. They were replaced by Glenn Hile, John Fuller, and Gene Medcalf with Daniel Hendren and Warren Stephens alternating in the line up.

The only record broken this year was a scoring record in the local gym. Bill Livengood set a new record with 27 points in the Mt. Vernon game. The previous scoring record was held by Louie Wahl, with 22 points for the Dale Aces in the Cannelton game in 1939.

DALE DEUCES

The valliant little Deuces furnished the "High Light" of the Co. Tourney for Dale bringing home the only trophy won by the school this year. This team was made up mostly of sophomores. They were; Gene Medcalf, Glenn Hile, Daniel Hendren, Warren Stephens, and Bill Harper.

Although the year was one of the "leanest" as far as victories go, there is a lot of good material coming up next year. So come on, Dale Aces, "Get On The Track and Let's Fight Back" for Dear Old Dale High School.

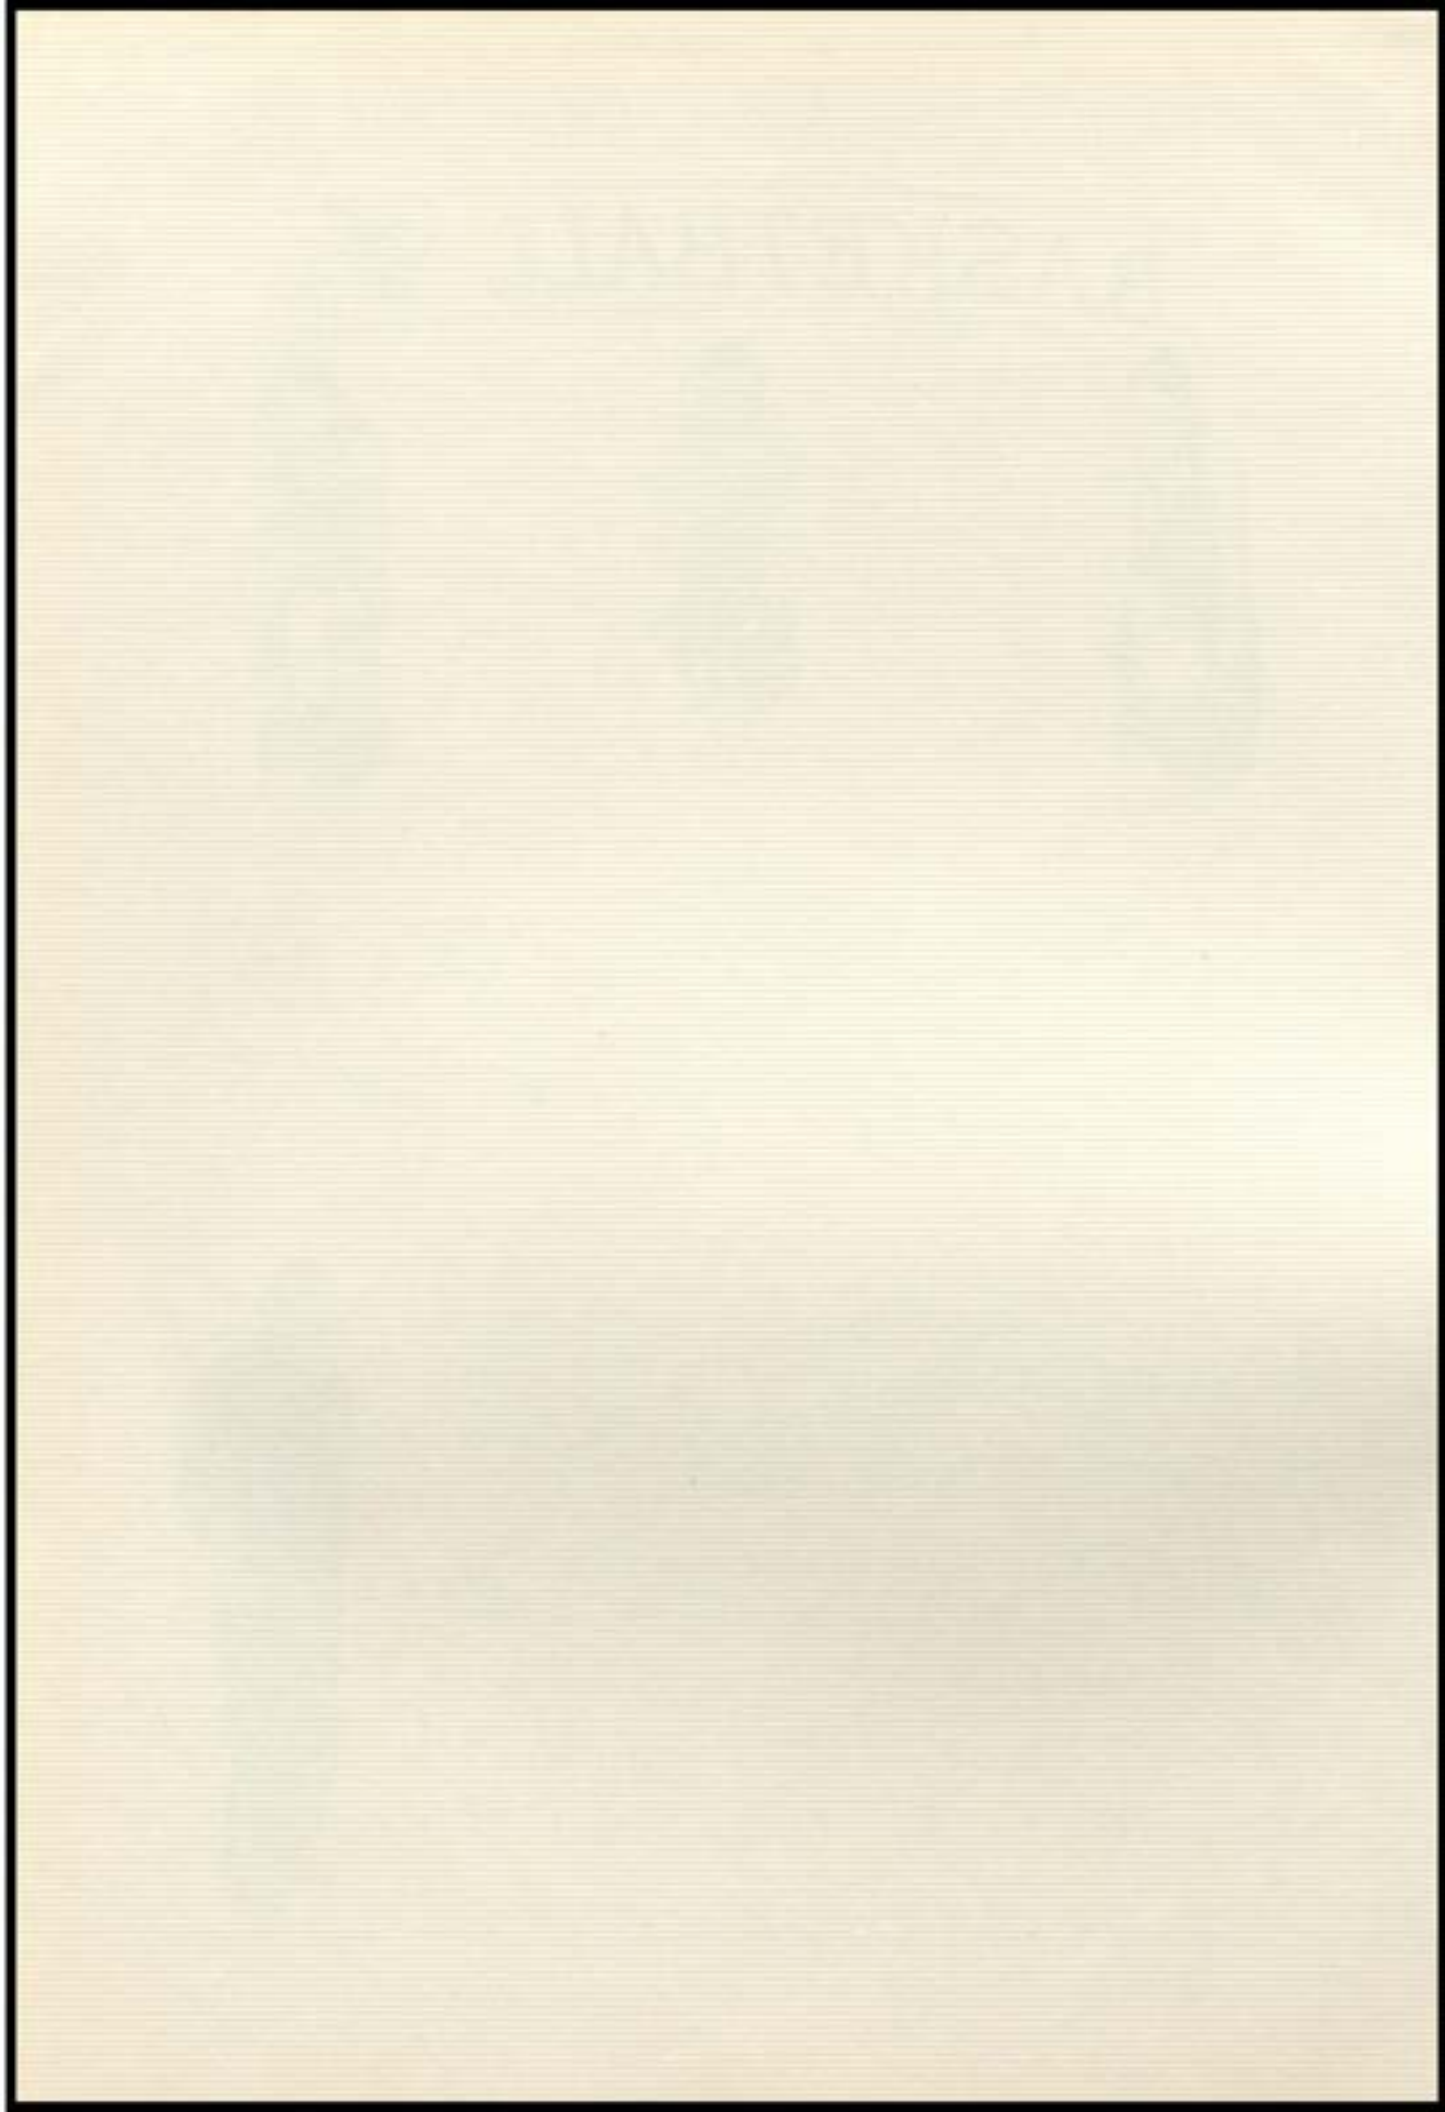

Bill Livengood, Dale's flashy guard, made the P. A. C. Conference first team. This is the first year that the P. A. C. included basketball. Bill also made the All-Sectional first team.

"Papa Says No," was the play selected by the Seniors. It was given March 23 and 24, 1960.

Synopsis: Exciting results were bound to occur when wealthy, declatorial Mr. Page decided to end his daughter, Janet's, romance with Jack Prescott, by taking her to Florida. From there (at least so he thought) it would be an easy step to send her to South America for a year's stay with his brother. But when Jack found out what was happening things begin to look complicated for him. So he follow Janet, run into an old college friend and his mother, in which a lucky incident occurred which solved everybody's problems. The old college friends mother and Janet's father get married and so do Janet and Jack. It had an exciting finish.

3rd row - Edwin Ebert, Stella Meyer, Bette Schus, Mary Ann Eble, Sharon Schridfer, Carolyn Whitten, Bill Livengood.

The seniors on the Comet Staff have all worked hard this year to make the Comet a good school paper. We have changed from mimeographing the paper to having it printed at the Dale Reporter Office.

Sharon Schriefer, as editor of the Comet, deserves credit for making our school paper a success. She has given much of her time to the paper.

On October 24, Sharon Schriefer, Mary Lee Cooper, and Willa Fay Bookstahler journalism conference for the members of all school paper staffs in Indiana at Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. The editors felt that they learned some valuable facts about publishing a paper and are looking forward to attending the conference next year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

2nd row - Mr. Lanman, Carolyn Whitten, Mary Lee Cloper, Norma Handschlegl, Mary Ann Eble, Mr. Livengood.
3rd row - Carrie Mae Webb, Doris Cooper, Bette Conner, Beatrice Roos.

The Student Council is the organization that represents the student body in matters concerning the school. The members are chosen for scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and interest in school activities. Mr. Hurst Livengood is the faculty representative in the Student Council. The four Senior members are Carolyn Whitten, President; Mary Ann Eble, Secretary; Bill Livengood, and Edwin Ebert. Of these Mary Ann Eble served for four years and Carolyn Whitten, Bill Livengood, and Edwin Ebert served for one year.

THE HISTORY OF THE

... of the ...

CHOIR

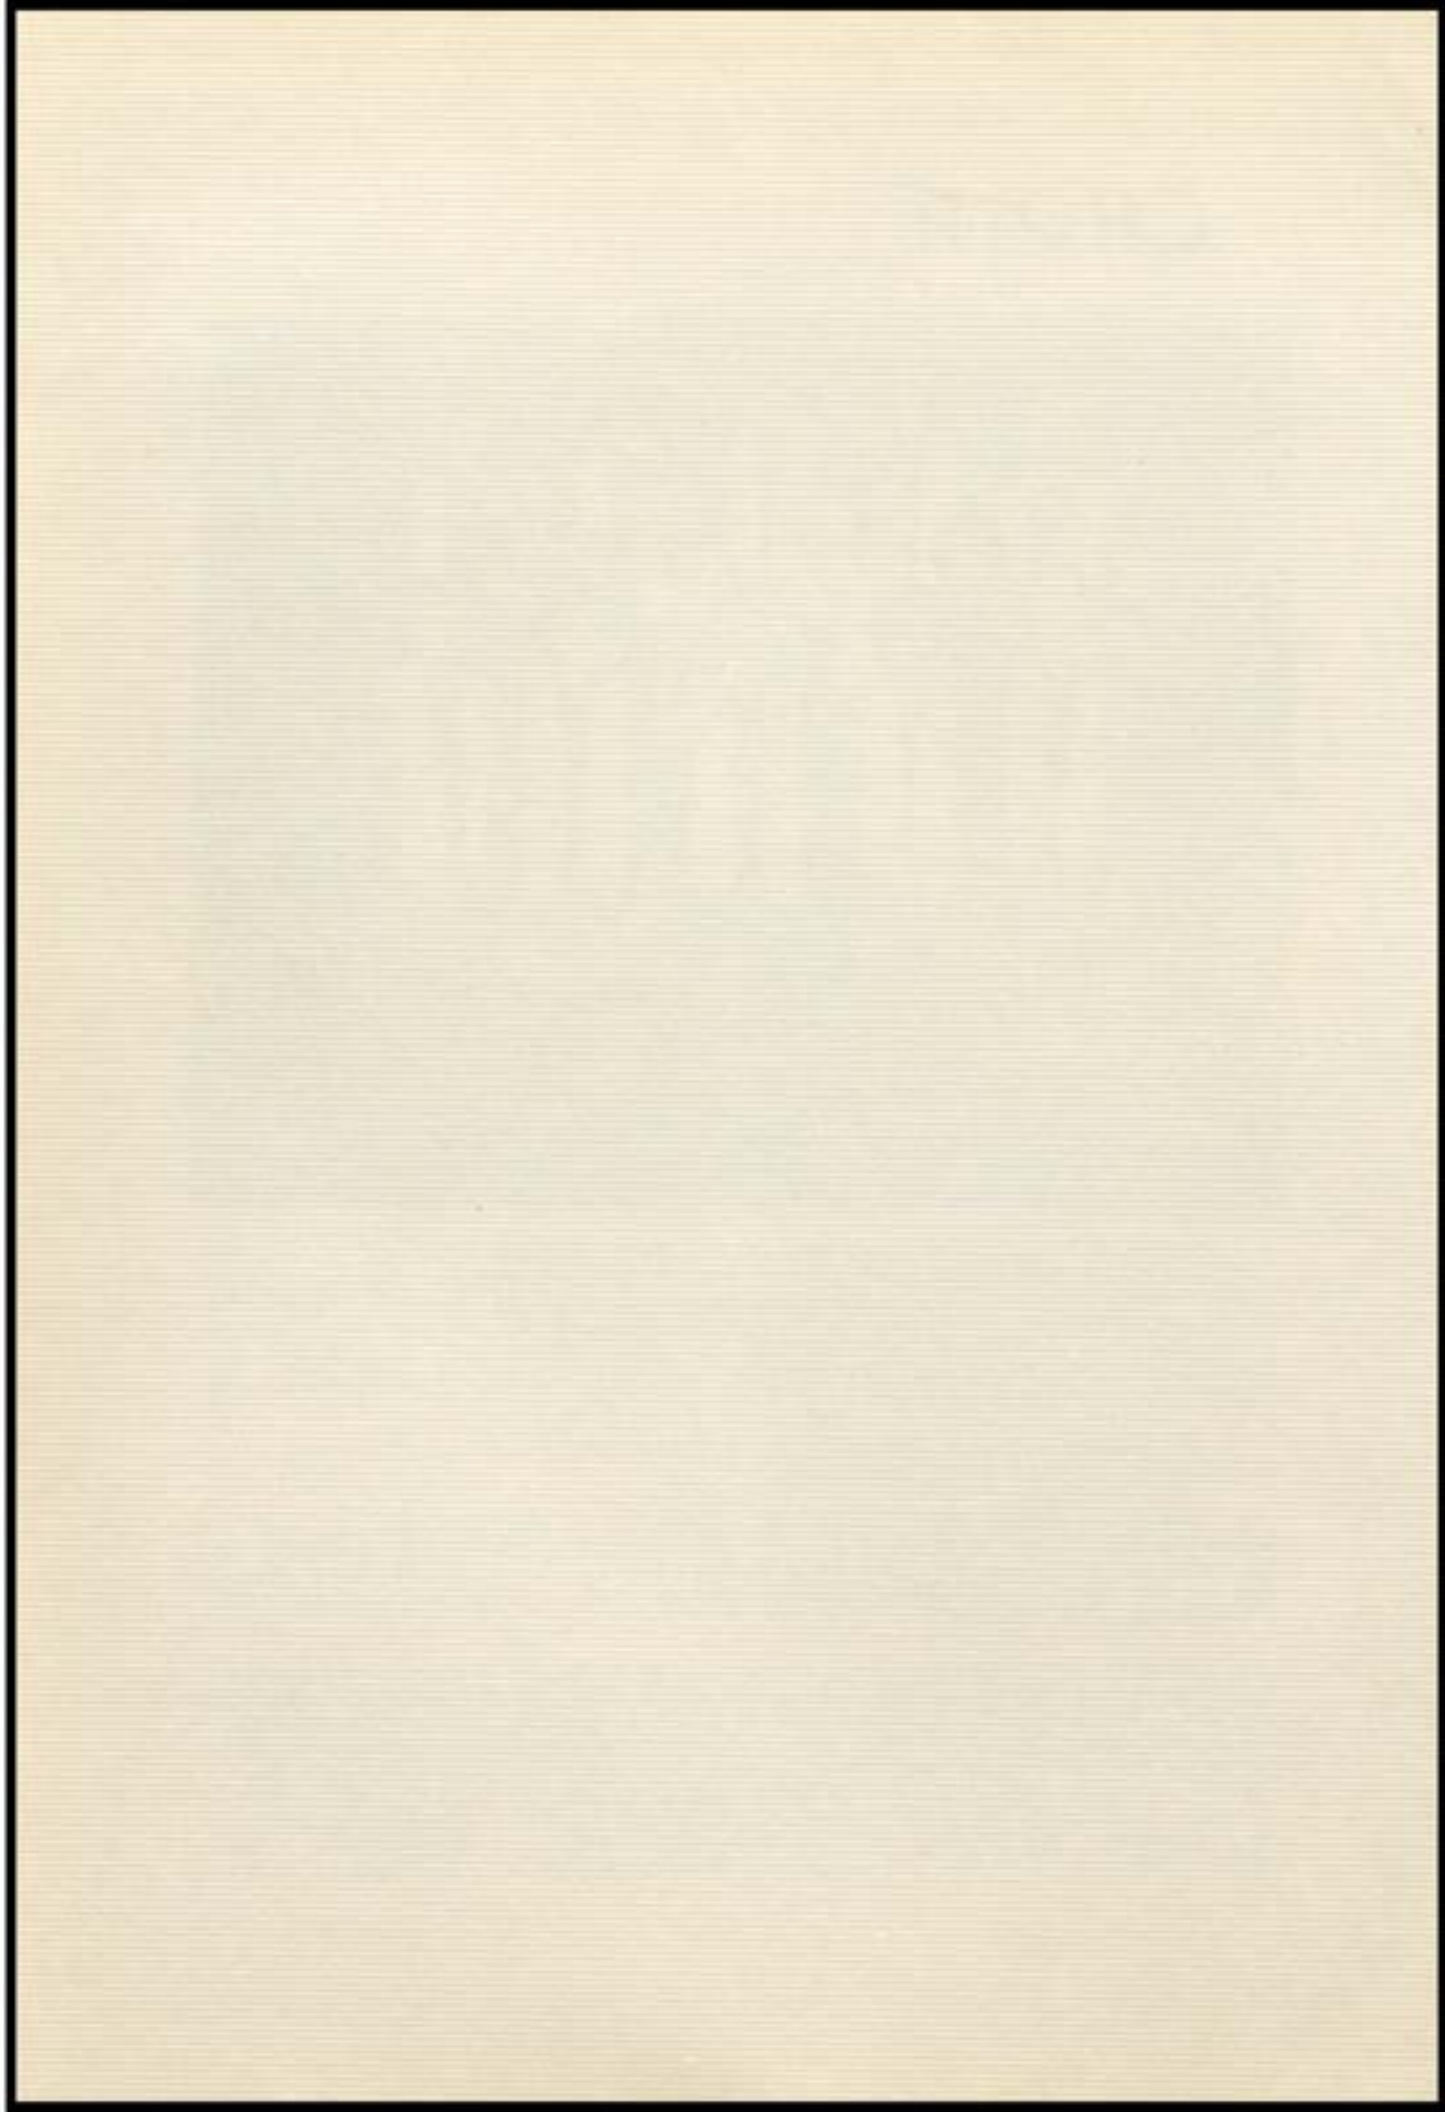

The music department has progressed very rapidly during the past year. The Choir has sponsored noon sales to help buy new music. The Choir furnished music for the Junior and Senior plays, Kiwanis Club at Evansville, Christmas program, also radio program on February 14, at Jasper. Others were, Teacher's Federation, February 16, Rural Urban Day, February 28, Spring Concert, March 31, Baccalaureate, April 16, and Commencement, Apr. 21.

The Choir has not entered any contests this year, as there was enough local work to keep them busy.

The Dale Choral Club presented a program on February 20, and the proceeds were divided between the Choir and Band. Willa Fay Bockstahler and Nancy Jo Glezen were the two main piano players of the past year. During the school year two members dropped out of Choir. They were, Gloria Bender and Agnes Wetzel.

The Dale School band is being rebuilt this year under the direction of Mr. T. E. Pegler. During the War when directors were very scarce the instrumental music program was discontinued and instruments lay idle for six years.

The students in the band were all given music aptitude tests to determine their musical talents. From the results recommendations were made and the instrumental program was begun again. Most of the students had their instruments by the middle of October.

On December 20, the band gave its first program. Players included those in both grade and high school. Some other activities the band participated in this year include, playing for pep sessions, basketball games, Rural Urban Day, Senior Play, and commencement exercises.

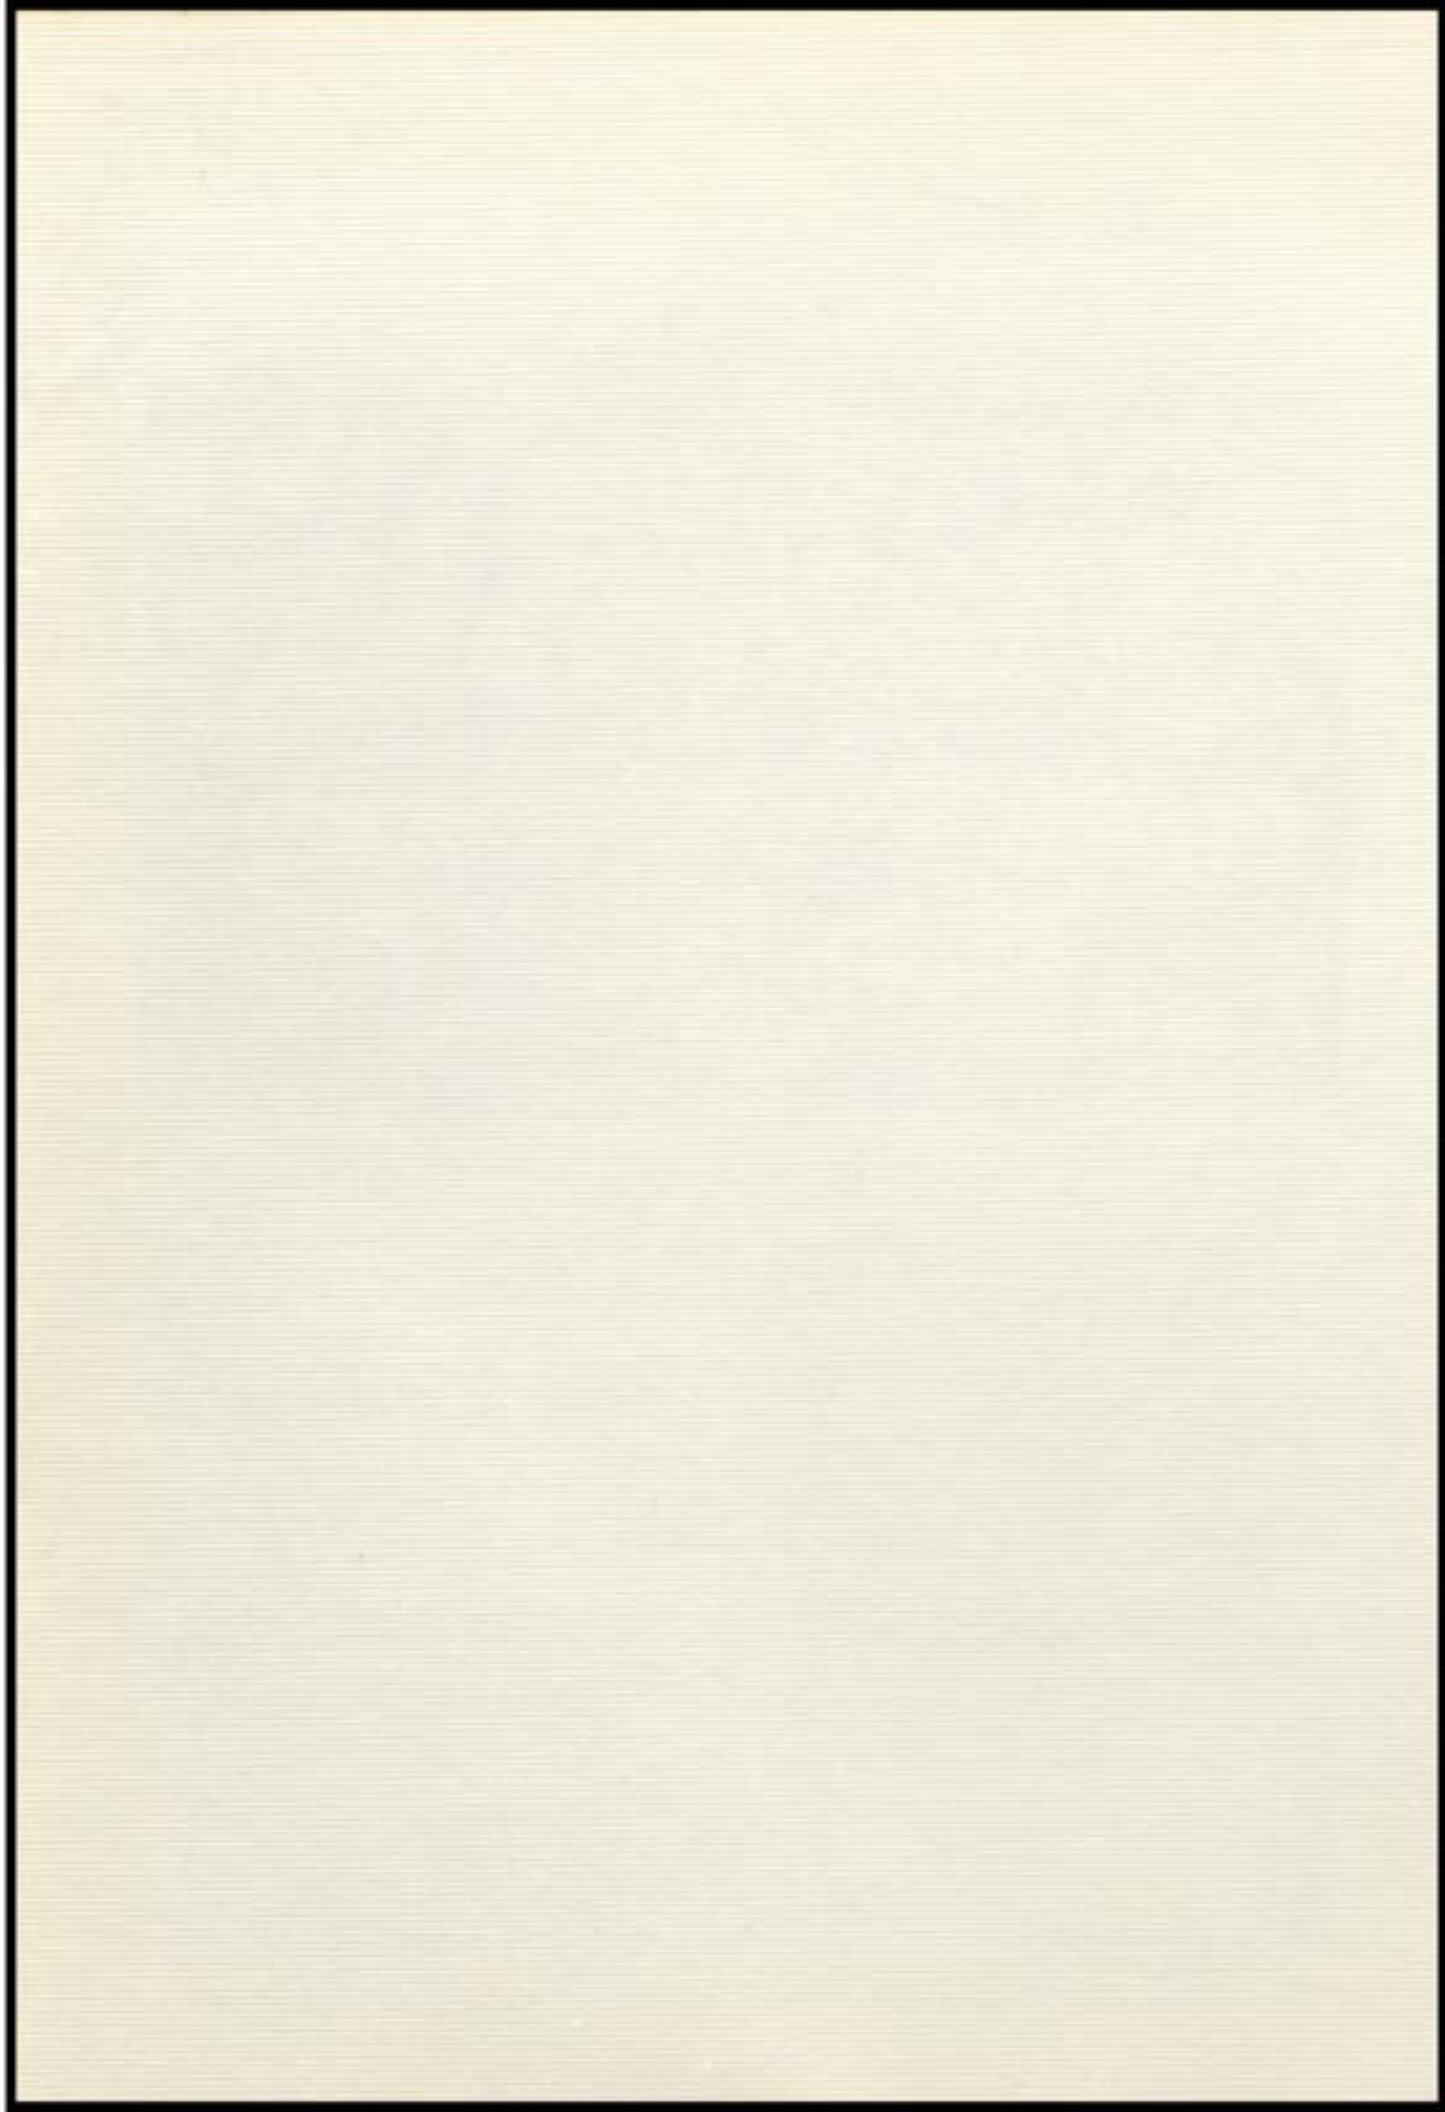

The bands spring concert was given on April 13. The High School group is made up of 14 freshmen, 9 sophomores, and 3 juniors. The grade school enrollment includes 7 eighth graders, 3 seventh graders, 4 sixth graders, and 9 fifth graders.

The band officers are Norma Reinhart, president; Glen Schriefer, Vice President; Ruth Walters and Brownie Winkler, secretaries; and Richard Roessler, Treasurer.

Pep Session

During the basketball and football seasons, various groups sponsored pep sessions, given in the gym on the day of the game. Little skits and plays were given, teachers were called upon to give talks and sometimes yells, and the cheerleaders led the whole student body in rousing cheers to push the basketball and football boys on to victory.

Booster Club

The Booster Club is organized for the purpose of boosting the team on, giving them more pep when they are feeling low, help them build up their courage when they come upon a tough opponent. It also makes the shakers for tourneys and other things that go with ball games. This year for president, we elected, Sharon Schriefer, for secretary and treasury, Gloria Brown.

Movies

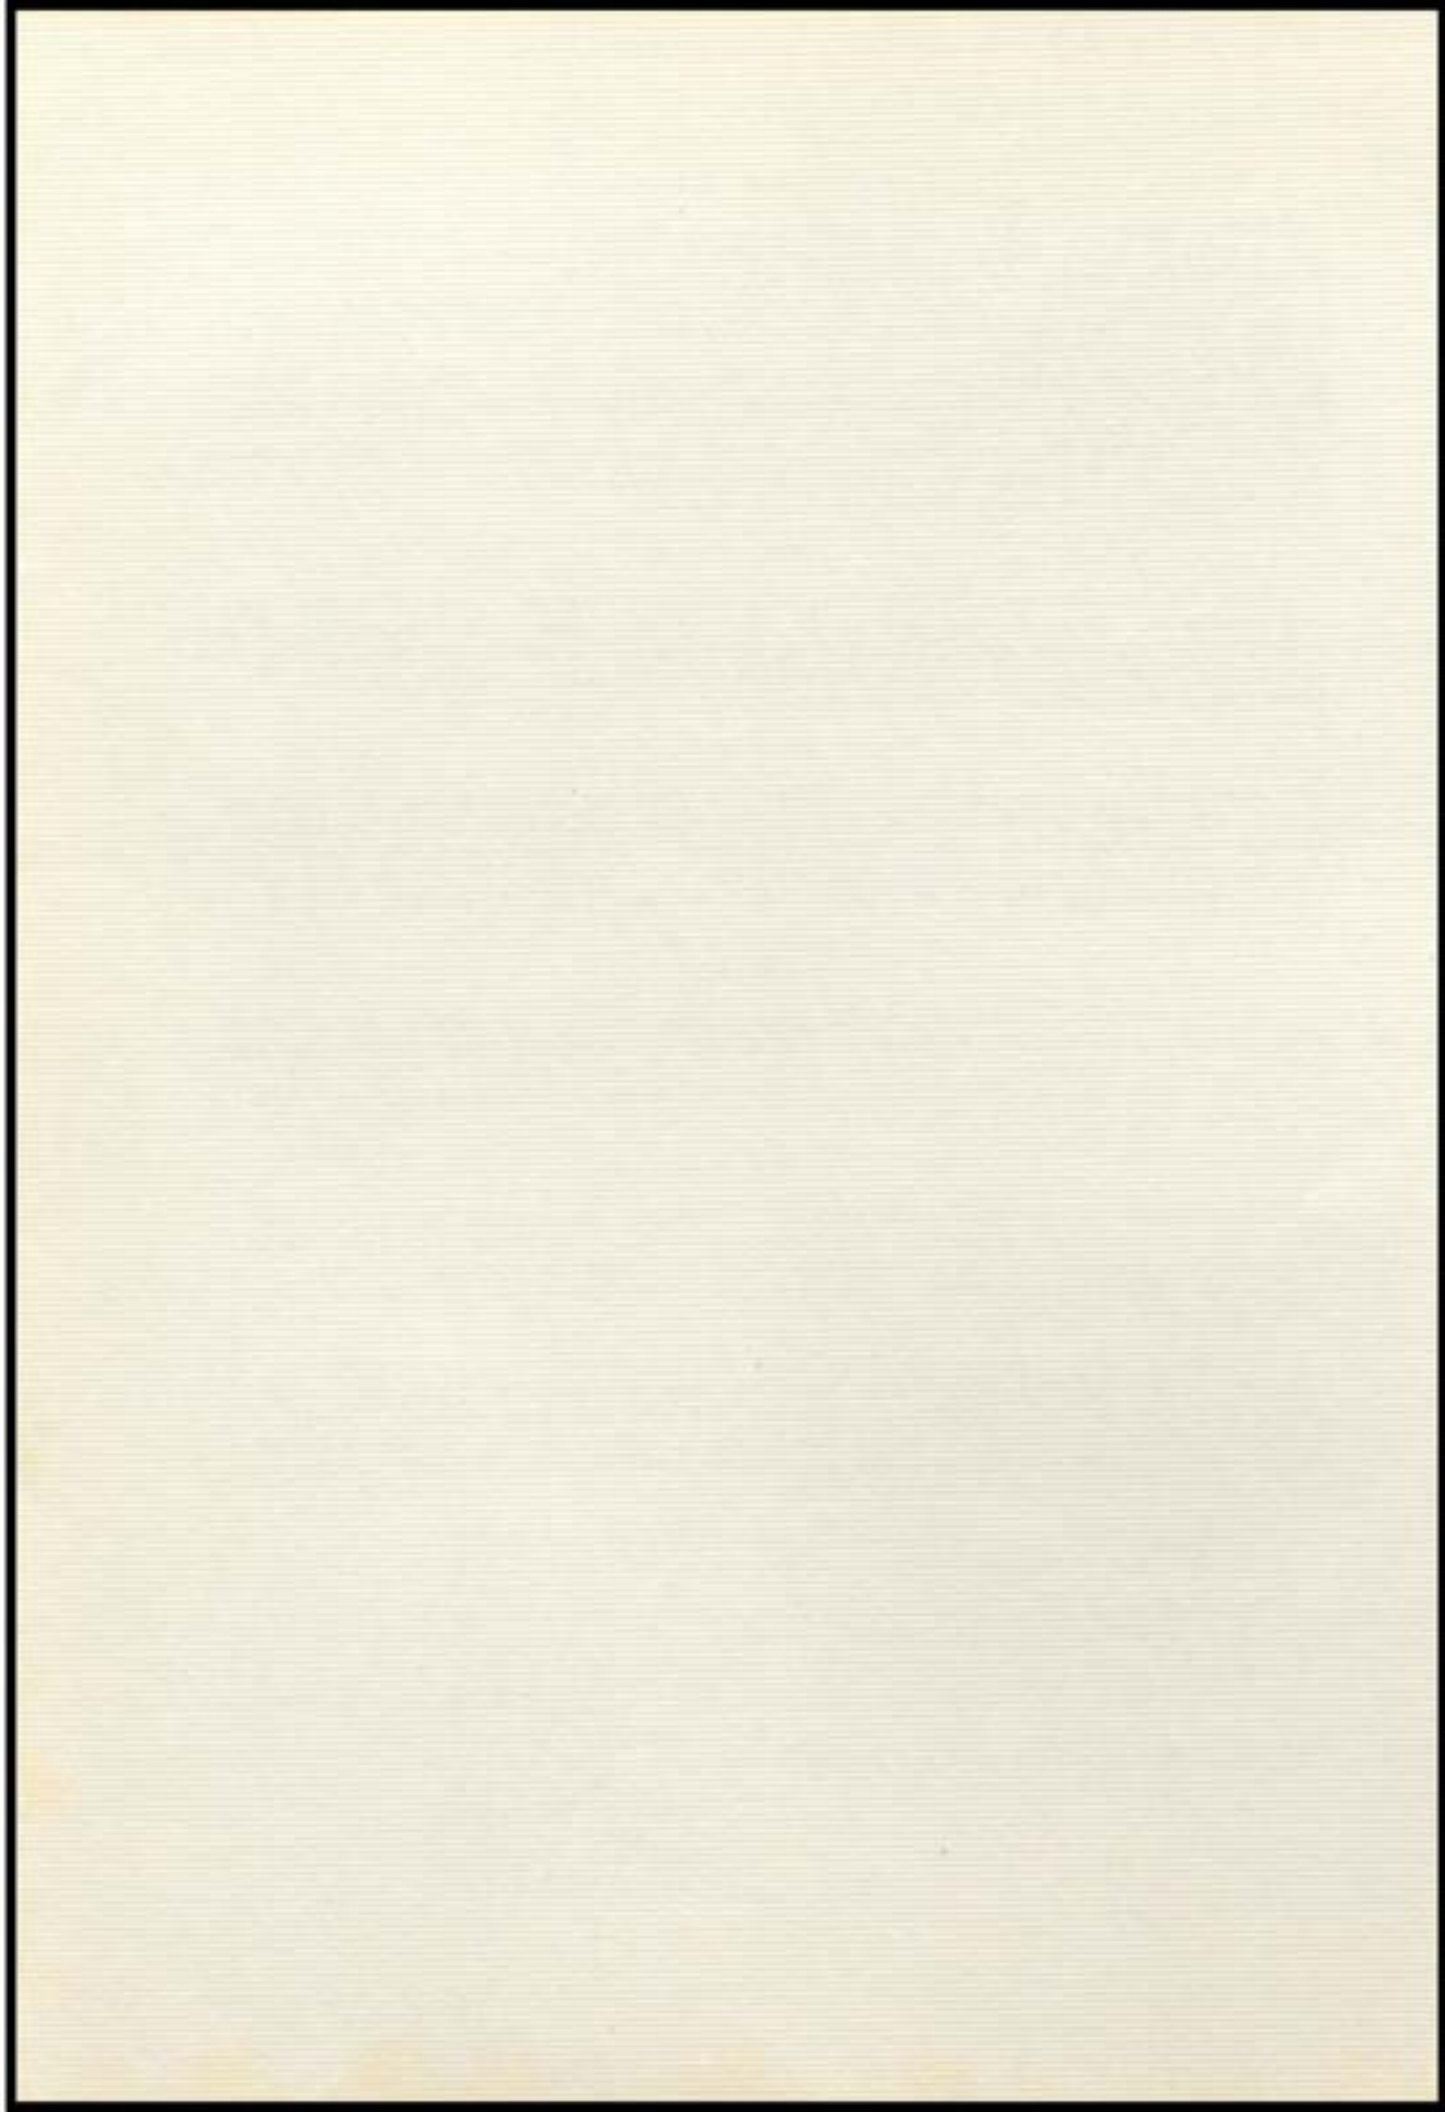

Quite a few educational films were shown during the year. Among them were films on Jefferson and the Declaration of Independence, films showing the process aluminum and paper go through, and many others. The films shown for entertainment were "Sun Valley Serenade," "Mark of Zorro," and "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now".

The Comet

Our school paper was successfully published this year by the seniors with the help of the sponsor, Mrs. Bovinet. The first three issues were produced at school on the mimeograph machine owned by the department. Beginning with the December issue, however, the paper was printed at the Dale Reporter Office.

For the first year since they have been publishing a school paper, the senior editor and the editor elected from the junior class for next year, and the junior co-editor attended the Indiana High School Press Association at Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana on October 28. These reported that the conference was a success and they hoped other editors would be privileged to make the trip.
